REWARD OF $2000 IS OFFERED FOR MURDERER

Corvallis, Or., June 10.—The Benton county court has offered $1000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the murderer or murderers of Mrs. Elizabeth Giffith, who was murdered Friday night and thrown into Rock creek near Philomath.

By telephone, Governor West duplicated the reward. Owing to the fact that many people crowded into the house to the spot where the body was found, bloodhounds could not be used and the county officials were unable to track the murderers.

There is no conflict between county officers and the district attorney and the officials have not been censured locally.

Sheriff Gellatly stated this noon:

"There is no conflict between District Attorney Clark and this office. We are working hand in hand to run down the murderers."

Y. W. C. A. Meetings.

New York, June 9.—A number of important sectional conferences for student, city, rural and industrial branches of the Young Women's Christian Association will be held this summer, beginning today, with the convening of the southern general conference at Asheville, N. C. This meeting will continue ten days and is expected to result in a great revival of interest in Y. W. C. A. work in the southern states. Leading officials of the general association from this and other cities will address the convention.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

No Offenders in Toils.

Today was another idle day for the police court as no charges had been backed against any offenders.

Civic Club to Meet.

The Civic club will hold a meeting in the city hall tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Prof. L. W. Keeler of Echo is transacting business in Pendleton today.

Mrs. Jot H. Parkes returned last evening from a short visit to Walla Walla.

Kennedy is Recovering.

According to the Portland Oregonian, B. E. Kennedy, formerly of this city, is now there from southern California and has so far recovered from his rheumatic illness as to be able to walk.

New Farmers' Warehouse.

The Farmers' Union Warehouse company, which already has several grain warehouses scattered over the county and which are run on the mutual plan, will construct another warehouse immediately at Vansycle station.

Mrs. Armstrong Very Low.

Mrs. Elizabeth Armstrong, who is past 91 years of age, is lying in a critical condition at her home in the west part of the city. She suffered a paralytic stroke three years ago from which she had never entirely recovered and a relapse Wednesday night has made her recovery doubtful.

Spokane Train Very Late.

The Spokane train due here at Pendleton at 2:15 a. m. did not reach this city until well towards noon owing to a derailment near Tekoa. The Spokane train which is scheduled to leave here at 7 a. m. did not leave until after the arrival of the delayed No. 3 as it is made up out of the cars of the latter.

Gypsies Come to Town.

The ougi board will have close competition during the next few days in preying upon the minds of the superstitious. Five wagon loads of itinerant gypsies pulled into the city this afternoon and will probably establish their camp on the outskirts to enable the women of the party to circulate about the city and pick up what coin they can by fortune telling and other means.

Hobo Steals Coat.

A coat was stolen shortly after noon today from near the cleaning works of Van Bowman on west Court street. It had just been cleaned and put out to dry in the sun when it was discovered by a hobo in need of apparel. The theft was reported to the police and they left immediately for the jungles in search of the man with the coat.

Teachers' Exams Approaching.

County School Superintendent Frank K. Welles is preparing for the regular June teachers' examinations which will be held at the court house from June 21 to June 24 inclusive. The examinations will be for state and primary certificates. Notice of the subjects in which examinations will be held will be published in this paper during the next few days.

Organ Recital Tonight.

By a typographical mistake, the announcement of the organ recital in yesterday's issue of this paper was made to read "July 9" instead of June 9." The recital will be given at the Methodist church tonight, with Prof. Robert L. Scofield, director of the Whitman college of music, presiding at the organ. Guy Allen Turner of Walla Walla, a vocalist soloist of much merit, will assist Prof. Scofield. Admission will be free but a silver offering will be taken.

Mrs. Nolen Gets Search Warrant.

Mrs. Mamie Nolen, who was recently granted a divorce from her husband, Ralph Nolen and who is now suing him and his father, H. H. Nolen for over $10,000 damages for an injury sustained while working in their laundry, today secured a search warrant through the district attorney's office and the justice court for the purpose of looking for certain articles given her with the decree of divorce and which have been withheld.

Mr. Kellogg Takes Vacation.

H. C. Kellogg, who was recently given fifteen days in jail for living off the earnings of fallen women, had a brief taste of liberty today. He was put to work on the streets but it appears that his parasitic life of the past has unsuited him for manual labor and he soon deserted his job and went in search of the company with which he consorts. He was located at noon in a box in the "quillie" restaurant with a lady of ill fame and was soon once more locked within the city hustle and will, hereafter, be denied such liberties as have been granted him. When searched after his short freedom, a hand full of silver coin was found in his pockets.

Town Lots Are Sold.

By deeds recorded today the north half of lots 7 and 8 in block 1 of Kirk's first addition to Athena were transferred from T. E. Hammersley to A. F. Garrison for ten dollars and other valuable consideration and lots 6 and 7 of block 2 of Whitworth's addition to Echo were transferred from F. M. Conner to George H. Coppinger for $800.

Road Petitions Granted.

The county court is today still considering road petitions which have fairly rained in upon them for the past month. All but three of the eighteen petitions from the west end of the county have been granted but these three were thrown out because of objections filed against them by W. H. Skinner and others. The Guderian petition was somewhat premature as the road viewers had not passed on it and it will have to be held over until next month along with the Couse creek road petition which has stirred up the most heated controversy of any.

PORTLAND CROWDS BREAK ALL RECORDS

Portland, June 9.—With more visitors in the city than its people ever have been called on to entertain at one time, the climax of festivities of the week of gaiety was reached yesterday. The city is simply bulging over with the multitudes which have been attracted here from every point of the compass for the brilliant pageantry of the afternoon and evening.

Excursion trains, specials and regular trains, with greatly augmented equipment, have been delivering the rush of festival visitors at a pace that the City of Roses never has known before. Boats and electric lines have struggled with the task of handling the unprecedented throngs while the hotels and other places for lodging and entertainment have been strained to their capacity.

In all Portland's history there never has been such a representation of distinguished guests as there are in the city today at the apex of the carnival show.

The great Hudson-Fulton celebration held in New York in 1893 is represented by its executive manager, A. H. Stoddard, who declares that the Rose Festival commands a place among the foremost celebrations of the world. The great "Made-in-Canada" exposition, which will be held in Vancouver, B. C., in a couple of weeks, is represented by its president, C. S. Douglas, who says he has never seen anything to approach the festival attractions.

The International Apple Show is represented by R. H. Cosgrove, manager and secretary, who says he can't find words strong enough in praise of the floral feast.

The Seattle Golden Potlatch is represented by Manager Pace, who is here with several thousand Seattleites to witness the remaining events of the week. The Panama-Pacific Exposition, the Panama California Fair, the New Orleans Mardi Gras, the Honolulu Mid-Winter tournament are all represented by official delegates who have come here because of the splendid publicity the Festival has given the city.

For today's program the Festival display to the world of visitors the finest tribute that the West has ever paid to man's most noble friend, the horse. The parade was participated in by every section of the Pacific Northwest and conducted under the auspices of the Portland Hunt Club and the Riverside Driving association. The finest of thoroughbreds drawing the smartest of equipages to be found anywhere in this part of the country vied with one another in the contest for the costly trophies which had been hung up.

Lebanon's city council has accepted the bid of Bidwell, Hayden & Co. for a sewer system.

CLEVER ATTEMPT MADE AT JAIL BREAKING

Baker, Ore., June 9.—What was one of the cleverest attempts at a jailbreak ever attempted in this part of the country has just been made public by the sheriff's office. Using part of the bedstead and the thin slip of steel in the instep of their shoes, sharpened, Henry Hoffman and Ed Stanley, boxcar thieves in the county jail, from Huntington, fashioned a key to the cell door out of the back of a hair brush. The key worked successfully. Then they used a mirror to locate the bar on the outside of the corridor and gained that. They used another part of the bedstead, a heavy piece of steel sharpened to a chisel and cut a hole through the sheet iron ceiling of the jail from the top of the cage. They pulled themselves up through this and were about to use a coil of hose to lower themselves 50 feet to the ground when they were intercepted by Deputy George Herbert. The key to the cell is a large one and the only time they had to observe it was when the cell door was being locked and unlocked. It is an excellent piece of workmanship. The county jail is in at attic of the court house, and the sheriff's office says that if the men had been given 20 minutes more they would have escaped.

Eight Hour Day for Women.

Seattle, Wash., June 9.—After today no woman or girl in the state of Washington employed in any mercantile or mechanical establishment, store, shop, laundry, hotel or restaurant will be permitted to work for more than eight hours in any one day. The new law, effective today, reduces the hours of labor for the fair sex from ten to eight hours.
