

This Is the Dress We've Been Talking About.

The best value we have ever offered.

The skirt is made of the $1.25 grade French Serge, and the waist of $1.25 Silk Messaline. Nearly all shades and sizes.

$9.90

See Corner Window

F. E. LIVENGOOD & CO.
SEPTEMBER Ladies' Home Journal Patterns Ready

PERSONAL MENTION

George Tonkin of Pilot Rock has been visiting here today.

H. L. Stanfield of Echo is here today upon a business trip.

Dr. E. O. Parker has returned from a trip to southern Oregon.

L. Scholl, Jr., mayor of Echo, was a visitor here last evening.

G. O. Richardson, postmaster at Adams, has been here today.

Marshall Spell has returned from an outing spent at Lehman Springs.

Dave Lavender was a passenger on the forenoon train from Weston today.

R. Alexander has returned from a visit in Portland and at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Welchons of Myrick station, have been in town today.

Deputy District Attorney Pruitt is at his office today after a two days' illness.

Gail Sturdivant and Cross Sturgis leave tomorrow morning for Wenaha Springs.

Misses Edna Storie and Nona Johnson are en route home from Wallowa lake.

Harry Rees, assistant postmaster, has returned from a sojourn near Wenaha Springs.

H. A. Walker, a stock buyer of Seattle, is now in the city attending to business matters.

Robert Forster leaves tomorrow for Seaside, where his family has a cottage during the summer.

Mrs. J. R. Riley and little son will leave tomorrow for Portland where they will visit with friends and relatives.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

Miss Lora Perry came over from Wallowa this morning for the purpose of giving instruction to her musical pupils.

Miss Pauline Lederle of La Grande is in the city upon a visit with her invalid father, who is at the St. Anthony's hospital.

W. R. Walpole, newly appointed fair commissioner, left this morning on train No. 5 for his home at Irri-gon, after having spent several days in the city.

Carl Cooley, bookkeeper for the Alexander department store, leaves tomorrow on a vacation which he will pass in Portland and at his home at Brownsville.

George Strand, deputy sheriff, has returned from Union county, where he was working with a threshing crew.

JUDGE W. T. SLATER

President of U. of O. Alumni Who is Fighting Referendum Move.

BADLY HURT BY BEES.

Women Nearly Stung to Death by Enraged Swarm.

Louisville, Ky.—When Mrs. C. K. Augustus, wife of the postmaster of South Park, Ky., and her daughter went to the aid of a blind horse tangled in a net of wires in their yard, they met a swarm of enraged bees, resulting from a hive the horse had turned over in its struggles. The two women were stung almost to death before the man of the family, attracted by their cries, went to the rescue. The man scraped the bees by the handful out of the women's hair. Both were stung scores of times on the scalps, faces and arms, and blood poisoning is feared.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Good program for Sunday and Monday:

1. "Waiting! American. Pathé. This picture begins with a love story in the east. The hero goes west and makes his fortune. He received a letter from his sweetheart stating that she is coming to him at last and to have everything ready for their wedding. On her trip the train is wrecked and all on board are killed. Gradually the intelligence fades from the eyes of the broken hearted man. The first scene shows a picture of the two lovers and this picture is shown again as the last flash of reason in the eyes of the dying lover, many years later, then he is released from his sorrow and the wrath of his little sweetheart comes to kiss him.

2. "The Two Lives. Selig. A story of the lives of two college chums. Showing the triumph of character over the lust for money.

3. "The Picture on the Screen." Gaumont. See how a moving picture is staged and photographed. An interesting and up-to-date drama which introduces numerous educational scenes showing the making of a moving picture in one of the largest studios in the world.

4. "A Ragged Coast." Gaumont. Showing the breakers and wild waves of the Catatan coast and some of the few ancient Roman ruins now remaining in Spain. The wave and breaker effect are especially strong.

5. "Madeline's Rebellion." Edison. Madeline and her sister Mildred, two American girls, live in the house of an old general who is their legal guardian. Happiness reigns supreme until the general's nephew returns home from military school. His trunk precedes him by four hours. Mildred and Madeline happen to be in the hall way when the ex-pressman who delivers the trunk obligingly unbuttons the straps. The cover opens readily. Their curiosity being aroused, they begin to rummage in the trunk with the result that Madeline finds a letter written by her guardian to his nephew stating that it is his wish that the latter marry his ward, Madeline.

6. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

7. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

8. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

9. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

10. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

11. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

12. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

13. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

14. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

15. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

16. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

17. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

18. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

19. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

20. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

21. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

22. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

23. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

24. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

25. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

26. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

27. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

28. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

29. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

30. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

31. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

32. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

33. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

34. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

35. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

36. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

37. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

38. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

39. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

40. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

41. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

42. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

43. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

44. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

45. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

46. "The Twins." Rex. A splendid dramatic story. The two little twins were in an orphan's home, one was adopted by a woman of wealth, the other by a poor seamstress. The rich girl while eloping is killed by the automobile going over a cliff and by a strange working of fate, her sister meets and is adopted by the rich couple, who had cared for her twin. Superbly colored and filled with genuine heart interest. "It's a Rex."

47. "The Jealous Husband." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

48. "The Pastime." Biograph. A traitor husband trumps up a scheme of falling health to get away on a fishing trip with the boys. During his sojourn his mother is taken ill and his wife upon seeking the doctor finds him also at the seashore. She brings him back with her in her auto. The husband seeing his wife and the doctor speeding along the road,

49. "The Foreman's Mine." Bison. The young miner wins the daughter of a ranchman and his rival follows him to the mine and sets off a blast, blinding him. He is saved by prospectors and his sight restored, while his rival is killed resisting arrest. Finely colored.

5