MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR FOURTH OF JULY

FIREWORKS DISPLAY WILL BE GREAT

Arrangements for Bicycle Parade Are Progressing Rapidly—To Represent Different States of the Union—Mule Race.

T. G. Montgomery today placed an order for the largest and best display of fireworks ever purchased by an Eastern Oregon town or city and those who attend the Fourth of July celebration in this city will witness a pyrotechnical exhibition that will eclipse anything in the line of the brilliant and spectacular that has been their good fortune to see heretofore. The fireworks will be shot off on either the north or the south hill so that they will be visible to the whole city.

Arrangements for the bicycle parade are progressing rapidly. Principal A. C. Hampton of the high school has been appointed to take charge of this feature and he promises to have a line of little ones on wheels of this feature and he promises to have a line of little ones on wheels that will reach several blocks. The children will represent the states of the union and it is planned to have five for each state so that there will be over two hundred in line. Crowns bearing the names of the states are now being manufactured for the parade.

Another event which is calling for special attention is the wild mule race which will have the same characteristics as the wild horse race at the Round-up. Hamley & Co. the saddlers, have put up one of their fine saddles with their patent cinch ring as a prize for this event and there promises to be many participants.

Important to Golfers.
Chicago, June 22.—Important matters will come up for discussion at the meeting of the United States Golf Association Executive Committee to be held during the national open championship of the association which begins here tomorrow. The final attitude of the association with regard to the set bogey rules, drafted long ago, but never officially adopted, will probably be determined. Another matter of importance will be the perplexing problem of how to best meet the usual crowded field in the national amateur championship. They seem to have in a measure solved the problem abroad by allowing only scratch or better players to take part.

ENGLISH PROF. VISITS O. A. C. Man From Wye Agricultural College, England, Investigating Poultry Methods.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., June 22.—Professor T. R. Robinson of Wye Agricultural College, England, is visiting Prof. James Dryden, head of the poultry department of the Oregon Agricultural College, and investigating methods of instruction here. He is a special lecturer on livestock and poultry subjects, and has been making a tour of the Canadian provinces in British Columbia he heard of the Oregon Agricultural College and made a special trip from there to Corvallis to study the poultry plant here. He expressed himself much surprised at the size of the plant and the extent of the work carried on.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

One Drunk in Court.
George McAdams drew three days in jail this morning when he pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness in the police court.

Daughter is Born.
This forenoon a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paine of this city. Mr. Paine is one of the owners of the Troy laundry.

Body Was Cremated.
Major Lee Moorhouse today received information to the effect that the body of the late Mrs. J. B. Buehse was cremated in Portland and that the funeral service is also to be held in that city.

Sues to Collect Account.
The Peoples Warehouse has instituted a suit against Julius Williams to collect $146.70, which sum is alleged to be due on account. Peterson & Wilson are attorneys for the store.

One Marriage License.
A marriage license was issued to W. Grover Pound and Miss Zelma Eldridge of this city. The latter being only 17 years of age, it was necessary for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Eldridge, to give their consent.

Two Divorce Suits.
Two new divorce suits have been filed in the circuit court, the one being Jesse M. Richards vs. Julia Richards and the other Chaffie Williams vs. S. N. Williams. The former was filed by A. W. Gray of Stanfield and the latter by A. W. Gray of Echo.

Freight is Getting Heavier.
The freight traffic to and through Pendleton is increasing daily and Pat McKee, yardmaster, believes that the company will put out an extra switch engine and crew about the fifth of next month. He declares the present heavy traffic is playing havoc with his men's sleeping hours.

Fine Cherries from Milton.
At the Standard Grocery a shipment of 57 crates of fine cherries were received yesterday from Judge James A. Fee's ranch near Milton. The cherries are of the Bing variety and are as fine a lot as has been seen here this spring.

Transportation Committee Meets.
The transportation committee of the Commercial club will meet at 8 o'clock this evening in the committee room of the association for the purpose of considering matters that have been referred to the committee. The committee members were called by phone by Secretary Keefe this afternoon.

Wants to Bring Airship.
Charles Young, manager for Aviator Walsh and who formerly acted as manager for the aviators Willard and Broekens, who flew at Walla Walla recently, is here today. Young would like to arrange for an aviation meet in this city during the summer. A meeting has been slated for the Commercial club rooms this afternoon for the purpose of considering the proposition.

Pendletonians in Walla Walla.
Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Averill, together with Lester Hamley and his sister, Gladys Hamley, all of Pendleton, Ore., were in the city yesterday the guests of friends. Mr. Averill was at one time city editor of the East Oregonian of Pendleton, but is now doing special correspondence for several coast papers. Mr. Hamley is interested in the harness business in the Oregon town—Walla Walla Union.

Meets Father at Picnic.
W. M. Blakely, one of the oldest of the Umatilla county pioneers, left yesterday for Portland to join his father, Captain Blakely of Brownsville, at the Pioneers' Picnic being held in the metropolis. Captain Blakely is now in his 99th year and is not yet tired of living. He declares his intention of coming to Pendleton during the Round-up as he thinks there will be considerable fun to be had at that time.

Meet After 39 Years.
Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald enjoyed a visit from William Raney of Enterprise yesterday and as it had been 39 years since last they met, they had much to talk about. Judge Fitz Gerald, when a young man of 18 years, worked one year for Raney's father at Champeeg in the Mission flouring mill and had seen none of the family since he left the Willamette valley for this section of the state. Raney is now following in his father's footsteps, being a miller in the Walla Walla county town. He also knew the Neagle Brothers in his boyhood days and looked them up while here.

Dog Poisoner Out Again.
The dog poisoner is active again and last night added the little cocker spaniel belonging to Mrs. Edgar Averill to his list of victims. The dog was found dead in the yard this morning, poisoned meat having been thrown to him during the night. Mr. Averill is of the opinion that the culprit was after his Airdale terrier, but is not inclined to forgiveness because of the mistake. On the contrary, he is swearing vengeance should the identity of the cowardly slayer of dogs be discovered. This is only one of the many valued animals that have been poisoned during the past year and there is a substantial reward offered by the owners.

Curse the Railroads.
Thirty malcontents roamed the streets of Pendleton last night and if curses could have sent the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company to the realm of eternal heat, the officials of that corporation would by this time be dancing buck and wings on the white hot marbles of Nick's pavilion. The cause of their audible wrath was the failure of the train from Spokane last evening to make connection with the east bound, which left about ten minutes prior to the arrival of their own. The belated passengers declare the only reason for their lateness was the numerous stops made to allow single passengers to dismount at crossroads. Therefore they cursed and each one's curse was a little bit worse than the other fellows. However, they are not the first who have thrown a fit of blue rage for such cause, for there were fully fifty passengers on the same train Sunday evening who were placed in a similar predicament.

Bound Over to Grand Jury.
Clark McGaffey, who was arrested at Echo several days ago on a charge of stealing a gold watch from P. P. Sullivan on June 15, was given a hearing before Judge Joe H. Parkes in the justice court this morning and bound over to the grand jury under the sum of $500. Sullivan declares he had taken the man into a saloon to buy him a drink and that he had lifted the watch and disappeared with the ingenuity of a professional pick-pocket.

Suit to Foreclose Mortgage.
A suit to foreclose a mortgage on the John Schmidt property in this city has been filed in the circuit court by Carter & Smythe, attorneys for the First National bank. The complaint alleges that the sum of $27,046.55 is due on a promissory note, which note was secured by a mortgage on the Schmidt block on Main street and on lots 1 and 2 in block 13 and lots 5 and 6 in block 6 of Cole's addition. Andrew Leisenger and Wilhelmina Rudolph are made defendants in the suit also because of liens they claim on the property involved, the former claiming a mortgage for $10,000.

COMING FROM AFAR FOR CLUB LUNCHEON

Tomorrow evening occurs the monthly luncheon of the Pendleton Commercial club and it is going to be a booster and "get together" meet such as not been held here for some time.

In preparation for the affair tomorrow, which will be the first luncheon since he became secretary of the club, Jack Keefe has mailed many invitations to prominent men throughout the county. Already numerous acceptances have been received and there will be delegations present from most of the other towns of the county. Weston friends of Secretary Keefe will come down particularly strong and it is understood many of the people of that town will place their applications for non-resident membership in the club.

The luncheon will be held at the Eagles-Woodmen hall and will start at 6:30. The repast will be served by the ladies of the Methodist church and music by the orchestra will enliven the occasion. No tickets are being sold locally for the monthly luncheon but the price will be 50 cents per plate and the affair will be open to all members of the club and to those who desire to unite with the organization.

Proud Father and Son.
Omaha, Neb., June 22.—John R. Webster, commercial agent for the Illinois Central in this city and one of Omaha's leading citizens is a proud man. Today he received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan. His son, John Potter Webster graduates at the same time and father and son will receive their sheepskins together. Mr. Webster left here a few days ago for Michigan to be honored with his son today.

J. P. Morgan Signally Honored.
London, June 22.—Aside from the members of the embassy, functionaries, etc., J. P. Morgan, the New York banker and art collector will be the only American to witness the coronation of King George in Westminster Abbey today. Mr. Morgan attends the ceremony by the express command of King George, who sent the invitation to the distinguished American through the Lord Chamberlain early in the present month.

Minnesota Veterans Celebrate.
St. Paul, Minn., June 22.—War time stories of the terrific battles in which the First Minnesota volunteer infantry was engaged were told and retold at the old capitol today by seventy-five survivors of the original 1,045 who assembled to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the regiment's leaving for Washington in response to the order issued by President Lincoln.

Oil Trust Must Dissolve.
Washington, June 22.—The mandate of the Supreme Court requiring the dissolution of the Standard Oil company goes into effect today, and under the terms the trust must be dissolved within six months from this date. It is understood that the company will not seek further litigation, but will comply with the order. It is understood here that the price of oil will be raised soon.

Weds a Middle.
Winthrop, Mass., June 22.—Miss Gertrude O'Reardon of Baltimore, was the bride at a very smart full-dress naval wedding celebrated here today, the groom being Midshipman Francis Worth Scandland, U. S. N., of Louisville, Ky. The groom graduated from Annapolis two years ago and is stationed on the North Dakota while the bride's father has charge of the revenue cutter Winnisimmet of this port.

Many Singers in June Fest.
Milwaukee, Wis., June 22.—Nearly 4,000 sweet-voiced singers, representing about 200 German societies in all parts of the country, will lift their voices in joyous song during the National Saengerfest, opened today in Milwaukee. While a majority of the visitors are Teutons, a number are of other nationalities, and for their benefit many of the stores have put up signs reading, "English spoken here."
