The flower festival given last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Temple under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist church, was a brilliant success. The house was artistically decorated with flowers, the color scheme of the dining room being pale pink. The many guests were welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. Temple and Mrs. T. M. Henderson. A beautiful musical program under the auspices of Mrs. J. S. Landers was rendered during the evening, after which the guests repaired to the dining room, where a delicious buffet luncheon was served by the Misses Gladys Hamley, Grace Finnel, Lola Minnie, Margaret Lowell and Leila Evans. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. A. J. Owen presiding over the coffee.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Matthews, of Pine City, last evening was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Quintilla, to Mr. Charles Despain. At the appointed hour the beautiful and impressive ceremony was pronounced by Rev. N. Evans, pastor of the Methodist church, of Pendleton. At the close of the ceremony congratulations were extended after which an elegant supper was served. A fine array of presents attest the esteem in which the young folks are held and will serve as life long mementoes. The beautiful gown of the bride was daintily made, and she never appeared to better advantage. Mrs. Despain is too well known to need any introduction to the people of this vicinity. She was born in the home from which she went as a bride and has the respect and esteem of all. She will be missed greatly from social circles where she has taken an active part. Mrs. Despain while a resident and business man of our neighboring city, Pendleton, has a wide acquaintance here and is admired for his good qualities.—Echo's Echoes.
