RUNAWAY BOYS ARE LOCATED NEAR CITY

The search for the missing Salem high school boys who ran away from home and were traced to this city by J. R. Chapman, father of one, is all but ended. Yesterday Mr. Chapman located Ben Minton, who accompanied his son on the trip of adventure, on the ranch of Mose Johnson on the reservation and learned that his son is out from Walla Walla working on a ranch. He is expected here today or tomorrow to attend the Round-Up. The Minton boy says he separated from his companion at Oregon City, the latter coming to eastern Oregon, while he started to China. This notion, however, dwindled out when he arrived at Astoria and he, too, came east of the Cascades. On his arrival in Pendleton he again encountered young Chapman, who, he says, still had his dog, but which he later sold to a farmer near this city. Young Minton secured a job on the Johnson ranch, where the Chapman boy went on to Walla Walla where he has since been.

GARRISON MURDER CASE IS REVERSED

Salem, Or.—John Garrison, convicted of murder in the first degree by the Coos county circuit court for the alleged killing of Roy Perkins at Marshfield, was granted new trial by the Supreme court. The higher tribunal held that the lower court erred in admitting the confession alleged to have been made by Garrison to the officers of Coos county. In September, 1910, the body of Roy Perkins was found in Coos Bay near Marshfield, with a gunshot wound in the head. Garrison made a confession. His attorneys argued objecting to its admission, which was overruled by the lower court. The attorneys held that Garrison made the confession under great misapprehension of mob violence and under intimidation calculated to inspire hope and fear both.

TESTIMONY BY SIGNS IN MURDER TRIAL

Somerset, Ky.—Testimony by a deaf and dumb boy, to be given in the sign language for the first time in the history of the Kentucky courts will be a feature of the trial of Fount Helton and James Ellis, charged with the murder of Magistrate A. J. Bealy and Constable W. F. Heath at Burnside, Ky. The boy is alleged to have seen the killing of the two men.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Hermiston Man to Marry.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Carl Vartner and Maida Sheldon, the former being a resident of Hermiston.

Leola Makes Good Showing.

Frank Fraxier's pacing mare, Leola, is making a good showing at the Salem state fair track. Yesterday she finished third in three straight heats of the 2:25 pacing event on a muddy track. The time was very slow, owing to the condition of the course.

Wrestler Wants a Match.

John M. Kennedy, a Hermiston wrestler, is in the city today looking for a grappler who wants to meet him on the mat. He was amateur champion of Chicago for some time, he says, and knows the tricks of the game. He is being managed by J. L. Thompson, well known athletic enthusiast of the project town.

For Owners of Good Dogs.

T. S. Griffith, president and treasurer of the Spokane Kennel club, which is to give its show in connection with the Spokane Interstate fair October 4, 5, 6 and 7, is in the city and wants to interest local dog owners so that they will enter their animals for the show. He has left a number of premium lists and entry blanks at the East Oregonian office should any one be interested.

Many Vags in Jail.

The city police force is taking no chances this week, but any visitor who has a suspicious appearance and can not give satisfactory answers to certain direct questions, finds himself under arrest with a vagrancy charge facing him. Six of these characters were rounded up yesterday. Leo McCoy, George Roberts, Alie Hick, H. Brinelle, Thor Maxwell and Walter Frazier, and each drew five-day sentences in jail with the exception of the last two who got ten.

Indian Rider in Jail.

Poor John Wallatst, known as "Honest John," will not get to show his skill in riding a bucking broncho unless some kind friend comes to his assistance with a five dollar note. His thirst for "Ere water" has been his undoing. He has paid so many fines lately that his exchequer is exhausted and so when the judge said "five dollars or three days" this morning, he had no money, but went sadly back to jail. Wallatst has been riding at the park for the last week and intended competing for the prizes.

By Auto From La Grande.

Bruce Dennis, editor and owner of the La Grande Observer, S. D. Crows, manager of the Home Telephone company at La Grande, and J. J. Carr, of the firm of Heath & Carr, of La Grande, all arrived this morning by auto from La Grande. They made the trip over the mountains during the early hours of the day and report a pleasant ride, though the weather was cool at the summit. They are all attending the Round-Up this afternoon.

Prisoners Are Arraigned.

Most of the men indicted at the recent term of the grand jury were brought before Judge Phelps this morning and arraigned. James Sullivan, R. O. Wyatt and W. T. Hatton all pleaded guilty to the charges against them and will be sentenced Saturday morning. Travers McCullough, Amos Thompson, James Coleman, C. E. McGaffey and Nick Androela all pleaded not guilty and will stand trial. Charles Wortman and Joe Arden were arraigned and will plead Saturday morning.

HAY ADVOCATES 'KILLING INCURABLE'

Spring Lake, N. J., Sept. 14.—Governor Gilchrist of Florida, today said he did not believe the Shakers who chloroformed Sister Marchant should hang and he doubted if they would be convicted.

Governor Hay of Washington said he believed doctors should decide whether sick people should have their sufferings ended humanely when cases are hopeless.

Governor Hadley, of Missouri, said that to allow such practices was dangerous.

Dr. Anna Shaw won a victory for the suffragettes by addressing the House of Governors today. Governor Hay also spoke in favor of woman suffrage. Governor Hadley of Missouri, also called empowering each state to regulate railroad rates within its own borders.

TO BE FOR VALUABLE LAND AND TOWNSHIP

Wash.—Mrs. Margaret Ray, 75 years of age, a resident of Moscow, Idaho, who claims to be a granddaughter of Thomas Shaw, who took Ohio land in part payment for his services as a soldier in the Revolutionary war, has retained local counsel to institute proceedings to gain possession of 1000 acres of land, including the site of the city of Wilmington. H. W. Rich has received from Mrs. Ray the government's acknowledgments of the filing on 1000 acres of land by Shaw on August 19, 1787, and the record of the government survey in 1794, also letters from the secretary of the department of the Interior, saying that the suit to prove title must be tried in the courts of Ohio. Other documents, including a letter from Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, then president of the United States, stating that the patent is being held by the government, awaiting the appearance of the heirs, Mrs. Ray says, were given to Attorney Frank Mills of Wilmington, who is now an inmate of the Ohio asylum for the insane, and probably are lost.

SPokane ARRIVES FOR THE "ROUND-UP"

For the double purpose of attending the Round-Up and boosting the Spokane Interstate Fair, the advance guard of the Spokane junket party arrived in Pendleton in a special car this morning. The special train containing 75 or 80 of Spokane's leading merchants arrived in the city shortly after noon and the whole delegation was in the grand stand to witness the frontier show this afternoon.

In the advance guard was Manager R. H. Cosgrove of the Spokane fair, T. S. Griffith and E. C. Van Diesel, directors of the fair; F. J. Coleman, president of the Vermont Loan & Trust company; Mrs. T. S. Griffith and daughter, Miss Tanis Griffith, and Miss Frances Rutter. The boosters invite all Pendleton to attend the fair at the metropolis of the Inland Empire this year, which institution, they say, has reached proportions which entitle it to rank as the third largest fair in the United States. In preparation for it this year, they say, $126,000 has been expended and fully $50,000 will be given away in prizes and premiums.

Many members of the Commercial association were at the depot at noon to welcome the visitors from Spokane and on every coat was a red ribbon with the words, "Welcome, Spokane; Let 'er Buck!"

RECIPROCITY FOES OFFER BIG BRIBE

Ottawa, Can., Sept. 14.—Declaring he has been offered a $250,000 bribe to fight reciprocity with the United States, L. Berthiaume, editor of the Montreal La Presse, today sprung a sensation. If he can prove his assertion, it is believed that Premier Laurier's chances, which are already good, will be strengthened tremendously, for carrying the election. Even the railroad strength of Canada is divided in the reciprocity fight. The Canadian Pacific is fighting against the treaty and the Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk are fighting for reciprocity.

WILD WESTERNERS' PERILOUS FEATS SETS CROWDS WILD.

ands of visitors from all over the north-west here to join in the celebration, the second annual Round-Up was ushered in this morning. The wild west cry of "Let 'er Buck" is being shouted by everyone and the air of silence and quietude has fled terror-stricken from the city. The spirit of the occasion has seized upon the great, multitudinous throng, and every man, woman and child is wild with the excitement, some being vociferous in their expression of it, some doing so with a subdued enthusiasm, but all manifesting to some degree or other the tension to which their nerves are drawn.

Great Crowds Here. The city is host to one of the largest crowds ever congregated in an eastern Oregon city and there is no doubt but that before the curtain is drawn Saturday night, Pendleton will have entertained and accommodated more people than any city of its size in the west within the space of three days.

The great crowds which have been here since Monday in attendance at the Morrow-Umatilla county fair has been swelling hourly since last evening. The two trains from Portland and the one from Walla Walla late yesterday afternoon were crowded to the vestibules and as they poured onto the depot platform, they were met with cries of "Let 'er Buck" and their answers was the same. Today special trains from Spokane, Dayton and Walla Walla, the west end and Pilot Rock have all brought in their hundreds, while the regular trains have been jammed to capacity with incoming pleasure lovers.

Accommodations for All.

The accommodation headquarters have been assaulted by hundreds in search of rooms and all have been sent away with little slips of paper directing them to residences about the city. The young men in charge of the headquarters have their work down in a systematic manner and are handling the besiegers with remarkable rapidity.

Ever since 9 o'clock this morning innumerable automobiles have been dashing to and from the grounds with passengers bent on getting a glimpse of the stadium wherein the three days of excitement is to be held. Although the gates were not opened until noon long before that time a big crowd had congregated at the entrance to be the first to rush for the choice bleacher seats.

Big Parade Saturday.

There was no parade to the ground this afternoon except that of mounted ladies who formed at the courthouse at 12:30 and rode to the stadium.

The Westward Ho parade will not take place until Saturday at 10 o'clock. Forming on extreme West Alta street, the line of parade will lead east on Alta to Main, north on Main to Court, east on Court to Mill, north on Mill to Lewis, west on Lewis to Main, south on Main to Bluff, where it will break ranks.

ASSAULT ON SCHOOL TEACHER ROBS HOTEL

Snowflake, Man., Sept. 14.—The first gun play in the man hunt for the assailant of Miss Price came this morning when William Adams, proprietor of the Weston hotel, was shot in the leg by a man who broke into his hotel and took liquor. It is believed it is Wilson, for whom passes are hunting. The man took only food and liquor. A posse was sent out immediately after the man escaped.
