Newsy Notes of Pendleton

County Court Adjourns.

The county court took adjournment yesterday afternoon after finishing the consideration of the many road petitions before it.

U. S. Attorney is Here.

United States District Attorney John McCourt, formerly district attorney of this judicial district and located in Pendleton, arrived in this city this morning to represent the government in the water cases in which testimony will be taken next week.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely is in Milton today on civil business.

County Commissioner M. M. Cockburn returned to Milton following the adjournment of the regular monthly term of the county court.

Representative S. D. Peterson is transacting business in Pendleton today, having come down from his home at Milton this morning.

Two Vags in Court.

Judge Fitz Gerald was called upon to administer justice to two vagrants in police court this morning, Charles Welsh and John Linden by name. Inasmuch as the former was a persistent beggar, he was given five days in jail to reflect upon the advantages of a life of toil. Linden was allowed one more chance, sentence being suspended while he hiked for the city limits.

Both Banks Postal Depositories.

By a dispatch received at this office today from Washington, both the First National and the American National bank of this city have been designated as depositories for postal savings funds from the postmaster. An announcement was made some time ago that the former bank had been thus named but it now appears that both of the local institutions are to be given deposits.

Trainload of Stock to Omaha.

Umatilla county sent out twenty-one carloads of stock over the Northern Pacific this morning, nineteen being of sheep and the other two of horses. C. A. Hale was the shipper of the sheep while J. P. Jones was the consignor of the horses and the destination of all was Omaha. Mr. Hale will load twelve more cars with sheep at Madras which will be united with the Pendleton shipment at Pasco.

An Exchange of Property.

By deeds filed with Recorder Burroughs today there has been an exchange of property between Luella B. Pinkerton and husband and George W. Craigen and wife, all of Weston. The former transfers to the latter 120 acres, sixty of which is located in sec. 4, twp. 3 N. R. 36 and sixty in sec. 19, twp. 4 N. R. 31, for a consideration of $2500, while the latter signed over to the former 119.84 acres in sec. 4 twp. 2, N. R. 36 for $3500.

Thornhollow Road is Open.

Local people will receive with pleasure the news that the Thornhollow road is now open for traffic. A telegram was received this afternoon from P. A. McPhee, manager of Wenaha Springs, stating that the bridge across the Umatilla at the foot of Thornhollow grade, was completed and the road thrown open. This will enable automobile parties to make the trip up to the popular resort tomorrow and it is very probable that a number of people will do so.

Steel Splinter in Eye.

Clarence Wheeler, who is in the employ of Ray Ewe, sustained a very painful injury yesterday. While grinding an axe on an emery stone the steel splinters flew on his hat and, when lying down later, one of these minute fragments fell in his eye and was forced into the ball just below the pupil by rubbing. Suffering great pain, he went to the office of Dr. R. E. Ringo and had the offending steel removed. His sight will not be affected as a result of the accident.

Dead Man's Brother Arrives.

Robert E. Pohl of Dayton, Ohio, a brother of Victor Pohl, the young man who was run over and instantly killed near Cayuse Monday morning, arrived in Pendleton this morning and will bury the body here. He states that his dead brother left home four years ago for the west and has never been back since. He is a well dressed young man of pleasing appearance, indicating that the dead boy came of good family and was not a professional hobo. Young Pohl will return to his home as soon as he has performed his sad mission.

Rev. Cornelison Returns.

Rev. J. M. Cornelison, missionary of the Tutuila mission, returned this morning after a two month absence in the east during which time he had charge of the Indian exhibit at the missionary exposition at Boston and at the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Atlantic City. For the month at the Boston meeting which was called "The World at Day Long" on the missionary work at the Indian reservation and estimates that over 500,000 people looked at his exhibit and listened to his talk. From Boston he went to Atlantic City where his daily routine was similar to that in Boston. Leaving Atlantic City he went to New York and on his return to Oregon stopped at Oklahoma City to visit his parents.

Shakespeare to Preach.

Boston, June 10.—Rev. John H. Shakespeare, secretary of the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland, will be the preacher at Harvard tomorrow. The distinguished clergyman will address several American congregations before returning home.

Dakota Celebration.

Yankton, S. D., June 10.—Dakota territory, comprising the present states of North and South Dakota, was organized in 1861 and the semi-centennial will be celebrated here in a lavish style during the week beginning tomorrow. Many visitors from all over the northwest are expected.

"WRONG NUMBER" ENDS RIGHT

Common Error of "Hello Girl" Has Uncommon Conclusion.

Owosso, Mich.—The marriage today of William Matthews, an Owosso molder, formerly of Detroit, to Miss Georgiana Shaw marked the consummation of a telephone romance that had its inception through a mistake made eight months ago. Asking for the number of a friend, Matthews was connected with the Shaw residence and it was Miss Shaw's sweet voice that answered. Matthews said more than was really necessary to rectify the error. The next time he talked with the girl over the wire it was no mistake. Soon afterward they met.

ARE ORDERED TO BATHE.

Muskogee Jurors in Hot Weather Cause a Novel Edict.

Muskogee, Okla.—One of the requirements of a juror in Muskogee county is to keep his body clean. District Judge W. R. Allen Saturday made a court order requiring all members of the jury in his court to take a bath before they entered the court room Monday morning.

The order followed a petition by jurors who complained that some of their fellow members were objectionable to them especially when confining in the jury room. Some of the "hill billies" of the jury signed the petition, it is asserted, to clear themselves. The order was made in open court and filed for record.

MAKING PIES BY MEANS OF ELECTRICITY

Now they make pies by machinery. To the novice this would seem quite impossible but it is an established fact in every modern bakery. It is well known that most of the baker's products are made by electrically-driven machinery but the latest addition to the mechanical baker is the pie making machine.

Mixing and kneading machines prepare the dough and cut it into lumps of just the right size for a single pie crust, which lumps are dropped one by one into the hopper of a pie machine. Each lump passes between rollers in two different directions, thereby flattening it into a disk a trifle larger in diameter than the needed pie crust. The disk of dough thus formed slides down over one of the ten pie tins on a revolving table, and when it comes to the other side a baker pours a ladle full of filling on it. Then, when it passes under the rollers a second time, another disk of dough drops on it, forming the upper crust. This is pressed down tightly by the roller, which also trims off the projecting edge of the crust, leaving the pie ready for the oven. With such a machine, three men can make from 500 to 600 pies an hour.

A small electric motor, perched at the top of the machine supplies the power. Such a pie machine is said to pay for itself even with an output of only 1000 pies per day.

KRYPTOK SPECTACLES & EYEGLASSES

With them the eyesight of youth is re-established and to all appearance Kryptoks are the same as young folks glasses, with nothing to distinguish them from the latter but the wearers own pleasant knowledge of their wonderful far and near qualities. ## BOTH TEAMS CONFIDENT OF WINNING CONTEST

BEARS AND BUCKAROOS WILL CLASH TOMORROW

Walla Walla Coming Over Strong to Take Final Game of the Series—Berger to Be on Mound for the Locals—The Line-up.

Games Tomorrow.
Walla Walla at Pendleton.
Athens at Milton.
Weston-Echo game cancelled.

Greatest of all games that have been played in eastern Oregon this season will be the Pendleton-Walla Walla contest in this city tomorrow afternoon and local fandom is fairly agog over the approaching struggle. Ever since that game two weeks ago when the Buckaroos took the hides of the Bears in a thirteen inning game, there has been much excitement and speculation over the next meeting of the old rivals.

Walla Walla is coming over strong, determined to take the deciding game of the series, and the locals are confident they can duplicate their victory of two Saturdays ago. Berger will be on the mound for the Buckaroos but it is still an unanswered question who will do the twirling for the visitors. However, it is safe to predict that they will have a top liner.

Secretary Cooley of the league has figured out the batting averages of the eighteen men who will probably compose the two teams tomorrow and the figures show that the local players have a considerably larger team average than the Bears. Keefe, who will wear a Buckaroo uniform tomorrow, has the best average of any of the men who have played in a majority of the games during the season. He has been clouting the ball at a .432 lick, which is "going some." However, Berger, the clever mound artist of the locals, has a better average still for the three games in which he has figured, as the figures show a .533 percentage to his credit. The following are the figures for the two teams.

Pendleton.
	AB.	H. Pct.
Dickson, 3b	49	14 .286
Neivins, 2b	19	4 .210

McIntosh, c	6	2 .333
Parkes, p	2	0 .000
Team average		.212

There may be two umpires in the game tomorrow, one of whom will be Buerstette. Walla Walla has sent in an objection to him and asks that a Portland man be secured, but President Frazier declares there is no reason why the official umpire should not be used.

QUAIL ADOPTS CHICKENS.

Hovers Brood of Orphans and May Teach Them to Fly.

Odessa, Mo.—In one in this town will be surprised if sporting blood gets the better of a brood of motherless chicks which a quail has adopted for her own. In fact, the children of Edward McCauley, the street commissioner, are waiting expectantly for a whir and the sudden flight of the mother quail and its adopted children.

Last winter children found the quail fluttering with a broken wing in the street. While they effected a cure in the house the bird became quite tame. It became reconciled to civilization and took a place in the chicken yard.

Shortly afterwards a brood of chickens was hatched and the mother hen died. The quail, seeming to understand the situation, took charge of the orphans. The chicks follow it about the yard and take instructions in the matter of diet as the law. They can hardly be said to hover under its small wings at night, but it covers them as much as it can, and, unused to anything better, it is a happy family.

HANNAH S. LOWELL HAS PASSED AWAY

MOTHER OF EX-JUDGE STEPHEN A. LOWELL

Aged and Highly Respected Resident of Pendleton Dies at Her Home in This City—Widow of William Lowell—Funeral Tomorrow.

Mrs. Hannah S. Lowell, widow of William Lowell of West Minot, Maine, and mother of Ex-Judge Stephen A. Lowell of this city, died at the family home in this city on yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Lowell was an aged woman, having reached her eighty-seven years, and her decease resulted from the failure of vital forces. Her last illness extended only from April 30, but her strength has been falling since an attack of the grip about Christmas time. Toward the end she suffered from partial paralysis of the right side, and she has been confined to her bed since May 19.

Mrs. Lowell was born in Maine October 24th, 1824, and her maiden name was Hannah Shaw Attwood. She married William Lowell, who died in that state in 1889, and 1891 she came to Oregon with her son, and has made her home with him in Pendleton since that date. Here she has lived a quiet, retiring life, having little taste for society, and making few ac-
