$509.70 was received from the four districts from which No. 14 was cut. For the year just ended the district paid $5,194.99 in teachers' wages, while the first year this disbursement was but $480.00.

Four years ago the value of the school furniture and equipment was placed at $150. That owned by the district now is worth $2,000. The estimated value of the other school property, which includes building and grounds is $27,000. Four years ago there was neither building or grounds owned by the district.

The great growth of the district has been no greater than the growth and development of this city and surrounding country. Since 1907 there has been a new district carved from the east end of the Hermiston district, namely district No. 112, it having a fine two-room school house and this year employing two instructors. The next four years will mean greater things in the way of rapid growth and development.

He joined the navy August 27th, 1902, and served three years and seven months all of which time he was on board the cruiser Baltimore. The money derived from this source will be used to purchase a few acres of land adjoining the school for farm purposes. A competent instructor in this line will be furnished and all the work such as plowing, planting and irrigating will be done by the pupils of this school, under the direction of the instructor. This district has also purchased a bell and the furniture necessary to fit up the second room. The increased number of pupils in this district make it necessary to use two rooms. Miss Carson will teach again this year and for the other room Mrs. McDonald has been engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. McEwen, who were married in Portland on Thursday evening, passed through Pendleton last evening en route to their home on a large wheat ranch near Athena. The groom is a son of Mayor and Mrs. A. B. McEwen of Athena and has many friends in this city, as has his bride, who was formerly a very popular coed at the University of Oregon. The Portland Telegram of yesterday contains the following account of the nuptials:

Another beautiful June wedding was celebrated last night at 9 o'clock when Miss Laura Adele Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Goff, became the bride of Ralph Buell McEwen of Athena. The bride entered the First Presbyterian church, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion, on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was robed in an empire gown of white satin with square court train. About the bodice, where hung the groom's gift, a hand-carved gold pendant on a slender gold chain, were masses of the lace that had trimmed her mother's wedding dress. Her full length tulle veil was circled with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The bouquet was caught by Miss Frances Nelson, of Albany, the maid of honor. Miss Nelson wore white satin enveloped in marquisette in shades changing from shell pink to cerise. The gown was trimmed with rose point lace and American beauty satin, and she wore a band of the same satin in her hair. Miss Nelson carried an armful of bright pink carnations. There were four bridesmaids in smart lingerie frocks, Miss Frances Obersteuffer and Miss Vera Parker wore underdresses of green satin and carried showers of pink sweet peas. Miss Lucille Smith and Miss Kate Lee of Seattle, had yellow satin slips beneath the white, and carried white sweet peas.

All to the girls wore fetching tulle bands with stiff brows about their heads. The costumes of the flower girls, Miss Jessica McEwen of Athena, sister of Mr. McEwen, and Miss Medora Steele, were imported. Pale pink chiffon embroidered in pink rosebuds covered missalene of the same tones. Over their arms were Watten baskets heaped with pink roses and leaves. The latter they scattered before the bride. The best man was Arthur Van Dusen of Astoria, and the ushers Oscar Beck, Clifton McArthur, L. A. Henderson of Hood River and Orville Goss, cousin of the bride, from Berkeley. E. E. Coursen played the wedding march and accompanied the soloists, Miss Edna Zimmerman and C. M. Steele. Rev. T. B. Griswold read the services.

At the Goff home a reception was held in rooms filled with pink roses. The bride and groom her parents, and Miss Nelson received. Mrs. Goff was wearing black marquisette over pink satin with antique diamond brooch. In the dining room Mrs. Harry Hendershoot and Miss Jessie Bibee served, while Miss Clementina Lambert, Miss Marcia Parker and Miss Grace Langdon dispensed punch. The latter was served on the porch screened with daisies.

Many out-of-town guests were present at the marriage, besides those mentioned. Mrs. Homer B. Nelson of Albany, came up from Castle Rock, accompanied by Robin Nelson of that place. Others were Philip Carroll, of Hood River; Ray Babson of Hood River; Mrs. Henry Barrett of Athena; Mrs. L. D. Goss of Berkeley, Cal.; Mrs. Edward Cusick and Miss Flora Mason of Albion; Mrs. H. D. Jones of Pendleton; Victor Voight, of Punerton, B. C. Mrs. Nelson and Miss Nelson will be here about a week.

Miss Goff's engagement was announced at a luncheon she gave some weeks ago in honor of Miss Nelson, a former Portland girl. Since then she enjoyed a round of entertaining. In addition to the luncheon given for her Wednesday by Miss Smith, others of the wedding party gave her "showers." Miss Obersteuffer a blue shower and Miss Park a miscellaneous shower last week. The former Miss Goff and her husband graduated at the same time from the University of Oregon. They were both prominent in school life, Mr. McEwen being a Sigma Nu and Mrs. McEwen a Kappa Alpha Theta.

Real Success. "Maria," Mr. Dorkins said with a note of exultation in his voice, "I turned a trade today that netted me a clean $2,000."

"Hmph!" ejaculated his spouse in her loftiest you-mak-me-tired manner. "I went out today to hunt up a first class cook, and I got her, John—I got her."—Chicago Tribune.

HERMISTON SCHOOLS SHOW STEADY GROWTH

FACULTY INCREASES FROM ONE TEACHER TO TWELVE

Property Valued at $27,000 Replaces That Worth $150 Less Than Four Years Ago.

(Special Correspondence.)

Hermiston, Ore., June 24.—The following will give an idea of the remarkable growth of the Hermiston school district during the past four years:

August 6th, 1906, the first school meeting was held in Hermiston. At this meeting H. G. Newport, Mrs. Sayer and S. Peterson were elected directors and John A. Donovan, clerk. At a meeting held August 14th, the clerk was instructed to make arrangements with the boards of districts 6, 8, 61 and 84 for a meeting at which a division of the assets and liabilities of the territory included in the new district was to be made.

At a meeting of the board September 20th, 1906, Miss Mae Skinner was employed as teacher at a salary of $60 per month. At an earlier meeting it was decided to have eight months of school the first year, beginning October 1st.

At a meeting of the board September 29th, it was decided to purchase six full and two back seats to furnish the school room.

January 7th, 1907, the board voted to remove the partition from the school building and order one dozen more seats.

At a meeting of all voters April 29th, 1907, the site where the present building stands was selected. Following this the first unit of the present building was erected. This was a building of four rooms, but soon proved to be inadequate and last year the additional nine rooms were added. In the meantime it was necessary to rent outside rooms to accommodate the rapidly increasing number of pupils.

The first year there was one teacher. For the coming term opening September 5th of this year there will be eleven teachers and possibly twelve.

The first annual report of the clerk is also interesting when compared with the report made last Monday, especially when the short time between the two are considered. The first report is dated the Third Monday in June, 1907, and the last was made the third Monday in June, 1911, four years afterward. In the first report it was shown that the district received from the county school fund $345.00, while last year the district received $1,810.00. From the state fund they received $10.20 against $399 last year. The district tax last year amounted to $7,993.95, while there was no tax in 1907, but
