LETITIA REYNOLDS IS DEAD.

Benefactress of Whitman College and Y. M. C. A. Succumbs.

Walla Walla, Wash., June 13.—Mrs. Letitia C. Reynolds, one of the pioneers of the Walla Walla valley, benefactress of Whitman college and the Y. M. C. A. of this city, died Sunday night after a long illness.

Mrs. Reynolds was one of the best known women of this part of the state.

Although she has lived in the city for 10 years her desire to renew again pioneer associations led to the erection of a suburban cottage near from the farm of her son, Harry A. Reynolds, which is now nearly completed and into which she had expected to move within a few weeks.

Mrs. Reynolds is survived by four sons, Allen H., Harry A., Reynolds of this city, W. S. Clark and C. W. Clark, and a daughter, Mrs. Lizzie C. Baker. Funeral services were held at her city home, 24 Clinton street, this morning.

ELECTRICAL STROM CLAIMS INDIAN VICTIM

ing from his ranch and reports that water came down Despain gulch in a torrent, overflowing the banks, which are about six feet high and fifty feet apart, washing a considerable number of chickens away and leaving a two inch layer of mud on the floors of a number of barns and outbuildings.

The family of Fred Rohde, who lives on the gulch, heard the roar of the approaching water and, thinking it to be a cyclone, retreated precipitately to the cellar.

According to a telephone message from Dr. W. R. Campbell, a wall of water four feet high swept down the south fork of Cold Springs canyon, wiping out the Hanson stock corrals and doing some other damage. A big head of water also flowed down the middle fork for several hours.

John Crow, report a small cloud-burst near his reservation farm which filled the gulch near there to the top of the banks, and reports from other sections indicate that nearly all of the many gulches over the county ran heavy streams during the storm.

Rain Benefits Grain.

Although some of the grain was damaged a little by the storm the benefit which will result from the rain will more than balance these losses, according to a number of authorities. An exceptionally heavy rain fell in the Holdman district where the recent hot weather was beginning to have an effect on the grain.

No Damage to Wires.

According to the local telephoned and power company men, but little damage was done to their lines and they consider themselves very fortunate.

Dr. F. W. Vincent, manager of the local office of the Pacific Light & Power company, was very much worried last night for fear that the electricity would play havoc with the plant and lines.

The storm was most violent to the east of the city to which the telephone and power companies owe their escape. A report is current that a number of poles on the farmer lines northwest of the city were struck by lightning but the report has not been authenticated.

A Night of Grandeur.

According to old residents, there have been but few worse electrical storms in Umatilla county than the one last night. Clouds began to gather shortly after 8 o'clock and soon flashes of heat lightning began to appear.

Within half an hour these flashes were continuous in every part of the heavens, at times spreading over the sky in blinding sheets so that the city was made light as day.

Occasionally a long streak of forked light darted angrily through the ominous clouds, while the artillery of the gods sounded in crash after crash.

Many people stayed out to watch the magnificence and grandeur of an angry nature, but the more timid retreated indoors early and pulled their blinds to shut out the terrifying light.

Rainbow in Sky.

A number of well known residents declare that a most beautiful rainbow spread across the sky to the north about 10:30 caused by the moonbeams and the falling rain and the sight, they assert, was beautiful beyond description.

Contrary to expectations, the storm of last night has not been followed by a cool day for the thermometer began rising early this morning and by noon was almost as high as it was yesterday. Many people are expecting a repetition of the storm tonight.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

"Orpheum."

Pendleton's favorite picture theater. Good program for Tuesday's change:

1. "The Quarrel on the Cliff." This film is taken by the Edison Co. in Cuba. It deals with the old eternal triangle but is worked out along novel lines.

This film abounds in beautiful scenes and the rescue from the blank wall of the cliff is one of the most interesting and sensational sights that have been thrown on the screen for some time.

2. "The Bankrupt." Gaumont. A good drama. The story is clear, acted quietly and naturally.

3. "Discharging the Cook." Selig. This is a slap stick comedy in which a bull pup and a quantity of dynamite play important parts.

4. "Dear, Kind Hubby." Selig. This is a short, snappy comedy, illustrating how a business man goes about cooking a dinner. After several attempts he telephones for a cook and joy again reigns supreme.

5. "Sailor Jack's Reformation." Kalem. A story of the Salvation army. In point of moral and dramatic worth this is one of the best stories ever told. Miss Gene Gauntier as Capt. Agnes.

"The Pastime."

The house of quality. A big special for Tuesday's change. A picture that every one is interested in, the "Life of Count Leo Tolstoy." Pathe. An interesting and intimate view of the most loved man Russia ever produced.

Better than a biography. A closer insight into the character and everyday habits of this great man, his family, his home, his philanthropy and his recreation may be obtained from this film than by any other means. Learn thus to know one of the world's greatest figures.

"The Angel of the Slums." Lubin. This well told story has for its heroine a young woman settlement worker. She saves a thief and induces him to become a man. The views of slum life are characteristic and are interesting to audiences unfamiliar with such scenes. In a way, too, the film shows the kind of work the social settlements do. It is not too much to call the picture educational.

"American Beauties." A perfectly glorious picture of roses and pretty women. The most artistic film ever released.

"On the Desert's Edge." Essanay. Graphic scenes in and about the great Mojave desert make this film notable. This is a sensational western drama with many thrills.

The love story, with the jealousy of the bad man gives it a heart touch.

"The Samoura's Epitaph." Pathe. A Japanese film d'art. Played by the leading actors from the Royal theater of Tokio. This picture shows the greatest struggle ever shown on a screen. How an unarmed youth overcame a Samoura armed with a sword.

"The Rival Artists." Some art critics were led to praise the work of an unknown artist, whom previously they had roasted, thinking all the time they were looking at the work of a famous artist. Their discomfiture can be imagined on discovering their mistake. A love story is interwoven and the denouement is a good ending.

"A Tale of Ebon Tints." Reliance. This is a powerful drama by the well known Reliance company. As in the case with all their stories, there are many intensely dramatic situations that compel your closest attention. Superb acting and fine coloring in this picture.

Two large electrically-regulated clocks have been installed at the Manhattan end of Brooklyn Bridge.

"The Cosy."

Fine program for Monday and Tuesday.

"Shifty's Claim." Bison. Shifty is a bandit but he writes his sister that he has a mine. Shifty is killed while resisting arrest and when his sister comes to visit him she is told he died in a mine explosion. The way in which the sheriff and the boys kept up the bluff is very interesting.

Pendleton Beer THE BEST

Quality—quality first, last and all the time—is the watchword in the production of City Brewery Beer

You do not find it lacking in that "life" so necessary to give it the required zest.

You assist in providing employment for home labor, building up your home city and supporting institutions that place money in circulation here, when you buy home products in preference to those that are shipped in.
