LUCK OF A HORSESHOE.
Escape From Death Attributed to Emblem.
New York.—There is a big horseshoe hanging over the doorway in the home of 4-year-old James Muldoon, Jr., at 500 West Twenty-sixth street. When the little fellow fell off the fire escape at the second story landing one morning and was found not to have suffered any injury, his mother attributed young James' good fortune to this fact alone.
It was not the first time young Muldoon had fallen from a fire escape. His first tumbling exploit was a year ago, when his parents lived in West Twenty-seventh street. Jimmie, as he is called, plunged three stories that time. It so happened that the clothes lines beneath the fire escape were filled and Jimmie bounced from one line to another without any serious results.

Two Greek section hands waded into a hole in Cow creek and met death by drowning.

OTTUMWA WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottumwa, Iowa.—"For years I was almost a constant sufferer from female troubles in all its dreadful forms—shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrible. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors. I feel it my duty to tell you the facts. My heart is full of gratitude to you for my cure."—Mrs. HARRIET E. W., 524 S. Ransom Street, Ottumwa, Iowa.

Consider This Advice.
No woman should submit to a surgical operation which may mean death, until she has seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.
This famous medicine, made only from roots and herbs, has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, confidential and always helpful.

DISGUSTED AUTOIST GIVES HIS CAR TO A BOY

Loses Patience When Machine Turns Turtle and Unloads Pesky Thing.
Chicago, Ill.—Cecil Hancock, 12 years old, who lives on his father's farm in Jasper county, Indiana, was presented with a $2,000 touring car yesterday by an exasperated New York transcontinental auto tourist, who met with an accident near the Hancock farm. The tourist refused to give his name, but the auto license was number 8695 N. Y.
While descending a hill near the farm the New Yorker, who was en route to Chicago, and was the sole occupant of the car, lost control of the machine when the steering knuckle broke and the car landed in a ditch, bottom side up. Young Hancock helped the irate owner out of the wreck and the air immediately became blue with oaths.
"I will give the car away for anything to get rid of it," said the New Yorker.
"Give it to me," said the boy.
"Take the d— nuisance and welcome," replied the owner.
He then hired the boy to drive him to the nearest railroad station where he could get a train for Chicago. Hancock sold the car to an auto dealer for a good price, and will invest the proceeds in a college education.

NEWSPAPER REPORTER KNOCKS OUT A FOOT-PAD

When Hold-up Refuses to Appreciate Scribbles' Hurry, Is Felled.
Chicago, Ill.—Detectives from the Fifth street station are searching the South side for an unidentified man who attempted to annoy a newspaper reporter at East Forty-fourth and South Dearborn streets with a magazine revolver. Dwight L. Loughborough, 1152 East Sixty-second street, who is in the employ of a morning paper was out early yesterday morning in quest of news when a man suddenly appeared before him and shoved a revolver in his face.
Loughborough, who was in great haste to "cover" his assignment, did not have time to stop and dally with a hold-up man, and frankly told the man so at the time, but he kept persistently flourishing the gun as if he might shoot if goaded to the point of desperation. Thereupon the reporter shot out a good right punch, straight from the shoulder, that caught the robber full in the face and down he went.
Loughborough then hurried on before the man had recovered sufficiently to give chase, and notified the police at the Fifth street station.
"I may be from the long grass country," he told the sergeant, "but, believe me, none of these city bad men has anything on me when it comes to a show down. Besides, these stick-up men are a great annoyance when we've got to get a story in the office in time to catch the last edition."
No arrests have been made as yet, but the plain clothes men are on the lookout for a man with the marks of four large knuckles on his face.

WHEAT AT ECHO TESTS OUT WELL

(Special Correspondence.)
Echo, Ore., July 21.—The thrifty farmers, Young and Dello, have begun hauling their grain to the warehouse. It tests 53 strong.
C. J. Gullford has begun cutting his second crop of alfalfa. The weather is ideal and a few days work will put it in the stack.
Miss Ruth Staph of Walla Walla, is visiting at the beautiful home of J. D. Watson in West Lawn.
Mr. Jordan has charge of the Arlington Rooming house during the absence of the proprietor, S. W. Keeler.
A jolly crowd of youngsters with well filled lunch baskets, are today enjoying their annual picnic, given them by the members of the Presbyterian Chapel Sunday school. They are accompanied by their parents and are having a very pleasant day's outing on the banks of the Umatilla in the Spilke Grove near town.
The extreme hot weather has abated some, due to a cool breeze which is blowing from the west. The change is very much appreciated by sweltering Echoites who have not fled to the mountains.
Mr. Allan Thompson is working in the bank during the absence of Cashier R. B. Stanfield.
Mrs. W. H. Gillette of Walla Walla, arrived yesterday for a short visit at the home of her father, T. D. Matthews on Butter Creek.
Otis McCarty of Butter Creek was an Echo visitor yesterday. He came in his new auto which he purchased recently.
John McCarty of Turlock, California, is visiting at the home of his brother Otis.
Joe Bailey is acting as foreman of the Furnish Camp during the absence of Foreman Johnson.
Mrs. J. F. McLaughlin visited friends in Stanfield yesterday, returning on the afternoon local.
Ralph Davis, of the local O.-W. R. & N. depot force made a business trip to Pendleton yesterday returning on the midnight train.
Preston Hammer departed this morning for his home in Cervalls after a brief sojourn here. Mr. Hammer is a nephew of E. K. Hammer.
Alex Malcolm was a motor passenger for Pendleton this morning.

A STUDY OF PESTS THREATENING STRAWBERRIES

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore.—N. F. Wilson of the entomology department at the Oregon Agricultural College, accompanied by F. D. Bailey of the department of plant pathology, made a special trip to Portland and North Plains to study conditions in the strawberry beds of that vicinity, where it was reported that the root weevils were at work and were threatening the industry, together with plant diseases which had also attacked the vines. They report quite an amount of damage from the pests there.
Another report of considerable damage being done to tomato plants near Independence, called Mr. Wilson there to investigate plant lice pests Thursday, July 14. Upon his return he will meet Mr. Bailey, A. J. Stover, G. F. Mosier, student assistants, and E. S. Scott, a University of Illinois man here for the summer, joining them in a trip to Mary's Peak for the collection of plants and insects for the college museum and laboratories.
