SPORTS

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Cincinnati 2-8, St. Louis 5-15.
St. Louis, June 1.—St. Louis won both games of the double header from Cincinnati. In the first the locals bunched hits in the eighth inning. In the second game the visitors secured an early lead, gathering four runs in the third, three in the fourth and another in the fifth. The locals scored two in the sixth and came back with ten in the seventh, when the visiting pitchers hit two batsmen and were hit for nine singles. Two singles, two doubles and two bases on balls netted the locals three more in the eighth. First game:

Portland Wins Easily.
Portland, Ore., June 1.—Ables was retired at the end of the fifth inning of yesterday's game with Oakland after Portland had scored four runs during that inning. Knight who succeeded him, was hit just as effectively, however. Koestner was a mystery when he let down the bars. Henderson was sent in to relieve him in time to save the day. Both McCredie and Wolverson were sent from the grounds for thinking audibly and emphatically in Umpire Finney's presence.

Score:	R. H. E.
Oakland	..... 4 8 2
Portland	..... 9 10 2
Knight, Ables and Tiedeman; Henderson, Koestner and Murray.

Sacramento 5, Vernon 2.
Los Angeles, June 1.—In the fourth inning only, was Sacramento able to do anything with the delivery of Brackenridge, but it was enough to secure victory. Double plays in which Lerchen, Danzig, Shinn and O'Rourke participated, helped to keep down Vernon's total in the run column.

Score:	R. H. E.
Vernon	..... 2 7 3
Sacramento	..... 5 6 2
Brackenridge and Brown; Nourse and Thomas.

Frisco 7, Angeles 1.
San Francisco, June 1.—San Francisco had no trouble in winning from Los Angeles yesterday, although for the three innings the local fans had their fears for Los Angeles scored in the initial frame and until the fourth the Seals failed to send a man around the circuit. Then they sent four. In the sixth the Seals registered three more.

Suter was stingy to the visitors, allowing them only seven hits, while the Seals assembled 14 off Thorsen. Two double plays by the locals lent excitement to the affair.

Los Angeles	..... 1 7 2
San Francisco	..... 7 14 1

Tacoma Defeats Portland.
Tacoma, June 1.—Bunching hits in the sixth inning, Tacoma put over two runs yesterday and won the game by a score of 3 to 1. Errors on the part of the visitors contributed to the result. Harris was put out of the game for disputing a decision of Umpire Baumgarten.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON DEFEATS CALIFORNIA

Eugene, Ore., June 1.—The University of Oregon defeated the fast University of California team here yesterday. The game was characterized by the snappy work of Oregon against the rather ragged play of the visitors. Jamison for the locals opposed Fooker on the mound but the latter had a sore arm and he was landed on heavily from the outset. Oregon got four runners across the plate in the first inning and thereafter it was only a question of how many times the locals would score. Jamison was effective at all times and was accorded splendid support by his team mates.

Score:	Calif. Ore.
California	..... 0 5 4
Oregon	..... 9 12 1
Jamison and Taylor; Fooker and Stoner.

"The Mine's Blown Up."

I was sitting on the edge of my bed, loosening the heel of one of my rubber boots with the toe of the other, when suddenly through the stillness of the sleeping town, from the power house half a mile away, came a low and rising note, the great siren whistle in the power house. Almost fascinated, I listened as the great note rose higher and more shrill and died away again. One blast meant a fire in the town, two blasts fire in the buildings at the mine and three blasts, the most terrible of all, a disaster or trouble in the mine. Once more, after an interminable pause, the sound came again and once more rose and died away. I did not move, but there was a sudden coldness that came over me as once more for the third time, the deep note broke out on the quiet air. Almost instantaneously the loud jingle of my telephone brought me to my feet. I took down the receiver. "The mine's blown up," said a woman's voice.—Atlantic.

Saying No.

The author of "Pat McCarty," a book of verse with a setting of prose, shows how naturally some of the Irishmen of Antrim dilute the wine of narrative with the water of verbiage. In the excerpt below—"The Way We Tell a Story"—the diluent is used with a particularly free hand:

Says I to him, I says, says I.
Says I to him, I says.
The thing, says I, I says to him.
Is just, says I, this way.
I hev, says I, a great respect
For you and for your breed,
And anything I cud, I says,
I'd do, I wud indeed.
I don't know any man, I says,
I'd do it for, says I.
As fast, I says, as for yours' self,
That's tellin' ye no lie.
There's naught, says I, I wudn't do
To please your feyther's son,
But this, I says, ye see, says I,
I says, it can't be done.

So far Governor Harmon and Speaker Clark have not been heard joining in the laudation of Governor Wilson.

The Spectacled Bear.
The spectacled bear of Ecuador is so called because of a patch of white around each eye, which makes the animal look as though he was peering through a pair of great spectacles.

In size and general color the spectacled bear looks not unlike the American black bear. But its hair is very shaggy. At each side of the head is a white bar, which gives the animal the appearance of wearing a halter. But the most distinctive feature is the white around the eyes.

Attachment.

The schoolteacher was trying to illustrate the difference between plants and animals.

"Plants," she explained, "are not susceptible of attachment to man as animals are."

"How about burs, teacher?" piped a small boy who had passed the summer in the country.—Chicago News.

Make Children Happy.

The first duty toward children is to make them happy. If you have not made them happy you have wronged them. No other good they may get can make up for that.—Charles Buxton.

His Reward.

Lawyer Brown—So I called the judge a liar. Lawyer Jones—And then what did you do? Lawyer Brown—Thirty days.—Toledo Blade.

And the Grounds.

Lady Customer—Do you keep coffee in the bean? New Clerk—Upstairs, madam. This is the ground floor.—Princeton Tiger.
