BOY CHARGES FRAUD; IS HIMSELF ACCUSED

It now transpires that Charles Comer alias Charles Potter, the 16-year-old boy who started proceedings against E. M. Cook and Josephine Cook by complaining that they sold him liquor and then defrauded him of his horse is an alleged horse thief himself and will have to face that charge in Washington.

About the time young Comer made his charges against the two Cooks, Sheriff Taylor received a description of a horse which had been stolen at Prescott, Wash., a week ago yesterday. When the Cooks were bound over to await the action of the grand jury, the boy was also bound over in lieu of $100 bonds so that he might be held as a witness.

Sheriff Taylor is a pretty good judge of faces and, when he saw the boy, he immediately connected him up with the Prescott affair. An investigation proved his surmises to be correct but the boy refused to admit his guilt. However, when Sheriff Toner arrived yesterday morning and confronted the boy with a long string of evidence, he admitted the theft. He will be held here until the case in which he is a witness is disposed of when he will be turned over to Sheriff Toner.

Watching Arbitration Treaties.

Berlin, Aug. 21.—Edwin T. Meade of Boston, secretary of the world's peace foundation, in an interview declared today that the people of Europe had been watching with expectancy the negotiations surrounding the arbitration treaties between the United States and Great Britain and France, and that if they failed of ratification "we shall almost be regarded as having broken faith with civilization."

All's fair in love and war, but most men would rather be in love than in a fight.

He pleaded not guilty but the evidence was overwhelmingly against him at his trial this afternoon and he was convicted. Judge Fitz Gerald sentenced him to pay a fine of $20 or spend 15 days in jail. He chose the latter alternative.

Six Drinks in Court.

The shutting down of many harvesters over the county is causing a great many laborers to come into Pendleton to celebrate their long period of abstinence and hard work. This is the reason Judge Fitz Gerald subscribes for the increase in the number of drinks on record in the police court during the past few days. This morning there were six of these offenders, John Doe and Richard Roe, who forfeited their bail of five dollars apiece, M. F. Williams, Jack Hill, and Ty-co-no, who are serving out their sentences in jail, and Richard Poe who paid a fine of a V.

to his friends, he has grown more and more despondent as his task became harder and harder, although he attempted to appear optimistic. Proud to a fault, he would not be the recipient of charity, although the Masonic lodge, of which he was a member, offered him aid several times. His wife remained loyal throughout and never once complained of her hard lot. She kept all knowledge of their condition from her wealthy parents, but finally they heard of the straightened circumstances of their daughter through the church and wrote to her offering her and her family a home with them. Their pride kept them from accepting and they struggled on.

Finally the health of Mr. Reeves began to break down. He began to grow extremely nervous and for days at a time was unfit for any work. Finally in desperation, his closest friends think and believing that he would be removing an obstacle from the path of his family's happiness, he decided upon the tragic course which he carried out this morning.

Pardoned Slayer in Vision Saw Himself Saved on Scaffold.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—John Henry Prather, a negro who was to have been hanged for the murder of W. H. Archie, and whose sentence was commuted by Governor Cruce thirty minutes before the hour set for the execution dreamed that he was to be relieved.

"Two or three times," said Porter, "I dreamed that a white man came upon the scaffold just after the rope had been put around my neck. I didn't know him, but he seemed to be the boss of Sheriff Spain. He told the sheriff to let me go. I dreamed, and Spain took the rope from around my neck.

"There wasn't any penitentiary sentence in the dream and I thought I went down the alley on a run. I wanted to get away from the jail and the scaffold as quickly as I could. When I was safe away from it I wanted to go back to the place where I killed the white man. I always wanted to see if the blood was still on the sidewalk. Once before, two days after I killed him I went back there and saw the blood on the sidewalk. I guess the dream meant that I wasn't going to be hanged."

"A University of Pennsylvania graduate," Mrs. Long said, "recommended his tongue very highly as first-class and in fine condition."
