THEATRE BUILDING

WORK ON EXTERIOR COMMENCES MONDAY

Interior of Structure to be Remodeled As Soon as Contracts Can Be Let-No Immediate Prospect of Construction of New Building,

That the work of repairing the exterior of the Oregon theater building will be started Monday and that the remodelling of the interior will be undertaken as soon as contracts may be let was announced today by W. F. Matlock, owner of the building.

According to Mr. Matlock, the exterior of the building will be replastered wherever needed and the entire building will then be given a coat of paint so as to give it a more presentable exterior

Plans for remodelling the interior of the playhouse call for the construction of a hood over the stage, the widening of the stage, the installation of a heating plant and the construction of a balcony,

Thus far thebids on this work have not been received and Mr. Matlock says he will not determine definitely regarding the work until the bids have been gone over.

"I have been delaying the remodeled to find out if a new theater is to made, be built," said Mr. Matlock today. Boston. Mass .- Mrs. Emma Heath of Maiden, tost her suit against Mrs. Sarah F. Merriam, a wealthy widow, 74 years old, in which $50,000 lamages were claimed for alleged allienation of the affections of Mrs. Heath's husband, Nathaniel P. Heath.

The case was a most peculiar one, and every day during the trial the courtroom was crowded. Many witnesses were examined and the evidence presented was of a sensational nature. Mrs. Merriam, who is well preserved for her age, is deaf, and it was alleged that complimentary remarks were overhead by witnesses. It was also alleged that smacks could be heard from behind closed doors. Heath, a real estate broker, was offered the management of Mrs. Merriam's hotel, and took up his restdence there.
