STATE TREASURER WILL ATTEND FAIR

Not only will Governor Oswald West be present at the Morrow-Umatilla county fair next month, but State Treasurer Tom B. Kay will also be in attendance as a guest of honor. This was the announcement made this morning by Secretary Fitz Gerald, who had just received a message from the "watch dog of the treasury."

Secretary Fitz Gerald also announced this morning that Wednesday of fair week has been officially designated as Farmers' Union Day and that F. A. Sykes and Henry Sommerer, active workers in the union, have been appointed to prepare the program for the day. This arrangement disposes of two of the six days as Tuesday had previously been christened Education Day. The days will take their names from the nature of the program and the others will be given distinctive titles soon.

Teddy Fears Third Term.
Pittsburg.—Colonel Roosevelt does not want to be boosted for the republican presidential nomination in 1912. Writing to A. P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburg Leader, the colonel says that he must ask every friend interested in him not to boast. "I should esteem it a genuine calamity if such a movement were undertaken," writes Roosevelt.

THANKS TO BEAUTY PARLORS.

Lady Duff-Gordon, at a dinner in New York, praised the beauty parlor. "It has put back the clock at least 15 years for woman," she said. "The woman of 50 today thanks to the beauty parlor, hardly looks 35. In fact, I might almost say that there are no old women any more."

A POINT TO REMEMBER.

William Dean Howells at a tea at Kittery Point, talked in his wonted brilliant fashion about literature. "Good literature is always condemned on its first appearance," he said. "That is because, being original, it is new and strange."

A Correction.
It was stated in these columns several days ago that W. A. Suedegar, formerly manager of the Owl Tea House, had been compelled to resign owing to the death of his wife's father at Tillamook. The story should have read "owing to the death of his wife's mother" which occurred some time ago. Mr. Suedegar's father was here a short time ago and has a number of friends here who were surprised to hear of his reported death.

Reeves Funeral Tomorrow.
The funeral of Rev. John Reeves will be held at the family residence, 807 west Pebb street tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. It has not yet been decided whether interment will take place here or whether the body will be shipped to Kentucky. One son arrived last night from Vancouver and another will reach here this evening from Seattle. He had but three grown sons instead of four as reported yesterday. Todd Reeves of Seattle being a brother.

Tracy Baker With Brockton.
Tracy Baker, the Pendleton boy who was signed with the Boston Americans is now holding down the first sack for Brockton, Mass., having been traded with Glenn and White, two of his teammates, for more experienced players. According to articles in the Boston Post, Baker is playing a fine game with Brockton, both fielding and batting well, and his friends here believe he will break into the big league to say before long.

Lieuallen Boy Has Leg Broken.
Injured with the Round-Up spirit, the 14-year old son of J. T. Lieuallen, well known farmer of Adams, yesterday received a broken leg and other injuries when his galloping horse stumbled and threw him onto the hard ground. The accident occurred about 5 o'clock last evening at Meacham when the unfortunate boy, with a number of his fellows, were doing wild west stunts with horses and lassoes. One of his thighs was broken and he was badly bruised and mashed. He was brought to his home at Adams last night and the injuries attended to by Dr. E. O. Parker of this city.

Game Protectors Pass Through.
R. E. Clanton, master fish warden and George H. Kelly, member of the fish and game commission, passed through Pendleton on the early train this morning enroute to Ontario to have a view to dismantling the hatchery at that place because of unsatisfactory results from it. They were met at the train by E. K. Cranston, chairman of the commission, who was unable to join them because of the pressure of duties here. However, on their return trip he will join them at Wallowa Lake where an inspection of the hatchery at that place will be made. The entire commission is to assemble in Pendleton on Sept. 13 and will at that time examine the site for a hatchery at Gibbon.

Laundry Wagon Runs Away.
"Jim McKay," the blooded young gelding which draws one of Jack Robinson's laundry wagons, finds the daily collection of soiled linen very monotonous and has a way of adding "little excitement to his sober and orderly life. Some time ago he tasted the joys of a lively spin without permission or restraint and yesterday when Brook Dickson, its driver, was collecting laundry at a house on the south hill, it duplicated its previous feat. The usual iron weight had been attached to its bit and young Dickson, while in the house, heard the efforts of the animal to free itself from the embarrassment. Together with Charles Meighan, he rushed at the animal and the two strove to check its demonstration. Both were upset very neatly and with the loss of some skin, and Dickson was dragged for a short distance before he was vanquished. The horse sped down the sidewalk as far as the home of Dr. Holsington, tore down a few of the doctor's choice shade trees, and before it was halted at the foot of the hill, it had broken the shafts, gone through its harness and done other damage to the outfit.

Town Fights Fire.
San Diego, Cal., Aug. 22.—The entire population of Fall Brook, is fighting a forest fire which is burning between Fall Brook and Tenecula, according to reports today. Heavy damage has already resulted.

The Templars were suppressed throughout France in 1307 on a charge of sorcery.

MAN ROBS HIS FRIEND AND GETS IN JAIL

After having made his companion, C. M. Walker of Lewiston, drunk and relieved him of $180, J. O. Wyatt fell into the hands of Deputy Sheriff Strand about noon and is now in the county jail. The two men had stayed over night at one of the hotels and this morning made the rounds of the saloons until Walker was badly intoxicated. He was not so drunk, however, that he did not know he had been robbed but he did not suspect his "friend." Deputy Strand happened along and took in the situation and, although he had to strip Wyatt to the skin, he discovered the money.

SQUAW MAKES GIRL WALK STREETS NUDE

New York.—A Tuscarora Indian maiden who is in the care of the police matron here will be sent back to the Tuscarora Reservation this week to have her troubles settled by her own people. The girl came to the attention of the police following the receipt of several telephone messages from a suburban district saying a young girl was being driven nude through the streets.

A motorcycle policeman hurried out and soon located the disturbers, who proved to be three Indians. An aged squaw and a young brave of about 25 years were riding slowly along in a wagon, and the girl destitute of clothing, was walking along ahead of the horses.

The older woman explained she had objected to attentions the young brave, her second husband, had been paying to his stepdaughter and took this method of punishing the girl, in accordance with an old tribal custom.

MIRROR SHOWS HIM ROBBER.

Householder Turns and Blazes Away at Fleeting Intruder.
Chester, Pa.—When the form of a strange man was reflected in the mirror hanging in his bedroom, Frederick Lynch of the western section of the city raised his revolver and fired twice at the intruder. Both shots missed the man, who darted through the window, ran across the porch roof and dropped to the ground, getting away in safety.

Lynch was awakened about 1 o'clock by his wife, who informed him that she heard footsteps. Getting his revolver, Lynch hid in wait for the intruder, whose reflection he saw entering the room.

The revolver shots aroused the neighborhood and for half an hour several armed men searched for the marauder.

CREW SHANGHAI A KITTEN.

Men of Torpedo Boat Take Jimmy Away as the Official Mascot.
Aberdeen, Wash.—"Jimmy," a plain black kitten born on Gray's harbor, was shanghaied, by the crew of the torpedo boat destroyer Truxton, and has left on its first ocean cruise as official mascot.

Since the loss of "Bo," the vessel's regular mascot, the Truxton has experienced nothing but bad luck, and the petty officers were determined to provide a substitute upon the fleet's visit to Gray's harbor.

"Bo" was swept overboard while the Truxton was entering Eureka harbor.

AMUSED AT OWN EPITAPH.

Man Comes Home to Deny His Death and Burial.
York, Pa.—Arriving at his old home in Emrysville, after an absence of about two months, Van Hoops, a blacksmith, about 60 years old, was somewhat surprised to learn that a body had been lying in a West Fairview cemetery under a headstone bearing his name.

Some time after Hoops left the village a body was found on the railroad at West Fairview, and a minister at that place, who was acquainted with the blacksmith, identified it as his. It was accordingly buried as such.

Hoops says that he was taken sick and spent some time in a hospital at Savannah, Ga., but declares that he came no nearer death than that.

FINES FOR SPOONING ARE GRADUATED

Santa Monica, Calif.—Goo Goo eyes, $1 fine; holding hands, $2; mushy conversation, $3; simple hug, $4; grizzly bear squeeze, $5 or five days; spoony kisses, $10 or ten days; soul kisses, ten days straight. This is the tentative schedule of punishment for beach spooners under consideration of the city fathers today. It probably will be adopted. Too many bathers is the cause of the perturbation.

BODY OF MURDERED WOMAN IS FOUND IN A CORN FIELD

Two Girls Discover Corpse While Driving—Victim Was Killed With Rock Bearing Assassin's Finger Prints.

Montevideo, Minn.—The body of an unidentified woman, with head and face badly mutilated, was found lying at the edge of a corn field about five miles east of here by two daughters of Hans Peterson, while they were driving along the road.

The girls notified the police who say the woman had been murdered. Her skull had been crushed by a huge rock which was found near the body and there was evidence of a struggle. The rock bore the bloody imprint of a man's hand and a man's foot prints were found nearby.

The woman evidently was a stranger, as no one has been able to identify her. Last Saturday a woman accompanied by a little girl was seen driving in that neighborhood and Sunday afternoon the horse she was driving, hitched to a buggy without a driver, appeared at the farm of Lawrence Erickson.

No one has appeared to claim the horse, no inquiries have been made for a missing woman and the little girl has not been seen since.

Thorn Hollow Lie Nailed.

ment obstacle. With the present reservoir the pressure on the two hills is so slight that practically no fire protection is afforded and if the city should ever extend its residences into the Livermore and Cole additions, it would be impossible to give residents water service at all. The fall from Thorn Hollow is sufficient to raise the water here 70 feet higher than the present reservoir which is all that is necessary."

The False Story.
The statements which were branded as false by Mr. Kelsey were contained in the following story published last Thursday:

"In bringing condemnation proceedings and rushing purchase of the Thorn Hollow 'springs' the three majority members of the Water Commission acted without the advice of Engineer Kelsey, who was brought here at heavy expense to investigate the situation. It became known today that 'Never, in all the time that the Thorn Hollow site has been under consideration,' declared a man in close touch with the situation, 'has Kelsey ever told the Water Commission that the Thorn Hollow spring would be sufficient to supply the city of Pendleton with water.'

"Despite the fact that Engineer Kelsey was employed at heavy expense to advise the board, it becomes apparent that it has been proceeding in the expenditure of large sums of money without regard for the expert advice for which it paid."

Engineer Kelsey left on the delayed No. 17 for Portland.
