PUNISH MAN WHO TURNED DOWN $300,000 BRIBE

Richard Parr, Government's Human Bloodhound, Made Victim of Millionaires' Desire for Revenge.

New York, June 26.—The refusal of a $300,000 bribe, to abandon an investigation into a jewel smuggling case in which three millionaires are alleged to be involved, today has cost Richard Parr, exposé of the bi-banatic sugar frauds trust case, the life of his infant son and perhaps will cost that of his wife's, who is seriously ill following the birth of child which was dead. She became hysterical when enemies of her husband, called her over the phone and told her that Parr had been intimate with another woman. Parr says that the millionaires had some one to phone her purposely. He says the millionaires have been smuggling jewels for a beautiful "Mrs. Jenkins" and that they offered him $300,000, to desist trailing them after Mrs. Jenkins told him of their scheme. He has turned the information over to Customs Collector Loeb and a huge scandal is expected.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Current Literature Club.
A special meeting of the Current Literature club is to be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. McAllister.

Go to Fraternity Convention.
Ross Pendleton, a junior in the University of Washington, is visiting with friends in the city of his name today. Together with Cross Sturgis, he will leave tonight for Pittsburg where they will attend the convention of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Gets Life Insurance.
Henry Lantz this morning received a warrant for $1000 from the Knights of the Maccabees, being the payment of an insurance policy taken out by the late Sanford Strout in that order. The warrant was made out in favor of Ida L. Strout, she being the beneficiary named.

Charles Burrow to Wed.
Announcements have been received here of the coming marriage of Dr. Charles C. Burrow, formerly of this city, to Miss Nellie Loveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Loveland of Caldwell, Idaho. The wedding is to occur at Caldwell on June 28. Dr. Burrow is now practicing dentistry at Vale.

Six in Police Court.
Six names were inscribed on the police court docket this morning and three of the unlicked six were committed to jail. F. Peake drew two days for being drunk and Mike Cool five on the same charge. Richard Clark pleaded guilty of being a vag but sentenced was suspended to allow him time to get to the city limits. William Taylor, the colored boy familiarly known as "Shine" and who had just finished one jail sentence, was recommitted for a period of five days on a charge of disorderly conduct as a result of chasing an Indian with a pitchfork. Frank Jones and John Doe, booked for disorderly conduct, failed to appear and their bail was declared forfeited.

Dies to Save Wife's Name.
Albany, N. Y., June 26.—Because he has refused to sign a petition asking for a commutation of his sentence, Charles L. Green will be electrocuted at Clinton prison today. Mrs. Green has made an affidavit confessing that her husband shot her, at the same time killing her daughter, because he had discovered that she was unfaithful to him. She swears that he will not permit her to testify to anything that will help him, because it would hurt her name, so he welcomes death rather than have the people say a word against her character. It is believed Green could be saved if he made an attempt to help those who would help him. He has had one respite against his will and says he is ready and willing to die.

JOHN D. WILL SOON REORGANIZE STANDARD OIL CO.

New York Officials Claim Ignorance of Plans and Public to be Kept in Dark for Time Being.
New York, June 26.—To assist in the immediate reorganization of the Standard Oil company, which is necessary, owing to the recent supreme court decision, John D. Rockefeller, is founder, will arrive here tomorrow from Cleveland. Officials of the company say they have no details of the new plan which will not be announced until the dissolution of the trust and its reorganization in the new form is accomplished.

ALASKAN CLAIMS ARE CANCELLED

assured that it is in possession of facts upon which action must ultimately be taken.

Hundreds of Millions Involved.
The decision means that approximately one hundred million dollars worth of Alaska coal lands will be conserved to the people. A probable immediate opening to the development of Alaska.

Bullinger Also Talks.
Seattle, Wash., June 26.—When told today of the decision at Washington regarding the Alaskan coal lands over which he lost his government job, former secretary of the Interior, Bullinger, who is staying here, at first refused to talk concerning the decision. Later he changed his mind and stated that he believed Commissioner Bennett had cancelled the patents without sufficient evidence. "The decision of the commissioner is political and not judicial," said Bullinger.

The decision means also the vindication of former General Land agent Glavis and Pinchot, who were dismissed from the service after their famous clash with Secretary Bullinger. Also it is possibly the death of the Morgan-Guggenheim plan to gobble the Alaskan resources and the impending influx of Alaskan coal to Pacific coast markets, eliminating the British Columbian coal.

"I Told You So," Pinchot.
New York, June 26.—Gifford Pinchot, when seen today in regard to the decision, said: "The cancellation of the claim is sufficient proof by the administration itself, that the fight against the coal monopoly of Alaska is not only successful but was necessary to the government. This action insures the cancellation of a multitude of fraudulent claims.

"If the fight had not been made the Cunningham claims would have been patented long ago and at this time the coal monopoly of Alaska would be an assured fact. The vigorous attempt by counsel for the Interior department to show that the claims were valid, leaves no doubt but that they would have been patented had the administration been allowed to proceed."

GOLD MEDAL FOR YOUNG AGRICULTURIST

OTHER PRIZES AWARDED IN O. A. C. CONTEST

Youthful Gardeners in Oregon Show Much Interest in Competitive Truck Growing.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., June 26.—A handsome gold medal is to be awarded to the boy who makes first place in the vegetable growing contest conducted by the Oregon Y. M. C. A. under the direction of the Oregon Agricultural College. The judging of the gardens and their products have begun. Mr. A. G. B. Bouquet of the college horticulture department went to the Rose City for the purpose. He will announce the results later, awarding beside the gold medal a large list of other prizes, including books, sweaters, football outfits, fishing tackle, watches, baseball paraphernalia and other articles. A cash prize of $5 is to be given by Mr. Bouquet to the boy having the best exhibit of vegetables to show.

The contest opened in April, and includes the growing of peas, head lettuce, spinach and radishes, with some 300 boys entered. In September there will be a second exhibit of the products of those who are growing tomatoes, celery, squashes and cucumbers. Mr. Bouquet has made a number of trips to Portland to instruct the young gardeners in the science of their new occupation, through lectures and the distribution of the three bulletins on the subject of which he is the author.

This is the second contest the college has conducted for young people, to interest and instruct them in the profitable occupations of field and farm. The poultry raising contest conducted last year at Portland proved immensely popular, and that being conducted by the Eugene Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the college also has an enthusiastic corps of entries.

OUTLAWS DEFEAT STANFIELD TEAM

In a game replete with sensational baseball, the "has-beens" and "would-bees" of Pendleton demonstrated that they can still leave the sphere in victorious form. The stalwarts of Stanfield and vicinity were trounced in their own camp by the score of 11 to 6 and as a result there may be more games follow.

The feature of the game was McMonies' catch of a long fly into center field. It looked like a homer but just as the ball was passing over him, the Outlaw fielder jumped in the air and speared it, turned a somersault and arose with the horsehide in his hand.

The following is the line-up of the Pendleton aggregation. McMonies and Walsh, cf; Drake, 2b; Hays, 1b; Hoover, 3b; Corby, ss; Spenser, 3b; McGinnis and Finch, rf; Williams, c; Milne and Stamey, p.

estate in and to the said property, threatens and will unless restrained by order of the court, commence other and various suits, actions and other proceedings in the courts for the purpose of hindering, delaying, harassing and annoying the plaintiffs and causing them great and unnecessary trouble and expense.

It alleges, also, that Mabel Warner is threatening to appeal the case to the supreme court and "in furtherance of the conspiracy will forge and attempt to forge other pretended wills and documents and file other wrongful claims against the said estate."

Want Injunction Enforced.

An injunction was granted several years ago, restraining Mrs. Warner from taking possession of the land but that belligerent lady, in defiance of the order, entered upon the property with her husband and has lived there now for almost three years. It is in an attempt to secure the enforcement of this injunction that the present suit has been filed by the attorneys of the heirs, Fee, Slater and Stelver.

Mrs. Warner Makes Denial.
In the complaint it is alleged that since she entered upon possession, she has not taken proper care of the land, but this Mrs. Warner denies. "Mr. Warner has poisoned the squirrels," she says, "and has the place free from weeds. As to the previous management of the place, I have this much to say. It has been the weed bed of the country, seeding not only this land but the neighboring land also. Last year the plowing was finished June 12. It was not harrowed until fall, consequently the wheat sown upon such ground will hardly yield a bumper crop."
