

$1.50 Oxford Sale

Regular $3.50 and $4 Oxfords, in black and tan, all sizes, to close out

Your Choice Saturday $1.50

F. E. LIVENGOOD & CO.
July Ladies Home Journal Patterns Ready.

PERSONAL MENTION

Dan McKenzie is in from his Adams ranch today.

County Commissioner Horace Walker, is in the city today.

Alex McKenzie and son of Ukiah are in the city on a business trip.

Miss Ruby Collwell of Long Creek, is a guest at one of the local hotels.

T. M. Cook and wife of Helix returned home today from a visit in Walla Walla.

Dr. Chase, the optician, came in on the local this morning from the east end of the county.

Mark A. Sturtevant and wife of Pilot Rock, came in from that town yesterday afternoon.

Letcher Norvall was an incoming passenger from Helix on the Northern Pacific train this morning.

E. N. Wheeler, well known resident of Stanfield, has been in the city today upon a short business trip.

Glen Scott returned to his ranch this morning after attending the Commercial club luncheon last evening.

E. P. Marshall made a trip to the west end of the county this morning to look after his business interests there.

Mrs. H. L. Lamoureux of Seattle is visiting with her brother, Captain Charles Murphy, at his home on the asylum site.

Roland Oliver, Miss Grace Oliver and Mrs. R. L. Oliver left yesterday by auto for a week-end visit at Ukiah.

County Judge J. W. Maloney returned this morning from Astoria, where he had been to attend the K. of P. convention.

J. H. Gwinn, grand vice chancellor elect of the Knights of Pythias, will return tomorrow from his trip to the convention at Astoria.

Maurice Smith, formerly ticket agent at the O. W. R. & N. depot in this city and now a rancher near Husum, Washington, is visiting in the city.

Ben Hill, former secretary of the Pendleton Commercial association, came over from Walla Walla last evening to attend the monthly luncheon of the association. He returned to the Garden City on the morning train.

Miss Celestine Moorhouse returned this morning from Seattle where she has been visiting for the past week. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lavelle McDonald, who will visit at the home of her parents, Major and Mrs. Lee Moorhouse.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Interesting articles in the June magazines:

How a business man would run the government. A. W. Dunn. (World's Work.)

How the colors of nature are reproduced in moving pictures. J. Q. Roberts. (Popular Mechanics.)

Volcanic cave wonders of the Northwest. R. R. Howard. (Pacific Monthly.)

Small houses, several articles. (Country Life in America.)

Saddles and Camps in the Rockies. Dillon Wallace. (Outing.)

Women of the Caesars; 2nd paper. Liva and Julia G. Ferrero. (Century.)

New fiction added to the adult fiction department:

Burnett—The Shuttle.

Cummins—The Lamplighter.

Ford—Janice Meredith.

Hichens—The Garden of Allah.

Hope—Quisante.

McCutcheon—Truxton King.

Miller—Saul of Tarsus.

Parker—Ladder of Swords.

Oppenheim—The Lost Ladder.

Smith—Colonel Carter's Christmas.

Smith—Peter.

Wood—East Lynn.

Children's Books—Bible Stories.

Old stories of the East.

Story of the chosen people.

Myths and Legends.

The Golden Fleece.

Greek Heroes.

In Mythland.

Myths of the Northern Lands.

'Round the year in myth and song.

Fairy Tales.

The Fairy Ring.

Animal Legends.

Adventures of a Brownie.

The Wonderful Chair.

Old World Wonder Stories.

Animal Stories.

Among the Farmyard People.

Baby Mishook.

Little Brother to the Bear.

Stories About Indians.

Indian Children.

Indian Chieftans.

Wigwam Stories.

Fiction.

Story of a Bad Boy.

Piccola.

The Sandman; his Farm Stories.

The Monkey That Would Not Kill.

The Story of a Donkey.

Jack and Nell in Field and Forest.

Box-wow and Met-mew.

Child Life.

Twilight Stories.

Prepare for Pendleton's 4th of July Celebration

A Real Sale That Will Help Make the Day One of Pleasure.

A sale of trustworthy merchandise, of genuine reductions in dependable summer wearables of all kinds.

The reductions announced in last nights East Oregonian will continue up until July 4th

Wohlenberg Dep't. Store

"Better Goods for Less Money."

LOCALS

See Lane & Son for signs.

Pastime pictures please all.

Dutch Henry for coal. Main 178.

Wall paper, paints, etc. Lane & Son.

Wanted—Plain sewing. Apply 308 South Lillith street.

Phone Platzoeder for fresh meat and lard. Main 445.

Everybody goes to the Orpheum to see the best and the clearest pictures.

Buy your chickens for Sunday's dinner at the Central Meat Market. Phone Main 33.

Call up Main 75 for McConnell's express. All kinds of hauling carefully and promptly done.

Everything that's good to eat, in meats and groceries at the Cash Market, phone Main 101.

For Rent—Three furnished sleeping rooms, electric lights and gas. No children. 701 Thompson.

Special rates to horses boarded by the week or month at the Commercial Barn, #20 Aura street. Phone Main 13.

Employment office, baggage checked, headquarters for newspapers. Geo. R. Demott cigar store, 521 Main street.

Wanted—Work on ranch by two young men, experienced. Address H. V. Masters, General Delivery, Pendleton, Ore.

Wanted—Young man of good business address and small capital to engage in advertising business. Address East Oregonian.

The East Oregonian is Eastern Oregon's representative paper. It leads and the people appreciate it and show it by their liberal patronage.

If you want to move, call Penland Bros., Transfer, phone 3391. Large dray moves you quick. Trash hauled once a week. 647 Main street.

Meat! Meat! Meat! If it's on the market, it's here. Farmers' Meat Co., Conrad Platzoeder, manager, 224 E. Court street, phone Main 445.

You can't burn slate and gravel! Don't try it. Phone Dutch Henry, Main 173, for clean screened Rock Springs coal—either lump or nut. It burns clean and goes further.

Lost on East Court street, a small gold medal with the following inscription on it: P. H. S. T. T. High Jump, R. A. C., 1906. Finder please return to the postoffice and receive reward.

For sale—280 acres one mile from town, all in cultivation. Good wheat or alfalfa land. Will trade for small tract of land close to town or $5,000 in town property. For further particulars address B. Hodden, Midvale, Idaho.

Passengers to Portland can save money and at the same time have an enjoyable river ride by taking boat from The Dalles. Str. Bailey Gatzert leaves daily, except Friday and Sunday at 3:30 p. m., arrives in Portland 9:30. Fare $1.00.

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Bids will be received at the office of the secretary of the "Round-up" in the American National bank building up to and including Saturday, June 24, upon the following concessions; during the Round-up September 14, 15 and 16, 1911: Cushions, souvenirs, hatbands, pennants and novelties, either on each separate concession or as a whole. The Round-up association reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

J. H. GWINN, Secretary.

For Sale or Trade.

Must be sold at once, 5 acres, fine fruit ranch well improved nearly all in fruit, good 6-room house; plenty of water to irrigate, 2 miles from Freewater, Ore., 1-2 miles west of car line at Sunnyside station, 1-2 mile to church and school. This must be sold at once as my boy who now lives on the place will leave the place and I have no one to look after it for me. Would take half in town property or good heavy team or merchandise. Will sell on easy terms. Price $3000. A. T. Brewer, Faircreek, Ore.

Cooked Food Sale.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold another cooked food sale at The Peoples Warehouse tomorrow.

Presbyterian Church.

The regular services at Presbyterian church, tomorrow morning and evening. Good music by the choir. All are welcome. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and Young Peoples' meeting at 7 p. m. John Reeves, supply.

THEIR CLOTHES GONE.

Twenty Couples in Macon Party Robbed and Locked in Swimming Pool.

Macon, Ga.—Twenty young women and twenty young men, social lights in Macon, spent most of last night in a swimming pool because they could not get out.

The twenty couples were invited to attend a swimming party at the residence of W. W. Billingsley where there is a spacious pool.

The forty appeared with their swimming costumes and soon were sporting in the water. The swimming continued to a late hour, and then some one suggested that it was time to go home.

The young men and the young women scrambled out of the pool and discovered to their horror, that some one had made off with their clothing and also locked them in. Mr. Billingsley himself was one of the victims.

Clad only in their scanty costumes the twenty girls and twenty young men had to remain in the pool until this morning, as efforts to make themselves heard were in vain.

When morning dawned some of Mr. Billingsley's servants released the swimmers. The girls were draped in sheets. Taxicabs were summoned and the forty hurried to their homes.

Mr. Billingsley has offered a large reward for information as to who took the clothes and locked the party in.

JUNE 25 IN HISTORY.

1526—An Imperial Diet assembled at Speyer, Germany, for reforming the abuses of the church.

1815—Bonaparte's farewell address to his soldiers.

1823—Alexander Griffiths, a parricide and suicide, buried in the cross roads near London, the last one interred as the act giving Christian burial to suicides then took place.

1859—American Commodore Tatnall assists the English at the Chinese engagement on the Peiho river, saying "blood is thicker than water."

1884—Heirs of Richard Wagner refused an offer of $250,000 from an American for the exclusive rights of Parsifal.

1884—Asiatic cholera raging at Toulon, France.

1898—Americans under General Chaffee, occupy Sevilla, which had been abandoned by the Spaniards.

1903—King Peter of Serbia takes the oath of office.

1910—Congress adjourned.

Bandits kill two men at Lynn, Mass.

Do you read the East Oregonian?

THE COMING WEEK.

Sunday.

Baptist Day will be observed by that denomination throughout the world.

Solemn inaugural session of the World's Eucharistic congress in Madrid, Spain.

Sunday school day will be observed by churches throughout North America.

International Sunday school convention, San Francisco temperance session.

Monday.

King George and Queen Mary will attend gala performance of opera.

National Catholic Educational association will open meeting in Chicago.

American Medical association's national convention opens in Los Angeles.

American Institute of Electrical Engineers will convene in Chicago.

American Institute of Homeopathy meets at Narragansett Pier, R. I.

Spanish War Veterans' state conventions in California and New York.

Tuesday.

King and queen will give garden party at Buckingham Palace, London.

International carnival will be opened at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Special election on liquor question will be held in all cities of Utah.

Fifty additional postal savings banks will be inaugurated.

Closing session of International Sunday school congress in San Francisco.

Fifth Sagamore Sociological conference opens at Sagamore Beach, Mass.

Big farewell banquet in Berlin to Dr. Hill, retiring American ambassador.

Pennsylvania Bar association's annual convention at Bewford Springs.

State conventions of educators will be held in Ohio and Kentucky.

Wednesday.

King George will visit Royal Agricultural show at Norwich.

Siberian national exposition will open at Omsk, Western Siberia.

Pilgrims of London will give dinner in honor of John Hays Hammond.

Dartmouth college's 142nd annual commencement exercises.

Thursday.

King and queen will drive through London and visit the Guild Hall.

Public procession of the Most Holy Sacrament at Madrid Eucharistic congress.

Commencement exercises at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Friday.

King and queen will dine with Premier and Mrs. Asquith.

Coronation fete for the children at the Crystal Palace, London.

American battleships will leave Kiel on return trip to America.

Compulsory retirement elimination board of navy will hold session.

Saturday.

Postoffice department will begin fast freight system for magazines.

Increase in freight rates becomes effective in official classifications territory.

King George and Queen Mary will remove their court to Windsor Castle.

BULLETS BEAT BLOWS.

Pugilist and His Trainer, However, Rout Two Footpads.

Chester, Pa.—While on their way to James F. Dougherty's training quarters at Leiperville early this morning, Matt Wells, the English lightweight champion, and his trainer, Dal Dollings, were held up by two masked men, whoumped in front of them from behind bushes.

At the point of a revolver, one of the footpads commanded them to hold up their hands, but Wells quickly sidestepped and making a lunge at one of the fellows, knocked him to the ground. The other highwayman shot twice, one of the bullets grazed Dollings' head, inflicting a flesh wound.

Dollings fell and Wells made a dash for the footpad, who escaped down the Chester pike.

Returning to the scene of the hold-up, Wells found Dollings sitting up.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Pendleton's favorite picture theater. Good program for Sunday and Monday:

- "A Good Turn." Lubin. When his wealth was suddenly swept away John Lacy determined to die. He went to a ball that he might have a final dance with his sweetheart. Returning home he found burglars in his library. They saw him about to shoot himself. Fearing that they would be charged with murdering Lacy they bound him. Then finding a farewell note addressed to his sweetheart they called her up. Quickly she came, unbound her lover and read the note. With her before him, John Lacy was mighty glad he was alive. He promised the girl to fight his fate and win for her sake.
- "The Lucky Card." Essanay. Here is a Western picture filled with thrills and showing in a realistic way scenes which were common enough years ago. The story turns upon the fact that an American saves the life of a Mexican prospector.
- "Semiramis." This is another gorgeous Pathe production, with stately scenes before temple gates, in the sumptuous palace rooms and hanging gardens of Babylon. We see processions of graceful youths and maidens in silk and gold, a royal marriage, the death of a monarch and the triumphant reception of a victorious queen. The producers spared neither pains nor expense in making this picture.
- "Davy Jones, His Wife's Husband." Davy Jones has got us all going again in this comedy that will strike you as the funniest yet and best ever. Mrs. Davy Jones receives a letter from her mother that the Ladies' Card club will meet at her house. Poor Davy, laden with bundles and his wife's noddle dog reluctantly visits his mother-in-law with his wife. At his wife's mother's home he is given the care of the canine pets of the members of the party. Davy gets a brilliant idea, pretends he is bitten by one of the pets and feigns "hydrophobia." His wife calls the undertaker and Davy has the extreme pleasure of being measured for his coffin. He jumps up and throws the undertaker out of the window.

The Pastime.

The house of quality. Interesting program for Sunday and Monday. A big feature picture.

"The White Rose of the Wilds." Biograph. There is a white rose growing near the window of this story's mountain cabin, but the heroine who lives there with her brother and sister is "The White Rose of the Wilds." The story is well constructed and the producer has used a great deal of art in making its tense moments effective. The acting of "The Rose" in particular is natural and very pleasing. The chief rough seemed to be very much a gentleman; the other parts are well acted.

"Hearts and Flags," Edison. This is a war story. There are some fine scenes in it. The one where the Union soldiers first appear and crowd on the porch is very good. The drinking scene in the hall immediately after the attack on the girls when the heroine shoots two of them and the captain enters with his men and saves the girls is theatrical. The captain's acting is convincing; that of the girls is even better; and the darkies are fine. It is good to see again the letter that the captain's mother put in the "housewife," she gave him, which said "the needle is mightier than the sword."

"Joe and Jim," Selig. An interesting narrative of the friendship between two fishermen and illustrates the poem of Joe and Jim, by Hal Reid.

"Whiffle's Courtship," American Comedy. A most interesting and laughable comedy in which some clever trick photography is used.

"Max's Feet are Pinched," American. Another funny one that is well carried out.

A big show full of excitement.

The Cosy.

A program that will please all for Friday and Saturday:

"The Temptress." Imp. Gilbert and Lucille are engaged, but Gilbert meets a Count and Madame Eloise and is infatuated with Madame, Bertie, Gilbert's friend, tries to drive the woman away and she for revenge brings about an estrangement between the friends. Gilbert challenges Bertie to a duel and they meet on the field of honor, where Bertie is killed and the woman's perfidy is discovered—too late. A splendid dramatic story.

"The Little Western Rose." Yankee. Tom and Jack both love Rose, who prefers Jack, so the rivals fight a lariat duel on horseback. Tom drags Jack from his mount and starts across the prairie, dragging his victim to death. Rose rescues Jack at the point of a revolver and Tom in a wild rage has a gang of Mexicans abduct Rose. The girl writes a note and gives it to her dog who leads a rescuing party to the shack where the girl is imprisoned. The lariat duel and the almost human intelligence of the dog make this a wonderful film. Finely colored and very exciting.

"One Month to Live." American. A good comedy, full of laughs. Mr. John Jones is very fond of imbibing various kinds of spirits, and after returning home in a semi-comatose condition he finds a letter reading: "John has one month to live," and he thinks he is the doomed one. A month of terror follows in which John reforms in all kinds of ways. But it was a mistake and John didn't die. Very funny.

"The Traces on the Snow." Ambrosia. A beautiful film, telling a story of dramatic strength. A lord throws Bertano into the river for daring to love his daughter, but he is rescued by a knight. In a great battle he comes to the rescue of the knight and the enemy is defeated.

"The Parade of the Hifils Garrison." Ambrosia. A typical picture, showing the maneuvers of the army of Titlis.

The Burning Question ?

Do "You" Use Gas for Cooking? If Not, Why Not?

Phone Main 40 and ask to have our representative call on you

Pacific Power & Light Co.

"Always at Your Service"

Koepkens

For Ice Cream Sodas That Please.

Try Our CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM "The best made."

Ice Cream Sundae One of our most popular dishes.

Fresh Strawberries served with ice cream.

Once a patron, always a patron, at KOEPPENS