

Don't Miss the Big LINEN SUIT SALE

All This Week

Values up to $10

Choice $2.98

F. E. LIVENGOOD & CO.

July Ladies Home Journal Patterns Ready.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. M. Sox of Baker is registered at the St. George.

Mayor H. R. Newport of Hermiston spent last night in Pendleton.

Attorney L. A. Esteb of Echo, came in from that town last evening.

B. Scribner of Athens, was a Pendleton business visitor yesterday.

D. Wright of Walla Walla, was a business visitor in Pendleton last evening.

J. P. Hayden of Walla Walla, was over from the Garden City last evening.

George G. Schlegel, the Pilot Rock banker was a visitor in the city yesterday.

William Slusher returned to his sheep ranch at Nolin this morning on the local.

J. T. Walls of the Chicago & Northwestern, is among the railroad men in the city today.

Attorney William Warner returned to his home in Hermiston on the motor last evening.

Mrs. W. H. Blakely went to Adams yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. B. A. Marquis.

C. J. Freese, the veteran representative of the Spokesman-Review, is in Pendleton today.

Traveling Passenger Agent Jack O'Neil of the O.-W. R. & N. company, is in the city.

Mrs. L. J. Thornton of Echo came in from that town yesterday and spent the night here.

Charles McAlavy and wife of Helix were among the out of town visitors in the city last evening.

R. F. Johnson, son Colonel, and daughter, Miss Annie, left today for Portland to attend a church convention.

Ernest Knight arrived in Pendleton yesterday with a bunch of stock from McKay and left today for his ranch at Helix.

John I. Springer, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Great Northern, is making enditeon an official visit today.

William McCorkel, Dick Holdman and Will Burkhardt are in the city today from their homes on Reid and Hawley mountain, near Weston.

Mrs. Mary Johnson has returned from Portland where she attended the grand chapter O. E. S. and was elected as grand treasurer for the coming year.

John Vert has returned from Portland where he attended the grand lodge of Masons and was reelected for the eighth time as chairman of the jurisprudence committee.

Miss Viva Warren, principal of the Hawthorne school, is now in the city upon a short visit. Early in July she will accompany her invalid father on a trip to New York to visit with relatives.

Miss Estella Kirk, a teacher of Pueblo, Colo., who has been visiting Supt. and Mrs. J. S. Landers in this city for several days, resumed her trip to San Francisco this morning, where she will attend the N. E. A. convention.

C. D. Gabrielson, Sr., and C. D. Gabrielson, Jr., of Salem, arrived in Pendleton this morning, having driven overland from Tre Dalles in their car. They were scheduled to arrive last evening but lost their bearings in the dark and were forced to spend the night in a sheep corral.

GRANT ASKS MERCY FOR JOE CASEDAY

Baker, Or., June 21.—Joe Caseday, the Grant county murderer, would be a free man today if the people of that county had their say in the matter of a petition asking Governor West to pardon the ex-deputy sheriff if being circulated throughout the county, according to Sheriff Collier, who was in this city last evening, on his way to Salem with Caseday, he having been brought back to Canyon City for resentencing, as his case was appealed to the supreme court and the sentence imposed by Judge Davis in the circuit court was affirmed.

Caseday was resentenceed to hang July 28, by Judge Dalton Biggs yesterday.

Caseday was held to be responsible for the death of Ollie Snyder, who he turned over to three men who lynched him, their reason being that Snyder was alleged to have blocked a cattle rustling deal. According to Sheriff Collier the sentiment in Grant county is in favor of the condemned man and prominent citizens have written Governor West asking him to show clemency.

Emmet Shields, Earl Shields, Ben Hinton and Albert Green are serving life sentences for complicity in the same crime.

The story of a Baker man who was present in court when his companions were sentenced is to the effect that Caseday acted in a most heartless and cold blooded manner, telling the men as they passed out to "Go and take your medicine like men," and that it was brought out that when Caseday delivered Snyder to the other men he kicked him from the wagon and told him to "go on and get what he had coming."

GEORGE V. CROWNED KING.

(Continued from page one.)

Following the crowning of the king all the peers put on their coronets. The king, seating himself upon the throne, received "the people," in accordance with the ancient custom. Today, however, in order to shorten the ceremony, "the people" were represented by one peer for each of the five orders of Great Britain's nobility.

The crowning of Queen Mary immediately followed that of the king. With pomp and circumstance her majesty was anointed, crowned and given her ornaments. To the disgust of the suffragettes, the ceremony for a queen is brief, and after it was over Mary, following ancient custom, prostrated herself "reverently" before the king on his throne.

While all this ceremony was going on in the abbey, London was enjoying itself in varied ways. In the parks the socialist orators thundered against the monarchy and predicted the social revolution their auditors applauded the sentiments and then turning away to cheer the king and queen as they proceeded on the return journey to Buckingham Palace, in the magnificent coach drawn by eight milk white horses. Other thousands filled the 400 hideously ugly board stands built along the streets and parks, from which a quarter of a million people witnessed the royal procession. Over a thousand stands, with a capacity of 500,000, had been erected along the route of tomorrow's royal progress of the king and queen through London.

Coronation Parade.

London, June 22.—An accurate estimate of the number of people who witnessed King George's coronation procession is impossible, but probably well over 1,000,000 spectators were packed along the route of the royal progress.

The magnificent processional road known as the Mall, stretching from Buckingham Palace to the new Admiralty Arch, alone contained a throng that defied enumeration, and the great expanse of Trafalgar Square was black with the thousands who had braved weary hours of waiting in order to miss nothing of the spectacle.

Great Procession Starts.

At 10.30 the activity of the army signallers on the palace roof and the roof of the neighboring Queene Anne's Mansions, proclaimed that the procession was starting.

The procession was really divided into three parts—the state procession consisting of the carriages and escorts of the British and foreign royalties, the Duke of Connaught's procession and the king's procession.

The first started from Buckingham Palace, the second from Clarence House in St. James street, joining the first at Marlborough Gate in the Mall, and the third, which except for his majesty's personal attendants, was drawn up in the Mall and Constitution Hill, awaited the actual departure of the king and queen before following the Duke of Connaught.

The state procession was led by the state trumpeters the Life Guards band and the advance guard of the escort of Royal Horse Guards. Then followed the state carriages containing the Prince of Wales and the other royal children, relatives and foreign royalties closely related to the British royal family.

The rear guard of the escort was followed, from Marlborough Gate, by the Duke of Connaught and his family and staff, also escorted by Life Guards. Just as the Duke's procession turned into the Mall, the thunder of guns from Hyde Park announced that their majesties were leaving their palace and the third procession moved forward.

An officer of the headquarters staff of the army led the way and behind came trumpeters and the advance guard of the sovereign's escort of Royal Horse Guards, nodding with plumes and gleaming in steel.

Then came a doer of the king's wa-

livery of the sceptre with the cross and the sceptre with the dove.

Crown Worth $10,000,000.

Then came the crux of the ceremony when the Archbishop placed upon the head of the king the imperial crown, a mass of precious stones worth $10,000,000. The dazzling Cullinan diamond, the largest in the world, and hundreds of other stones, rubies, sapphires, emeralds and pearls, dazzled the eyes of the beholders when the crown was brought to view.

After a prayer the guns at the tower fired a royal salute and all London broke into wild cheers, while the scenes of enthusiasm were repeated in a smaller scale throughout the kingdom.

Following the crowning of the king all the peers put on their coronets. The king, seating himself upon the throne, received "the people," in accordance with the ancient custom. Today, however, in order to shorten the ceremony, "the people" were represented by one peer for each of the five orders of Great Britain's nobility.

The crowning of Queen Mary immediately followed that of the king. With pomp and circumstance her majesty was anointed, crowned and given her ornaments. To the disgust of the suffragettes, the ceremony for a queen is brief, and after it was over Mary, following ancient custom, prostrated herself "reverently" before the king on his throne.

While all this ceremony was going on in the abbey, London was enjoying itself in varied ways. In the parks the socialist orators thundered against the monarchy and predicted the social revolution their auditors applauded the sentiments and then turning away to cheer the king and queen as they proceeded on the return journey to Buckingham Palace, in the magnificent coach drawn by eight milk white horses. Other thousands filled the 400 hideously ugly board stands built along the streets and parks, from which a quarter of a million people witnessed the royal procession. Over a thousand stands, with a capacity of 500,000, had been erected along the route of tomorrow's royal progress of the king and queen through London.

Coronation Parade.

London, June 22.—An accurate estimate of the number of people who witnessed King George's coronation procession is impossible, but probably well over 1,000,000 spectators were packed along the route of the royal progress.

The magnificent processional road known as the Mall, stretching from Buckingham Palace to the new Admiralty Arch, alone contained a throng that defied enumeration, and the great expanse of Trafalgar Square was black with the thousands who had braved weary hours of waiting in order to miss nothing of the spectacle.

Great Procession Starts.

At 10.30 the activity of the army signallers on the palace roof and the roof of the neighboring Queene Anne's Mansions, proclaimed that the procession was starting.

The procession was really divided into three parts—the state procession consisting of the carriages and escorts of the British and foreign royalties, the Duke of Connaught's procession and the king's procession.

The first started from Buckingham Palace, the second from Clarence House in St. James street, joining the first at Marlborough Gate in the Mall, and the third, which except for his majesty's personal attendants, was drawn up in the Mall and Constitution Hill, awaited the actual departure of the king and queen before following the Duke of Connaught.

The state procession was led by the state trumpeters the Life Guards band and the advance guard of the escort of Royal Horse Guards. Then followed the state carriages containing the Prince of Wales and the other royal children, relatives and foreign royalties closely related to the British royal family.

The rear guard of the escort was followed, from Marlborough Gate, by the Duke of Connaught and his family and staff, also escorted by Life Guards. Just as the Duke's procession turned into the Mall, the thunder of guns from Hyde Park announced that their majesties were leaving their palace and the third procession moved forward.

An officer of the headquarters staff of the army led the way and behind came trumpeters and the advance guard of the sovereign's escort of Royal Horse Guards, nodding with plumes and gleaming in steel.

Then came a doer of the king's wa-

Why Pay More?

- $25.00 Hand Tailored Suits, $14.75
- 30.00 Hand Tailored Suits, 18.50
- 35.00 Hand Tailored Suits, 22.50
- 5.00 House Dresses for . 3.98
- 7.00 House Dresses for . 4.98
- 12 1-2c Wash Lawns for . . 9c
- 15c Wash Lawns and Batistes 11c
- 18c Figured Flaxon for . . 14c
- 25c Wash Goods for . . . 18c
- 35c Wash Goods for . . . 24c
- 50c Wash Goods for . . . 37c

Wohlenberg Dep't. Store

"Better Goods for Less Money."

LOCALS

See Lane & Son for signs. Pastime pictures please all. Dutch Henry for coal. Main 178. Wall paper, paints, etc. Lane & Son. Wanted—Plain sewing. Apply 308 South Lillesh street. Phone Platzoeder for fresh meat and lard. Main 445.

Everybody goes to the Orpheum to see the best and the clearest pictures.

Wanted—Job by Japanese boy or two. Any kind of work. Call at 218 E. Alta street.

Buy your chickens for Sunday's dinner at the Central Meat Market. Phone Main 33.

Call up Main 75 for McConnell's express. All kinds of hauling carefully and promptly done.

Everything that's good to eat, in meats and groceries at the Cash Market, phone Main 101.

For Rent—Three furnished house-keeping rooms, electric lights and gas. No children. 701 Thompson.

Special rates to horses boarded by the week or month at the Commercial Barn, 620 Aura street, phone Main 13.

Employment office, baggage checked, headquarters for newspapers. Geo. R. Demott cigar store, 521 Main street.

Wanted—Boy to take care of lawn during summer. Apply at once. "L" this office.

Wanted—Work on ranch by two young men, experienced. Address H. V. Masters, General Delivery, Pendleton, Ore.

The East Oregonian is Eastern Oregon's representative paper. It leads and the people appreciate it and show it by their liberal patronage.

If you want to move, call Penland Bros. Transfer, phone 3391. Large dray moves you quick. Trash hauled once a week. 647 Main street.

Meat! Meat! Meat! If it's on the market, it's here. Farmers' Meat Co., Conrad Platzoeder, manager, 224 E. Court street, phone Main 445.

Link Swagart has for sale eight head work mules from three to six years old and ready to work. Address, Athena, Oregon, or Phone F. L. 289.

You can't burn slate and gravel! Don't try it. Phone Dutch Henry, Main 173, for clean screened Rock Springs coal—either lump or nut. It burns clean and goes further.

Lost on East Court street, a small gold medal with the following inscription on it: P. H. S. T. T. High Jump, R. A. C., 1909. Finder please return to the postoffice and receive reward.

Passengers to Portland can save money and at the same time have an enjoyable river ride by taking boat from The Dalles. Str. Bailey Gatzert leaves daily, except Friday and Sunday at 3:30 p. m., arrives in Portland 9:30. Fare $1.00.

Wanted—Harvest work by man and wife. Combine preferred. 217 Stonewall Jackson.

"Let George Do It." When you want an express wagon quick, phone to Geo. Stangler at Gritman Bros., Main 511. Your phone order will receive prompt attention.

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Bids will be received at the office of the secretary of the "Round-up" in the American National bank building up to and including Saturday, June 24, upon the following concessions: during the Round-up September 14, 15 and 16, 1911: Cushions, souvenirs, hatbands, pennants and novelties, either on each separate concession or as a whole. The Round-up association reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

J. H. GWINN, Secretary.

For Sale or Trade.

Must be sold at once, 5 acres, fine fruit ranch well improved nearly all in fruit, good 6-room house; plenty of water to irrigate, 2 miles from Freewater, Ore., 1-2 miles west of car line at Sunnyside station, 1-2 mile to church and school. This must be sold at once as my boy who now lives on the place will leave the place and I have no one to look after it for me. Would take half in town property or good heavy team or merchandise. Will sell on easy terms. Price $3000. A. T. Brewer, Fall Creek, Ore.

Bertha Blanchett at Cosy.

Bertha Blanchett, world's champion lady buckaroo, who will be at the Round-up, is the leading lady in "The Cowboy's Bride," now being shown at The Cosy.

B. P. O. Elks.

Notice is hereby given that a regular meeting of Pendleton Lodge No. 288, B. P. O. Elks, will be held at their lodge rooms on June 22, 1911, at 8 o'clock p. m. There will be initiation of candidates and refreshments. All members are requested to be present.

By order of the exalted ruler, THOS. FITZ GERALD, Secretary.

Do you read the East Oregonian?

Wanted. Customers for about five hundred cords of slab wood, the best ever shipped to Pendleton.

OREGON LUMBER YARD.

STUDENTS FROM 19 COUNTIES

Washington, Idaho and South Carolina Also Send Students to O. A. C. This Year.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., June 21.—Washington, Idaho and South Carolina, as well as 19 counties of Oregon, are represented in the summer session enrollment for the first two days at the Oregon agricultural college, making a total thus far of 75, most of whom are teachers here for additional training for their vocation.

Benton county naturally leads in point of numbers, with 13, of whom 11 are from Corvallis; Yamhill is next with 10; Clackamas, 8; Multnomah, 6; Polk, 5; Douglas Lane, Umatilla, Wasco and Washington, 3 each; Clatsop, Linn, Morrow and Marion, 2 each; Coos, Hood River, Lincoln, Harney, Tillamook, 1 each. The state of Washington has three representatives and Idaho and South Carolina one each.

Among the number are city school superintendents county school superintendents, departmental teachers in high schools, and other teachers of special subjects, as well as many rural and grade teachers. The strong course in high school methods has attracted many, as has also the course in high school science, given by W. F. Fargo teacher of physics at the Salem high school.

The summer students are planning a trip to Mary's Peak for the end, camping at the foot and climbing to the snowy summit on Saturday. There is also to be a reception this week at Waldo Hall for the purpose of making the students and instructors of the session acquainted.

Koeppens

For Ice-Cream Sodas That Please.

Try Our CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM "The best made."

Ice Cream Sundae One of our most popular dishes.

Fresh Strawberries served with ice cream.

Once a patron, always a patron, at

KOEPPENS

STACY ADAMS and SELZ ROYAL BLUE SHOES at A. EKLUND'S

Concrete Blocks--Concrete Work

The Most Modern and Most Substantial Building Material--More Comfortable, and Cheaper in the end

Save Yourself Money

Concrete Blocks and reinforced concrete are cheaper and far more satisfactory. Make prettier work when finished and give the greatest comfort in either hot or cold weather.

Give Yourself Satisfaction

See my many beautiful designs for Basements, House Foundations, Walls, Fences, Curbing, Building Trimings and Cemetery Fences. They grow stronger with age.

Estimates Furnished on Application

Phone Black 3786.

D. A. MAY

Pendleton, Oregon.

Contractor and Builder of all kinds of Concrete Work.