NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

Attorney Is Fined.
Dayton, Wash.—Before Justice R. A. Stanford, Attorney Hardy E. Hamm of this city was fined $1 and costs for using language provocative of an assault towards Sheriff E. Davis. The offense occurred on July 12.

Driven Out By Bears.
Kallispell, Mont.—Bears are so numerous in Glacier park this season that several camping parties have been greatly annoyed by the depredations. One party broke camp last week on account of the numerous bears and the rule that forbids the carrying of weapons with which to drive them away.

New Hospital at Ontario.
Ontario, Ore.—Erection of the $39,000 Catholic hospital at Ontario will begin next month, the removal of the dwelling now occupying the site having begun. Plans for a handsome building has been completed by Architect Arthur Elliott of this place. Contractors bids will be received this week and it is expected that actual building will begin almost immediately.

Yakima Health Board Hampered.
North Yakima, Wash.—The health department lost in a test case brought to compel owners of property to maintain sanitary toilets. J. F. Kaufman, owner of property at 115 Second avenue south, arrested on complaint of an inspector of the health department, was released by Justice of the Peace H. B. Hunt on the grounds that Kaufman is responsible, not the owners, for maintaining sanitary conditions.

She Said "Leave"; He Left.
North Yakima, Wash.—Because his wife told him he had been married 15 years, told him in 1907 that she wished he would leave her and never return, Harry A. Jordin of North Yakima took her at her word, left their home in Millard, N. H., and filed suit for divorce in Yakima county. In his complaint he declares his willingness to deed to her a lot in Millard valued at $3500.

Car, Man Woman Collide.
Spokane, Wash.—Mrs. Skelton of E 112 First avenue, was slightly injured last night while on her way to Northpark park. She was crossing the street at Post and Riverside and a companion was carrying her little boy. The man was struck by the rear end of a P-A-Y-E car, thrown against the woman, hitting her in the head and knocking her to the street. Mrs. Skelton was taken into Murgittroy's drug store, and later continued her journey to the park, where her husband is said to be working. Neither the man nor the boy was hurt.

band is said to be working. Neither the man nor the boy was hurt.

Pearl Kemp Is Hurt.
Adrian, Wash.—While Thomas Kemp and his sister, Miss Pearl Kemp were returning home from Adrian late the horses ran away and threw them out. Mr. Kemp struck on his head and the wheels passed over his body, injuring him severely. One of the horses kicked Miss Kemp in the chest. Miss Kemp is a teacher in the Spokane public schools and may not be able to assume her duties in September on account of the accident.

Killed on Track Near Ontario.
Ontario, Ore.—Westbound train No. 5 on the Oregon Short Line hit and killed Elmer Crosswhite, a young man from the Idaho bench, southeast of Nyssa, Ore. He was crossing the railroad bridge on the Snake, just east of Nyssa. His body was picked up by the trainmen and brought to Ontario, where G. L. King, county deputy, and a coroner's jury ascertained his name and got into communication with a brother who lived near Nyssa.

GOVERNMENT WANTS MALE STENOGRAPHERS

The United States civil service commission announces that it has been unable to supply the demand for male stenographers and typewriters in the service of the government of the United States. Young men who are willing to accept an entrance salary of $240 to $300 per year have excellent opportunity for appointment and advancement. The government service offers a desirable field to serious and ambitious young men. Appointments in the civil service are frequently made at $1000 to $1200 per annum. Examinations will be held in September and October, 1911, and all qualified persons, male and female, are urged to apply for and enter the coming examinations. For application blank and full information address Herbert F. Ward, secretary, eleventh civil service district, Room 224, postoffice building, Seattle, Wash.

RUNAWAY ENDS FATALLY.

Mrs. Maude E. Scranton Dies, and Her Baby Expected to Follow.
Modesto, Calif.—Mrs. Maude E. Scranton, wife of M. L. Scranton, a rancher, who leaped from a runaway with her four-months-old baby, died at the Evans hospital from injuries. The baby is still alive, but Dr. Evans holds out no hope for its recovery. It has developed that A. G. Henderson, an expressman, was a hero in the accident. He allowed his own team to take fright and dash wildly up the street, where one was killed, in an effort to save Mrs. Scranton by stopping her horse.

First canal, which was constructed in Egypt in 1653 B. C., was used to transport merchandise from Memphis to the sea.

should have a daughter way out here—he wasn't different from other men was he?" exclaimed Mrs. Emma Elizabeth Miller, when asked as to her statement that she is a daughter of England's late monarch. Mrs. Miller accompanied by an orphan girl, and her husband, whom she married at The Dalles, Ore., this spring came to Walla Walla from Milton, Ore., July 4, and has since lived in poverty here, while her husband, who is a blacksmith, has vainly sought work. At last, nearly overcome with humiliation and hunger, Mrs. Miller, who states she has lectured on many platforms in the large cities of the United States, decided to give a lecture to raise a little money for necessities and to secure enough to take her and her family on their way to England, whither she is sending her way in the hope of proving her identity and entering into her share of the king's fortune.

HATCHED MARCH 26, LAY AUG. 12

White Leghorns at Dayton Set a Mark for Others.

Dayton, Wash.—Andrew J. Knight, manager of a big department of a local store in this city, reports what he believes to be the best known record of early laying by this year's pullets pullets. Mr. Knight is a fancier of the White Leghorn bird, and has about 150 young chickens of this variety. His first hatching was on March 26, and on August 12 some of the pullets of the March hatch began to lay. This establishes a record of laying at four months and 16 days. The pullets are continuing their good work by so far laying about every other day.

Mr. Knight has given considerable attention to the study of different varieties of fowl, and is enthusiastic in his praise of the White Leghorn as one of the most industrious as well as profitable birds. Next in order Mr. Knight favors the White Orpington, of which variety he possesses quite a number.

SHOVED OTHERS BACK.

Mike Donnelly Cared Only for His Own Escape.

Walla Walla, Wash.—That more prisoners did not escape August 14, when Mike Donnelly made his escape from the state penitentiary here, Acting Warden Smith said was one of the surprises of that occasion, now that a full investigation of the circumstances has been made. It has been found by inquiry among the convicts and in other ways that four other men attempted to escape with Donnelly, when the sudden dust storm brought darkness in, mid-afternoon, and that Donnelly shook them off the ladder himself in order that they would not impede his own flight, probably forestalling a wholesale jail-break.

Since his escape Mike Donnelly is regarded by the remainder of the convicts as a hero, although he was not "chummy" with any one, even his own cellmates.

FORCED TO FIGHT FIRE.

Revolver Used by Ranger That Invaluable in Resort May Be Saved.

Banning, Calif.—At the point of a gun Forest Ranger Decker recruited men to fight against the forest fire which threatened to cause the death of many invalid guests at Palm Springs resorts.

Unable to help themselves, not only because of the physical weakness but because of the flames which surrounded their cottages, it was believed that unless aid was extended soon their death would result. There was no railroad by which they could leave the zone of danger and it seemed that escape of any kind was impossible.

The flames remained unconquered at Snow creek, and from there swept onward around Mount San Jacinto. Valuable Indian lands and irrigation plants were jeopardized and it was feared that heavy timber in the Chino and Tausnitz canyons would be destroyed.

In the fight against the flames which was directed by Forest Supervisor Marshall, there may have been lives lost already as seven Mexicans who were among those drafted by Decker by the aid of a revolver, were reported missing.

LOAD GRAVEL TRAINS WITH MACHINERY

In the Sacramento, California shops of the Southern Pacific company, there has just been completed a machine for loading of gravel upon flat cars from out of the bed of a river. Technically, it would be called a dredger. It consists of the necessary boilers and engines, with a 70 foot boom, and by the use of what is known as the clam shell steel bucket, is now being used successfully in loading gravel from the bed of a river in the Sacramento valley. This gravel, taken from underneath the water, is clean and dustless and makes fine ballast, and is being used on the double track work of the southern Pacific between Benicia and Sacramento in California.

USE VOLCANIC ASH TO BALLAST TRACK

San Francisco.—Near Black Butte, in the Shasta mountains between the stations of Weed and Sisson, California, the Southern Pacific company has uncovered a huge deposit of volcanic ash that has proved unusually fine ballasting material. It was discovered already broken into the proper size for ballast and the company has just completed ballasting that part of its line over the Siskiyou mountains with this material. It is of a pinkish color, porous, yet has a great deal of weight and its porous qualities make it perfect for drainage of the roadbed, that part of the road upon which it is being used being exceptionally well drained during the rainy seasons.
