WANTS PHILADELPHIA TO GIVE BACK A BEQUEST

Mrs. Frances Lowry Asks Return of 2,000,000 Given Fifteen Years Ago. Paris.—Mrs. Frances Fulton Lowry of Philadelphia and Paris has begun suit against the former city for the recovery of $2,000,000 or part thereof, left to that city some fifteen years ago by her brother-in-law and sister-in-law.

Mrs. Lowry, who was originally Miss Rebecca Rene Levy of Metz in Lorraine, left that city when Marshal Bazaine allowed it to fall into the hands of the Germans. She married Frances Fulton Lowry of the wealthy Philadelphia family of that name. Now poverty has compelled her to sue the city for what she thinks is her just due. She is a victim of last year's Paris flood, having lost all in the swollen waters of the Seine.

The intervention of Ambassador Bacon has enabled her to get along in a moderate way up to the present. She is the only American living in the ruined town of Alfortville, a suburb of Paris, and Ambassador Bacon wrote the mayor of that town reminding him of the generosity of America toward the flood victims and expressing a wish that the solitary American within the mayor's jurisdiction should be well cared for.

As her brother-in-law and sister-in-law had no direct heirs, Mrs. Lowry contends that at least in equity, the city of Philadelphia should disgorge some of the money left it by these members of her family.

SHE STUDIED BOYS 45 YEARS.

Veteran Teacher, Retiring, Says They Always Will Be Puzzles.

Boston, Mass.—Tendering her resignation after forty-five years of school teaching, and receiving a letter of appreciation for her services, Miss S. Louise Rhodes of Norwood, Mass., is one of the most honored veteran schoolmasks in the state.

"You can't tell what a boy is going to be when he is in the schoolboy period," says Miss Rhodes. "The boys who may seem the brightest and most remarkable will not amount to anything out of the average, and the boys who will not concentrate on a thing, and you would imagine they would always be scatterbrains, suddenly take a turn in an entirely different direction and make splendid, capable men. There are some who develop slowly but persistently right along."

MERCHANT'S SLAYER IS STILL AT LARGE

Posse of Bibb Officers Hot on Trail of Negro Frank Daniels.

Macon, Ga.—Frank Daniels, a negro, who shot and killed James R. Bullington, proprietor of a grocery store on the Columbus road, four miles from Macon, and who later shot Will Lanier, a negro deputy, is still at large, although a posse, headed by Sheriff Hicks and five deputies, have been searching for him since an early hour Sunday morning. The shooting took place when Mr. Bullington ordered several drunken negroes, Frank Daniels among them, to leave his store, as he was going to close up. The negro was once barricaded in his home, but he shot Will Lanier, the negro deputy, escaped, and took to the swamps.

BLAST INJURES MARSHAL.

Dirt and Rock Driven Into Man's Face by Delayed Powder Charge.

Goldendale, Wash.—An explosion of giant powder which occurred while W. Liedl, city marshal, was examining the effect of blasts in a sewer ditch that is under construction here nearly cost the life of the marshal. It was thought that all the charges had exploded until the marshal, who was superintending the work, went into the ditch and the dirt and rock were hurled into his face. He was unable to see for several hours, but tonight physicians say that he will fully recover.

COUNT ACCUSES RELATIVES.

Says Member of Family Start Fire That Ruins Castle.

Vienna.—A sensational scandal has arisen in the Esterhazy family. Last week the splendid family castle was almost gutted by a fire which broke out at night. The famous library, collection of arms and the picture gallery were wholly destroyed. The castle, which forms part of the entailed property, was inhabited by the present owner, Count Karl Esterhazy, his wife and children. They, as well as the numerous servants, escaped unhurt.

Deputy Dead; 2 Hurt in Row.

Klamath Falls, Ore.—Deputy Sheriff John Lambert is dead and Al Lyons and Frank Lytle are seriously wounded as the result of a drunken row at Fort Klamath, 20 miles north of here. Lyons and Lytle became involved in a fight and when the deputy interfered Lytle shot him, killing him instantly. Lytle then turned his revolver on Lyons, who returned the fire.

Row Over Dog Causes Shots.

Klamath Falls, Ore.—Louis Nobles, a teamster, is dead and Marlon Faulder, a cook, is dangerously wounded in a railroad construction camp, 40 miles north of here. It is claimed Nobles shot Faulder and then turned the gun on himself. Trouble over a dog is said to have caused the tragedy.

Four Tons of Cherries.

Colville, Wash.—Captain M. R. Flint of Meyers Falls has just harvested four tons of Lambert cherries, which he marketed directly to Minneapolis and Chicago customers at good prices. The crop was 800 boxes. These were taken from 7-year-old trees. He estimates that next year the same trees will double this yield.

A band with a charter membership of 17 has been organized at Huntington. Instruments have been ordered from a Portland house.

NAVAL DRY DOCK FOR SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco.—In accordance with plans to make San Francisco a great United States naval base for Pacific ocean fleets, the navy department is planning to install a large dry dock capable of berthing the largest vessels afloat in San Francisco bay, according to advices just received here from Washington.

The proposed dry dock is to be in operation by 1915, will be 1000 feet in length and 115 feet wide. An enlargement of the Mare Island navy yard is also said to be planned.

BIG WAVE BREAKS HER LEG.

Strange Mishap to Woman Bather in the Ocean.

Atlantic City, N. J.—By one of the most peculiar mishaps that has ever occurred along the beach front, Mrs. Theresa Hanley of 2733 East Cambria street, Philadelphia, sustained a fractured leg while bathing at the foot of Illinois street. With a party of friends, Mrs. Hanley stood waist deep in the surf and, carried from her feet by a wave of unusual height and force, she disappeared with a cry of pain.

Her companions shouted with glee at what they believed was nothing more serious than a ducking, but they hurried to her aid when the face of Mrs. Hanley reappeared showing signs of great pain. She was hurried to the hospital tent, where it was found that her leg was fractured and she was sent to the City hospital.

After the broken limb was placed in splints Mrs. Hanley was placed on a train and sent to her home in Philadelphia.

Dated this 6th day of August, 1911. TOM GURDANE, City Marshal.

FREEWATER PEACH DAY BEING BOOSTED

That "Peach Day," which is to be observed at Froewater on August 24 this year, will be an occasion worth while is declared by Attorney J. P. Neil of that town who is a member of the executive committee and has been in Pendleton today.

"The committee is planning to have the forenoon program devoted to Commercial club affairs," says Neil, "and representatives and delegations will be asked to attend from all the towns of Umatilla county and from many of the towns of eastern Washington. Secretary Keeffe, of the Pendleton Commercial club, will have a prominent part upon the program."

Aside from the Commercial club men other speakers at the "Peach Day" program will be Water Commissioner Cochran of La Grande, who will discuss water rights. County Judge J. W. Maloney, who will talk on roads, and other speakers who will deal with various topics pertaining to horticulture.

It is the intention of the "Peach Day" managers to make the celebration the best Froewater has ever given both from an entertainment standpoint and from the standpoint of benefit. To this end speakers are being secured who will talk on subjects of direct interest to those who will be in attendance.

A steam heating plant will be installed in the public school building at Seilo.
