

BLUE BRUSH SALE

Convention Exhibited Pianos

At the National Convention of Piano Manufacturers held in the Coliseum, at Chicago, early in June, were exhibited the finest products of the World's Foremost Makers of Pianos. Eilers Music House purchased the entire exhibit of six of the leading makers and sent these pianos to the coast, knowing that they would be well received. There was only six carloads in the deal and of these famous Convention Exhibited Pianos was sent to Pendleton to be disposed of.

One Entire Carload

These pianos were seen by the entire Music Trade and it would only be natural that each manufacturer would select the finest finished and the richest toned instruments he produced. This is positively the finest car of pianos ever shown at one time in Pendleton.

At the close of the convention by taking the entire exhibit of six manufacturers we were able to make a very material saving. Notwithstanding that these pianos should bring more than regular price we are going to apply the Blue Brush, which means that the entire carload will be sold under price.

We are going to sell these De Luxe pianos at astonishing savings in price because we were able to save. Here is your opportunity to get a

Oakland 5 11 2
Batteries—Suter, Moskiman and Schmidt; Christian and Mitze.

Vernon 4, Sacramento 2.
San Francisco, July 26.—Castleton outpitched Mryam yesterday and was given better support than the local southpaw, Vernon winning the first game of the series, 4 to 2. For four innings not a Senator went beyond second and only one went that far.

In the sixth Castleton weakened, walking two men and allowing a double, filling the bases, with two down. Vernon 4 10 0
Sacramento 2 8 2
Batteries—Castleton and Brown; Byram and Thomas.

Hardly.

Professor—It's one of the frailties of human nature that no matter how much a man gets he wants more. Friend (thoughtfully)—Oh, I don't know about that—not in the police court he doesn't.
