Miss Cecile Boyd has returned to her home in Athens from Lewiston, having been graduated from the Idaho state normal school at that place on June 8. Miss Boyd was elected as head of the physical culture department and will return next fall to assume her duties. She has many friends in Pendleton who welcome her return to this county for the summer.

Yesterday the Sunday school children, together with their teachers and friends, availed themselves of Mrs. Despain's kind invitation to hold their annual picnic on her grounds. The day was ideal and so was the place. Six automobiles and other conveyances (some of them making six trips) were laden with those bent upon an enjoyable day, and with the exception of a few ducklings all got what they went for.

On Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Miss Laura E. Corporan of this city was united in marriage to Eloy L. Lundwell of Stanfield at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Nathan Evans performing the ceremony. Only a few friends were present at the nuptials. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Portland where they have been attending the Rose Festival and on their return will make their home at 819 Garden street.

Principal among the social events of the week were the two afternoons at cards given by Mrs. F. E. Judd and Miss Mary Roberts at the Judd home on North Main street, Tuesday and Wednesday. On the first afternoon the game of "500" was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. A. J. McAllister and Mrs. Charles Greulich. Bridge was the form of entertainment Wednesday in which Mrs. Leon Cohen, Miss Maud Sheridan and Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs were the trophy winners.

The regular monthly meeting of Pendleton chapter, American Woman's League, was held last Monday. A ruling from the head office was announced to the effect that hereafter all payments due the league from members and all subscriptions must pass through the hands of the local treasurer. One note paid and three full-paid members were reported.

The Chapter's Chautauqua Circle met yesterday for the election of officers, but owing to the small attendance only the very interesting program was carried out and the election postponed. Those desiring to take up the new year's Chautauqua Course "America" are sending in their subscriptions now. Both chapter and circle adjourned until their first regular meeting in September. A visit from E. G. Lewis, founder of the league, is expected at an early date.

Quite a number of friends gathered in the studio of Miss Harriet Young last Monday evening to hear the piano recital of one of her pupils, Lonie Minnis, assisted by Edna Zimmerman, pupil of Miss Edna Gates. A splendid program was given and much praise was bestowed upon Miss Minnis for her accomplishment, while Miss Zimmerman, who has long been a favorite with Pendleton audiences, received her usual quota of tributes. The following is the program as rendered:

Portland has been the Mecca of all travelers in the state this week, thousands going from every section to present at the annual festivities of the Rose Festival. Pendleton, like all other cities, has sent a large delegation to the metropolis and the city has, therefore, been rather quiet during the week. Among those attending the carnival from Pendleton were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mrs. L. D. Ideman, Mrs. Geary Taylor, Mrs. John Greulich and daughter, J. D. Cronin, Mrs. Joe Murphy, Dr. C. J. Smith, Mrs. Ed Cooper, Tom Millarkey, Mrs. F. E. Welsh, Jess Hale, Misses Mae and Hazel Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Devlin, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Osborn, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Sommererville and Miss Sydney Sommererville, Richard Devine, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, Mrs. Henry Thompson and Miss Ethel Thompson, Walter Wagoner, Mrs. Gus La Fontaine and daughters, Pauline, Olga and Helen, Norman Sarkis, James Thompson, Martin Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Smith, Mrs. Thomas Vaughan, Miss Una Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones and daughter, Miss Olive Jones, Wesley J. Bowman, Charles Marsh, A. C. Funk, E. W. McComas, Mrs. J. B. Perry and Miss Jennie Perry, Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, Mrs. T. P. O'Brien, Henry Collins, Mrs. V. Tallman, Horace Walker, Miss Edna Gates, Mrs. John Rust, Mrs. John Vert, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Conley, Clark Nelson, Joe Snooks, Carl Engdahl and E. B. Adrich.

Charles E. Owens, the popular mail deliverer on the rural route out from Adams, and Miss Susie A. Dupuis of this city, were married Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Guylie, 519 Post street. The ring ceremony was used. A number of Rev. R. E. Storey was the officiating friends and relatives were present minister. The couple left next day for Adams, where they will reside.

One of the first of the June weddings to be celebrated in this county occurred at Pilot Rock last Tuesday morning at 11:30 when Mr. Clarence Adams and Miss Margaret Meinloth, both well known and popular in this city, were united in marriage. The ceremony which united them was observed by only a few friends, the bride wishing a quiet wedding on account of a recent bereavement. It was in Bachelors' Hall that Rev. E. W. Warrington, pastor of the Pilot Rock Presbyterian church, said the words that made them man and wife, the only other persons present being Mrs. Walter Adams, Mrs. O. E. Harper and Miss Florence Adams of this city, and Mrs. Noble Turner of Pilot Rock. Following the wedding, a delightful luncheon was served the bridal party by Mrs. George Schlegel and Mrs. Fred Llewallen at the home of the latter after which the happy couple departed for the Adams ranch at Ukiah, where they will make their home. The bride's home before coming to Oregon was in Sparta, Michigan, but for the past two years she has been instructor of languages at the Pendleton high school, where she proved herself an extremely popular as well as an exceptionally capable teacher. While here she made her home with Mrs. O. E. Harper. The groom, who is a son of Mr. Walter Adams of this city, is one of the best known young stock ranchers in the county and was one of the principal participants in the Round-up last year.

Mrs. W. H. McCormach, who has been visiting with Mrs. C. E. Troutman at Aberdeen and with her sister in Salem, has returned to Pendleton. She stopped at Portland on her return to attend the Rose Festival.

A rare musical treat was afforded Pendletonians last evening when Prof. Robert L. Schofield, organist and professor of the science of music at Whitman college, gave an organ recital at the Methodist church, assisted by Guy Allen, Turner, baritone, of Walla Walla. The members of the audience were held enraptured by the music for an hour and a half and it was with manifest hesitancy that they left the building when the last tone of the organ had died away. Prof. Schofield rendered ten selections in all and proved himself a master on the instrument. All of his numbers delighted his hearers, but the one that seemed to hold them most was the Serenade by Guonod. Mr. Turner, who has long been a favorite with Pendleton audiences, has a voice of wonderful beauty and his first selection, "Recit and Air from 'Tannhauser,'" "To the Evening Star" by Wagner so pleased the audience that he was forced to repeat it. The following is the entire program as rendered.

Concerto in E, No. 5G. F. Handel

HEALTHY MOTHERS

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free MOTHER'S FRIEND book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

APPELL'S South African WATER BAG

Take no Substitute

This Letter Typifies the Attitude of All Users

While in Nevada recently I had occasion to drink out of one of your South African Water Bags. Water from the bag evidently tasted good on the tongue. We used one of your 2 1/2 gallon bags and the water remained cool all day, even though the temperature was near 75 in the shade, and in the evening I found the water sparkling and as cold as ice water. It certainly is a boon to those living in the arid regions.

Very Sincerely,
W. E. WIDBER
