

Every day now at the Boston Store is a busy one. Crowds are coming, crowds are going and every one singing praises

The Great Closing-Out Sale

Never were such opportunities of buying first-class merchandise offered to the people of this country. Perhaps never again will good goods be sold so cheap. Remember, there are stacks of goods being sold, so make arrangements and come at once.

More than one-hundred pairs of Shoes sold yesterday. More than twenty Suits, and the way the customers grabbed Underwear, Hosiery, Hats, Etc., was a treat to onlookers as well as the purchasers.

We expect larger crowds every day. We have the prices, we have the goods, so take the wings of the early morning, come early and buy all you want.

BROWNELL PROJECT TO BE EXTENDED

(Special Correspondence.)
Umatilla, Ore., Aug. 11.—D. C. Brownell is having surveys made this week on the proposed extension of the Brownell ditch. The opening of the ditch will mean much for the south side of this city and may be the means of having many new people and residents there be an advantage to the town generally. The ditch will be extended west to the end of the townsite.

J. A. Cooper, the well known traveling man, was here this week. Rev. C. Butler of Hermiston, was a visitor here this week.

Buys New Home.
John E. Hatter has purchased the house and lots on the south side of the city from J. B. Switzer and has already begun to remodel the house and otherwise improve the property.

New Houses.
J. B. Switzer is building a new house for rental on the river front and also making other improvements to his other houses.

Work Brisk.
Work in the local yards has been so brisk the past few weeks that the O-W-R & N. Co. has placed an additional switch engine on the work.

Going to Canada.
City Recorder Saylor leaves soon for a month's vacation to Alberta, Canada, where he has extensive property interests.

Large Cargo.
Fifteen hundred sacks of sugar were among the large cargo landed the early part of the week by the Open River Transportation company's boats. The most of the sugar was shipped by rail to the interior.

Recital a Success.
The recital given by Miss Katherine Trevette of Chicago Tuesday evening was a decided success from a financial as well as from an artistic standpoint. The opening number as well as the piano solo were very good. The tenor solo by Mr. W. F. O'Connell received a more than usual applause and encore. The selection sung by Mr. O'Connell was both classical and difficult. His voice was in excellent form.

New Foreman.
D. J. McNemry of Portland has been appointed roundhouse foreman here to succeed Mr. McVey, resigned. Mr. McNemry entered on his new duties Monday morning, August 7.

E. Street Graded.
The grading and repaving of E street is indeed a decided improvement and is a leader to other streets being improved in such manner later on. At a recent meeting of the council a board of plank walk was ordered for both sides of the street which will add not only to the appearance of the street but will help as an easy access to and from the river landing, for in the past year the

CEMETERY SITE DECIDED UPON

(Special Correspondence.)
Hermiston, Ore., Aug. 11.—After many months of hard work and meetings too numerous to mention the Hermiston Cemetery association has at last decided on a location. At a meeting held this afternoon they decided to buy 20 acres located two miles south of town, from David Sorrells. The tract purchased is a very nice smooth one and is just above the "A" line ditch and will be watered in the fifth unit which will come in next spring.
A McDonald today purchased the John Irvin homestead relinquishment. It is a twenty acre tract and is located two miles directly east of town on the diagonal road to the reservoir, it is partly improved and it is Mr. McDonald's intention to move on the claim right away and improve it as well as his other project holdings.
W. F. Tornbow, who has been in the employ of the O-W-R & N. for the past number of years, resigned and will, it is said, go into the contracting business.
H. J. Patterson has left for Prosser, Wash., on a business trip.

SIMON'S SON BRINGS CASH

$100,000 in Battered Suitcase When He Arrives in New York.
New York.—Jabbering a French patois in excited exultation against the slights of Collector Loeb laying violent hands upon his battered suitcase, Antoine Simon, Jr., as black as Erebus, and son of the man who has just been deposed from the presidency of Hayti, came into this port on his way to Europe, avowedly to protest to the German government against the result of the latest revolution that has driven his father from power.

Prisoner a White Slave.
Stockton Police Believe Convicted Vagrant Is Head of Gang.
Stockton.—According to the local police Harry de Lorme, now in jail for serving a 180-day sentence for currency, is the head of a gang of white slaves who have been very active recently. It is alleged that de Lorme had something to do with the disappearance of Helen Johnson Whitson, daughter of a San Francisco physician. Frank de Due of the state bureau of identification is said to have secured a written confession from Fred Duval, arrested in San Francisco on a similar charge.

Advice For Sick Women Free

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
