AMERICAN CAPITAL FEARS A STRIKE

New York, Aug. 28.—The business and financial leaders of the country's affairs have been watching with keen and almost painful interest the course of the gigantic strike that for a few days almost paralyzed British industries. When it was announced early last week that a settlement was in sight there was a feeling of great relief.

The interest in the subject here was not inspired wholly by the knowledge that any extended struggle would seriously affect international trade in even greater measure it was due to the feeling among well-informed men that there is grave danger of serious labor troubles in this country and to fear that a serious controversy on the other side of the Atlantic might stir up similar troubles over here.

Railroad managers, while not inclined to talk on the subject for publication, admit privately that if the falling off in net earnings is not checked shortly the roads will face the positive necessity of reducing wages since the interstate commerce commission has refused to permit an increase of rates.

On the other hand nobody who understands the present temper of the employees believe for a moment that they will submit to a reduction of wages. Their claim is that the increased cost of living has more than absorbed the advances wrung from the roads last year and many of them are urging the formulating of further demands which it would be impossible for the roads to grant under existing conditions.

It is this situation more than anything else that is held by insiders to account for the recent decline in several important railroad stocks.

POLICE TEACH MANNERS TO NEW YORK'S "CAR HOGS"

Scenes in Brooklyn Bridge Crash That Disgraced City Brought to an End.

New York.—A new function has just been added to the many which the New York police are called upon to perform. Their newest duty consists in teaching politeness to the male inhabitants of the city. The reform has been introduced where it undoubtedly was most urgently needed—at the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn Bridge. The congestion at this point every evening at the rush hour is unequalled anywhere else in the world and has aroused the anger and disgust of those who have had occasion to witness it. In the rush of the tens of thousands of home-goers for seats in the Brooklyn-bound cars men and women have been trampled upon and frequently serious injuries have occurred. The waiting crowd has swarmed over the cars before they came to a stop and in the mad contest women naturally had little chance to secure seats. Captain Bourke who has charge of the police at this point, determined to change this state of affairs. For the past few evenings he has lined up his men and compelled the crowd to wait until the cars came to a stop before attempting to board them and then has given the women first chance to secure seats. As a result from five to ten thousand women who formerly were compelled to stand in the cars have obtained seats. The "car hogs" have been too shamefaced to make serious protests and it is believed that a continuance of the present system will result in the abolition of what has always been one of the most disgraceful scenes to be observed in the city.

GOES 22,000 MILES ON $4.

New York.—James J. Doran, 20 years old, known as the "bentless tourist" reach Newburg the other day after having covered 22,000 miles with a total expenditure for car fare of $4.10.

Doran left Newburg on December 29, 1909, and went to New York. From New York he went on a schooner to Brunswick, Ga., then to Florida and after working as a bellboy in various hotels he went West.

Doran spent three months in California and other states. He went to Honolulu before he decided to come East again. He was arrested only twice, notwithstanding the fact that he had to beg meals and beat his way on railroad trains. Once he was arrested in Texas for standing on a street corner, and in Colton, Cal., for being out of doors after the curfew had rung. He paid his way when it was a sure case of going to jail if he didn't. He went through the Canadian provinces in the same way.

When hungry Doran picked out prosperous looking citizens and presented them with a card which read: "Jimmy Jerry Doran, tourist, minus funds, bellboy, New York bound, When do I eat?"

DYNAMITE CAPS IN MAIL EXPLODE IN POSTOFFICE

Boston.—Some dynamite caps, foolishly placed in a letter, exploded in the electric stamping machine of the Norwalk, Conn., postoffice, hurling Clerk Frederick M. Miller, who was running the contrivance, upon his back and scaring the entire office force, who thought an infernal machine had been exploded in their midst.

Fire followed the explosion, but it was quickly subdued with little damage. The caps were of the large variety, such as were inserted in camera lenses years ago, but which were placed under the lens of the State because of their explosive force.

Postmaster Albert S. Adams refused to give out who sent the letter although he said it was mailed in New York and was addressed to a city tax, who is apparently ransacking in Broad river.

FISTS MAE CINDERELLA ACT IN TROLLEY CAR

Conductors Returns One of Woman's Shower of Blows and Calls in the Police.

Philadelphia.—Thomas Kirrane, a conductor of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, is sporting a few facial disfigurements, as a result of an altercation with Mrs. Sarah M. Neavil, Magistrate Emily fined Mrs. Neavil $5 and costs, amounting in all to $8.50 for her exhibition of provess, but she smiled and said: "It was worth it." Then she went to a cell. Kirrane charged her with assault and battery.

Mrs. Neavil said she was on her way home, unescorted, when one of her white buckskin Oxfords came off and Kirrane in endeavoring to net the galling, seized the "leather" and passed it to her with a gracious bow. What he said to her did not come out at the testimony, but what she did to him did.

The prosecutor told the magistrate that Mrs. Neavil had handed him several hard wallops on the jaw when he decided to try one on her. Then he stopped the car and handed her over to a policeman.

NEW YORK TO HAVE WORLD'S LARGEST BREWERY

New York.—Within the past few days Manhattan has added another record to its already long list of the largest, tallest, costliest and various other superlative structures. This time it is the largest single building in the world devoted to the manufacture of beer which has just been completed by one of the big brewing companies.

The new stock house, as it is called has a capacity of 6,329,000 gallons and gives the establishment a capacity for brewing 10,000,000 gallons of beer at once.

More than four acres of floor space is occupied by the building and its tanks if placed end to end would form a tunnel high enough for a man to walk through and more than seven miles long. If put into ordinary bottles its contents would form a double line extending from coast to coast.

As a striking commentary upon the size of New York's thirst, it may be noted that the entire capacity of this record-breaking establishment would supply the ordinary consumption of the people of Greater New York and its immediate suburbs for less than two weeks.

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c at Koeppen's.

Hanged While Sleeping.

Dayton, Ohio.—Patrick Lee, aged 35, a peddler, accidentally hanged himself while asleep. He was taking a nap on a fallen tree on the bank of the Miami river, when suddenly he started to roll down; the trunk of the tree to the water's edge. His head caught between two small branches and his neck was broken.

JUST THINK OF IT.

A Four Hundred Dollar Upton Piano Absolutely Given Away!

That advertising is now a science is again demonstrated practically to the buying public of this section by the wonderful advertising system now employed by the most enterprising business house of the Pendleton Drug Co., who are going to give away ABSOLUTELY FREE on Feb. 29, 1912, the beautiful UPTON PARLOR GRAND PIANO which is now on exhibition at their store. The Upton sells for FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS and is a HIGH CLASS instrument in every respect, GUARANTEED by the makers for TEN YEARS. JUST THINK OF IT! A Four Hundred Dollar Piano to be GIVEN AWAY! A few years ago if a merchant was to do such a thing he would be considered a fit subject for an asylum, but conditions have changed, yet in the face of the enormous sum spent in advertising the fact of the Pendleton Drug Co. giving away a $400.00 piano is a stupendous undertaking and it clearly demonstrates their desire to be "always up to and a little ahead" of the spirit of the times.

Every purchaser of $1.00 worth of goods will receive a coupon good for 100 votes on the piano. The person presenting the largest number of votes to them on Feb. 29, 1912, will receive the piano absolutely free. No favors will be shown and every person will receive an equal chance. The reputation enjoyed by the Pendleton Drug Co. for "square dealing" insures this fact. We think the buying people will appreciate this extremely liberal offer on the part of the Pendleton Drug Co. and we predict a lively scramble for votes.

WALLA WALLA MAN SUED FOR $100,000

FAIR NURSE WANTS MONEY AS HEART BALM

Declares Son of Washington's ex-Governor Did Not Keep Promise in Marrying Girl After Winning Her Love and Promise.

Walter Baker Moore, son of the wealthy Walla Walla banker Miles C. Moore, former governor of Washington, dropped into Portland yesterday for a short renewal of old acquaintances and was immediately served with the papers in a $100,000 breach of promise suit brought by Miss Mary E. Cronen, a Portland nurse, says the Journal.

This was the opportunity for which Miss Cronen and her attorney, John F. Lokan, have been waiting for many months—the chance to catch Moore on Oregon territory so that the papers in the suit could be served.

This is the second suit that has been filed in the circuit court of Multnomah county in this case. The first one was filed on January 17 of this year. The newspaper reports of it gave Moore advanced notice with the result that he was not present when it was desired to serve the papers on him.

More cautious measures were used on this occasion. The fact that the suit had been filed some time ago and was carefully suppressed and so Moore walked into the web unawares yesterday.

In the complaint Miss Cronen alleges that Moore asked her to marry him on July 12, 1909, at which time she gave her promise. The wedding was scheduled to take place as soon as Moore could return from a trip he had planned to take to California which was expected to keep him away from his bride-to-be about three weeks, but instead of leading Miss Cronen to the altar he persuaded her to postpone the wedding day to some time in January, 1910.

When January rolled around she asked him to marry her as he had promised her would, the complaint alleges. He procrastinated until February 28, when he promised to be wedded on June 1, 1910, to which Miss Cronen agreed. When June 1 arrived the plaintiff asserts that she again asked him to marry her. At this time he flatly refused, which refusal he has repeated on many occasions since then, the complaint says.
