

MAJOR LEE MOORHOUSE'S FAMOUS INDIAN EXHIBITION.

The famous collection of Indian pictures and historic relics and curios owned by Major Moorhouse of this city is now on exhibition at the Pendleton Woolen Mill booth at the Astoria centennial and will be a feature of interest to thousands of visitors at the commemorative fair. The Moorhouse collection is one of the most valuable in the west and represents the work of many years.

Most of the residents of Pendleton and Umatilla county have seen his exhibition which has been displayed for a number of years at the Umatilla-Morrow county fair. It will be returned to Pendleton in time for the fair and Round-Up next month.

SOMMERER COLLECTS EXHIBIT FOR FAIR

Henry Sommerer, president of the Farmers' union, has taken personal charge of the task of collecting exhibits for the district fair at Pendleton, says the Hermiton Herald. He has secured an excellent booth in which to display the exhibit and has also made special arrangements for storing the specimens until fair time.

Mr. Sommerer has covered the project pretty thoroughly on an investigation tour and is certain a number of prizes can be secured if the growers will but do their part and give the specimens. Persons having anything to send to the fair need only notify Mr. Sommerer and he will do the rest.

EATS BROOD UNDER HEN.

Snake First Charms the Mother, Then Devours Chicks. York, Pa. — Having apparently charmed a mother hen, a blacksnake 4 feet 6 inches long was found coiled beneath her wings in Elmer Myers' chicken coop at Crazeville, calmly devouring her brood.

The attention of Myers was attracted to a disturbance in the chicken-house during the night. Entering with a lantern, he found the towels all uttering cries of fright and staring at the brood hen which appeared to be undisturbed. Some time elapsed before Myers discovered the body of the serpent coiled beneath the spread wings.

The snake was in the act of swallowing one of the chicks, and others were huddled within easy reach, apparently feeling that as their mother had given no alarm all must be well. Myers dispatched the intruder.

After an examination of the hen he was convinced that she had been under some hypnotic influence which compelled her to sit rigid as the horrible feast went on under cover of her sheltering mother breast.

Attack Like Tigers. In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood.

"They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif. "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at Koeppe's.

Rains Fill Marmer's Well. Ritzville, Wash.—B. J. Cramer, a farmer living north of town, reports that the recent rains completely filled his well with drift and stones. The high water ran eight feet deep and with speed enough to carry big rocks. He will have to dig a new well.

ELOPING WIFE'S SAD TALE.

Tells of Sacrifices Made to Keep Her Child Alive. Stockton, Cal.—A pitiful story of a mother's sacrifice for her child was told Justice Parker when Mrs. J. M. Abercrombie and Newland Blaylock were brought up for preliminary hearings, at the conclusion of which the case was taken under advisement.

Mrs. Abercrombie is the woman who was accused of eloping from Cobb county, Georgia, with an affiant, Deputy Sheriff McAllister, related the details of a story told him at the jail by Mrs. Abercrombie. She said that her husband brought her from Georgia to Modesto, where he led her to believe he was established in business. She found that he was working for wages. He ill treated her she said, and then left her, ostensibly to join the navy.

She was left stranded with the child and frequently was compelled to go without food. Often, she told the jailer, she was compelled to take 10-cent pieces which had been given to her child on the street for candy money and use it to buy bowls of mush or gruel. She declared that many a time she had watched her child eat its meager fare while she herself was famished.

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c at Koeppe's.

YOUTH STABS HIS NEIGHBOR'S SON

Quarrel of Two Young Men on Burnt River Ranch Ends in Bloodshed. Sumpter, Or.—Roy Wham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wise Wham, of Burnt River, was stabbed in the fleshy part of the left leg by Win LaPort, also of Burnt River. The two families own adjoining farms and have always been on the most friendly terms, the young men having grown up together. Young LaPort was angered, claiming that the stacker used in stacking hay was not working properly under the management of Roy Wham. He finally became very abusive and applied a vile epithet which Wham resented by knocking LaPort down. The latter whipped out a knife and made a lunge at his adversary, cutting him in the leg to the bone. Wham knocked the knife-wielder down again after being stabbed and this ended the affray. The wounded man was brought here and is able to be around with the use of crutches. No arrests have been made and it is thought Wham's injuries will not prove dangerous, unless blood-poisoning should set in.

Nye said that there is a danger of several thousand of the lesser corporations incurring the delinquency penalty of 15 per cent on the first payment, unless they pay their taxes before Monday night.
