RUNAWAY AUTO GOES OVER EMBANKMENT

PARTY INJURED WHEN MACHINE LANDS IN RIVER

When Car is Cranked it Jumps Forward and Plunges Over Bank Into the Willamette Twenty Feet Below—Mother and Babe in Water.

A tragedy was narrowly averted yesterday at the Oswego bridge when an automobile containing Melvin Plympton and Mrs. H. G. Terry, with her two babies, plunged over the embankment and into the Willamette river.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry, with their two babies, and Mr. and Mrs. Plympton and two children, who were on an outing, had left the car, which is the property of Mr. Terry, at the top of the bluff, while they had gone in swimming and the children were playing in the sand. Some one in the meantime had tampered with the levers, throwing the brake off and the machine in gear.

At 7 o'clock, when the party started homeward the instant the engine was cranked the car jumped forward and plunged over the bank into the river fully 25 feet below. Mr. Terry, who was cranking the machine, jumped aside and jerked the little boy out, throwing him into a rockpile, then jerked Mrs. Plympton and her little boy out, landing them in some bushes. At the same time Mr. Plympton, had tried to jump into the car to shut off the power and put on the brakes but the car had gained too much headway, and he, with Mrs. Terry and the two children, was carried over the bank.

The machine stopped about 18 feet from the bank and settled in water deep enough to completely submerge it. The occupants were easily rescued and with the exception of a few bruises, the shock and a drenching, were uninjured.

A rope was made fast to the machine and, with the aid of horses and 30 or 40 men, who had gathered, it was pulled to the shore. The assistance of another auto was obtained and the car towed to Portland.

Mr. Terry, the owner of the car, is a real estate man, with offices in the Yeon building. Mr. Plympton, his guest, is a resident of Salem, where he is employed in the office of State Printer Duniway.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has made it a favorite everywhere. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.
