

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, POISON OAK, ETC.

Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Poison Oak, Pimples, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is discasing the circulation, and that a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid is necessary in order to correct the trouble. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may relieve some of the itching and other discomforts caused by skin diseases, but such treatment has no effect on the blood and therefore cannot do any permanent good. Until the humor is removed from the circulation the cuticle will suffer the effects of an acid irritation. S.S.S. is the best and quickest remedy because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation, and removes every particle of the humor, whether it be an infection of poisonous plants or from other causes, and makes the blood pure, rich and healthy, allowing it to soothe and nourish the skin instead of irritating and inflaming it with acid humors. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired sent free. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

BRIDAL COUPLE JUMPS OVER CORPSE

BODY OF DEAD MAN STOPS NOT MARCH TO ALTAR

Young Actress Leads Husband-Soon-to-be in Leap Over Death and Executes Feat With Vastly More Grace Than Awkward Groom.

London, July 31.—Miss Lora Josselyn Taylor and William P. Clyde, Jr., were married in the presence of death here a few days ago.

They moved to the altar rail across the granite barrier of a tomb. Within two feet of them, as they knelt for the final sacrament, lay the body of a man.

The many American guests who had watched the unclouded course of the romance between the beautiful actress and the son of the rich steamship man could not but shudder at the strange setting of the ceremony in Old Dulwich College chapel. But the bride and bridegroom did not seem to mind it a bit.

Their passage to the altar was a physical as well as a moral triumph. None but an actress of consummate grace could have vaulted over a huge sarcophagus with unblighted dignity.

None but a young man of perfect poise could have followed her without exciting a gasp of horror or a ripple of laughter even in that grim presence.

Parental Objections Overridden. The couple achieved the seemingly impossible as easy as they overrode parental hesitancy in the early days of their romance.

It was a great honor to be married in the old Jacobite chapel, for no one was ever married there before. Only the high rank of the officiating clergyman, Archdeacon David, chaplain of Dulwich College obtained for them the unique privilege.

It happened that a man named Mitchell, a lifelong supporter of the college, had died a few days before. His obsequies were solemnized in the chapel only the day before the wedding.

As the brightly dressed wedding guests assembled in the church, the green granite sarcophagus still stood before the pulpit.

The bride and bridegroom entered. Miss Taylor, whose beauty was the talk of New York when she appeared at the New Theater last season, was lovelier than ever in a gown of white brocade and an elaborate plaque of diamonds, the gift of her father-in-law. The bridal couple moved to the chancel rail.

Dead Is Forgotten. For the first part of the ceremony the presence of the dead seemed forgotten.

Then, according to the strict ritual of the church, they were summoned to the base of the pulpit for the blessing. They rose.

The guests caught their breath. The great sarcophagus stood between the couple and the pulpit.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FRANCESCO FERULLO.

Stellar Attraction Booked For the Interstate Fair This Year.

Francesco Ferullo and his band of fifty pieces will be the stellar musical feature of the eighteenth annual Spokane Interstate Fair.

Manager Cosgrove has closed a contract for the appearance at the fair next fall of the famous organization which is creating such a furor in the California musical world.

Spokane bands will furnish the regular music for the fair, and the big band will appear only in concert programs. A new band stand for their accommodation will be erected in front of the grand stand on the west side of the race track, and the concert numbers will be given between race events. The band will be the star feature at night. In addition to the spectacular number, including a strong pyrotechnic program.

Ferullo is fulfilling a musical triumph at Idora Park, Oakland, and is stated to have a musical organization second to none. Ferullo is a demon with the baton. In his hand the baton is a wand drawing forth the harmonies from the array of men who sit waiting for its every turn and curve.

Under the spell of this struggle of the mortal with the unseen Ferullo twists, squirms, raves, and his raven locks wave and flutter. He arouses an audience into a fever of suppressed excitement. Sounds issue in volumes or are repressed as a whisper in answer to his every contortion.

The organization which comes to Spokane for the Interstate Fair, Oct. 2 to 8, carries vocalists, harpists and other soloists in addition to the regular instrumentation, and the organization will put on a series of programs never equaled in Spokane.

THREE SUICIDE AT GRAVE.

Mrs. Francis Drinks Acid in Cemetery Where Husband is Buried.

Chicago.—Mrs. May Francis, 42 years old, 3758 Forest avenue, attempted to commit suicide at her husband's grave in St. Boniface cemetery, Lawrence avenue and North Clark street, by swallowing tincture of iodine. She was taken to the Ravenswood hospital, where it was said last night that her condition was not serious. Despondency is believed to have been the cause of the attempt. According to the police, she went to her husband's grave late yesterday afternoon, taking with her a small bottle of tincture of iodine. After sitting by the grave, she lifted the bottle to her lips and emptied it.

DRINK-ENSLAVED WOMAN LAYS VICE TO MARRIAGE

Ten Years as Wife of Cafe Owner Fastens Habit on Her, Actress Says.

San Francisco.—Ten years of marriage to a cafe keeper made an inebriate out of Annie King, once a member of Lillian Russell's company, according to testimony given before Judge Stanley Smith in Oakland. The woman was sent to the Napa asylum under a new state law which provides for the treatment of victims of drink at state hospitals.

Mrs. King wanted to go to the asylum, for she said, she was sure that with proper treatment she would be able to recover from the habit in a short while.

She is exceptionally well educated and speaks French and German readily.

A GOOD FIGHT SPOILED.

Irish Nationalists in British House of Commons Almost Come to Blows.

London.—There was a lively interlude from the Nationalist benches in the house of commons in the form of an exchange of compliments.

William O'Brien, leader of the Independents, complained to the speaker that he had been insulted by questions put by Thomas Landon, nationalist for the East Division of Limerick, who asserted that O'Brien was the "descendant of the most blackguardly informer that ever appeared in Ireland."

When Landon refused to retract this statement, O'Brien shouted: "You are an infamous liar and scoundrel."

Landon made a dive for the independent leader, but friends seized his coat tails, and the incident was closed. It indicated, however, how baseless are all the reports of a truce between the nationalist factions.

DISCOVERS WAY TO STOP ROOSTERS CROWING

Chicago Chief of Police Is Man to Whom Suffering Public Is Indebted.

Chicago.—Chief McWeeny's method of silencing obnoxious roosters that wake up the neighbors was made known in a letter to Lieutenant Howard of the Lake street station he told the lieutenant how to stop the crowing and incidentally told him to employ the method in the case of two roosters at 223 South Lincoln street. This method of the chief's had been a mystery ever since the complaint of David Levi, 4932 Indiana avenue, resulted in immediate relief. No one seemed to know what the chief had done, but the roosters had been silenced. Last night the secret came out.

The method as described in the letter to Lieutenant Howard is as follows:

See that the roosters are locked up in a chicken house each night.

Nail a board about twelve inches above each perch so that the rooster cannot stand upright.

"The explanation of the 'rooster silencer' is that a rooster cannot crow without standing up and stretching. When the rooster wakes up in the morning and prepares to notify the neighborhood that he is awake its first move is to stretch itself. In doing this its head encounters the board before it has extended itself. Being unable to stand up it is unable to crow.

It does not seem to occur to the average rooster to get down onto the ground to crow; so it shuts up.

The letter was written on complaint of Miss Helen Zimmer, 225 South Lincoln street, who has a boarding house. She complained that two particularly noisy roosters were kept in the next yard and that they were annoying her boarders.

Miss Zimmer wrote to the chief after hearing of his success in silencing the fowls which were annoying Levi.

CLEVER SWINDLERS DUPE STEEL TRADE FOR $500,000

Eastern Company Offers $5000 Reward for Apprehension of Fake Coin.

New York.—An offer of $5000 reward will be sent broadcast over the country by the Swedish Iron and Steel company of New York and New Orleans for evidence that will convict two or more alleged swindlers of a fraud by which it is charged $500,000 has already been cleaned up, and which is still flourishing.

For seven years the swindlers—known to the trade as the "two French swindlers"—have been preying upon steel importers, a body of men who annually bring into the country goods valued at $25,000,000, to such an extent that salesmen handling imported steel now report that they have difficulty in persuading customers that they are honest men representing reputable firms.

The victims chosen have been always of first financial rating. They include business concerns of all kinds in New England, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Indianapolis, Brooklyn, New York, Buffalo, Lansing, Detroit and Grand Rapids.

The "two Frenchmen" representing themselves as Count So and So and his secretary, would visit a factory office soliciting sample orders for high class tool steel made abroad by the count's father.

While the "Count" engaged the superintendent his secretary would dictate on the firm's stationary an order for a much larger amount and walk out with a perfunctory signature. The order would be turned over to supposedly innocent jobbers, who would deliver an inferior quality of steel, worth perhaps 3 cents a pound and collect from 25 to 30 cents a pound.

McNamara Trial Expensive.

Los Angeles.—The trial of John J. and James McNamara, alleged dynamiters, is estimated today, will cost the county and defense not less than $700,000. It was calculated that $225,000 will be the cost to the county and union labor would expend $475,000 in defending the two men. It was said that the salaries of Attorney Darrow, Davis, Scott and McNutt, Harriman and Tyrell for the defense probably would exceed $300,000.

WHY THEY FAIL.

Most Pile Remedies Miss the Cause of Piles.

Disagreeable treatment with ointments or suppositories usually fails to cure piles and cutting them off wont remove the cause. Such treatment only moderates the outside effects of the disease and fails to remedy the inside cause. The up to date doctors now use internal medicine to free the circulation in the lower bowel, and so remove the disease.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, the first and only guaranteed internal pile cure—in the form of tablets—cures any kind of piles. Sold by Pendleton Drug Co. and druggists everywhere. $1 for large box. Dr. Leonhardt Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y.
