Rain Stops Game

Portland, Sept. 16.—With the score 1 to 0 in favor of Portland the Vernon-Portland game was called yesterday in the first half of the third inning on account of rain.

Oakland 10; Frisco 4

San Francisco, Sept. 16.—San Francisco made six hits and six errors in yesterday's game and was defeated by Oakland 10 to 4. Suter blew up in the fourth and was replaced by Melkie after he had made a wild throw to first which landed Tiedeman at second on a sacrifice. Seven runs and six hits were secured from Melkie in four innings, and Noyes pitched the last chapter of the tragedy. In the fifth Oakland made four runs on one hit. Score:

Team	R.	H.	E.
Oakland	10	11	2
San Francisco	4	6	6

Batteries—Pernell and Peares; Suter, Melkie, Noyes and Bery

21-Inning Tie

Los Angeles, Sept. 16.—For 21 innings the Senators and Angels battled in a no-decision contest at Washington park yesterday, darkness ending the game. The score was 4 to 4.

Spiker Baum, Sacramento's elongated twirler, and Halla, the Angels recruit, were the principals in the grueling pitcher's contest. With both improving as the game advanced all records would probably have been broken had not darkness intervened.

With four hits in the first inning, Los Angeles to all appearances, had the game won until the third, when Sacramento made two. In that inning the Angels also made one and this lead they maintained until the eighth when Sacramento with three drives tied the score. At no time thereafter did either side get anywhere near the home plate.

Baum pitched the last 18 innings without a run being scored, an equivalent to two full games. From the eighth to the seventeenth, he did not allow a safe hit, which lacks one inning of being a no-hit, no-run game in itself. Halla retired the last 12 men that faced him in one, two three order. The score:

Team	R.	H.	E.
Los Angeles	4	10	0
Sacramento	4	14	2

Batteries—Halla and Smith; Baum and Thomas

Flynn Beats "White Hope"

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, fought a winning battle of ten terrific rounds last night with Carl Morris, the gigantic heavyweight of Oklahoma. At the end, the Oklahoma man's face was battered to a pulp, while Flynn was unmarked save for a lump over the left eye.

As a possible "white hope" for the championship recognition, Morris is a failure. He had nearly 50 pounds in weight and five inches in height advantage over the Pueblo man, but failed to daze Flynn at any stage.

"TAINTED MONEY" TERM ORIGINATOR RESIGNS

Columbus, Ohio, Pastor Who Refused Rockefeller Contribution and Colored Famous Phrase Relinquishes Post.

Columbus, Ohio.—In a letter addressed to his congregation, Dr. Washington Gladden, pastor of the First Congregational church here, who refused a contribution by John D. Rockefeller, declaring the millionaire's money was "tainted," relinquishes leadership in his church to his associate pastor, the Rev. C. L. Patton. Dr. Gladden gives as his reason for retiring that members of his congregation are absenting themselves from Sunday services, and that he believes a younger man would be more able to bring them back to the empty seats.

"I do not attribute the absence of church members in many cases to disaffection. In most cases I believe it is simply a lack of interest. For some reason they have formed the habit of neglecting church. Some of them devote their Sundays to pleasure; the ways of Sunday diversion have been multiplying of late. The fact that this is taking place everywhere does not comfort me; this is the alarming thing."

With this statement Dr. Gladden submitted the letter to his congregation.

He makes a personal appeal, which he says is his last, to the members of his church to come back and fill the seats. Dr. Gladden points to the fact that he is advancing in years and believes that a younger man may be able to accomplish that which seems impossible for him to do.

HONOR INDIAN CHIEF BY MARKING GRAVE

Spokane, Wash.—Arrangements have been completed by the Indian department to honor the memory of Chief Sarsarpink, at one time accepted as hereditary head of the Okanogan Indians on the west side of the Okanogan river in north central Washington, by marking his grave at Loomis, Wash., with an enormous boulder, the ceremonies taking place in October. Judge William C. Brown of Okanogan, has been selected by the government officials to deliver the principal address. The boulder will bear the chieftain's name and the copper plate riveted to its side is to be inscribed with a quotation from "Hawatha." Sarsarpink was one of the four chieftains who accompanied General Miles to Washington, D. C., in 1884, when the various treaties were signed. The others were Chiefs Joseph, Tonasket and Lott. Sarsarpink, who was killed by an unruly horse near Loomis in 1890, was the owner of four sections of land in the Sinalahking valley, where each member of his tribe also was allotted 640 acres by the terms of the treaty with the government.

SALEM MAYOR IS ENJOINED BY COURT

Threat to Tear Up Electric Line on Front Street is Basis of Suit.

Salem, Ore.—In a complaint filed in the Marion county circuit court by Pogue & Slater, representatives of the Portland, Eugene Eastern Railroad, against the mayor of Salem, Louis Lachmund, and the Oregon Electric Railroad Company and its agents here, it is alleged that the mayor has openly declared that unless the plaintiff company consents to grant the Oregon Electric company the privilege of operating cars on plaintiff's track on Front street, that tracks will be torn up by an order of the city council. Judge Galloway examined the complaint last evening and issued a restraining order which prevents the tampering with the plaintiff's property on Front street until further orders from the court.

Recently the city council granted the plaintiff a franchise to operate a railroad on Front street. It is now alleged by the plaintiffs that the mayor, in company with the Oregon Electric company, has conspired to wrongfully influence and persuade the city council to annul the franchise.

LYNCHING STOPPED BY PEACE OFFICER

Salem, Ore.—According to Sheriff Minto, J. L. Mattox, a hoppecker formerly working in the Al Feller yard near Woodburn, narrowly escaped being lynched Sunday afternoon by an infuriated mob, who charged him with attacking a woman in the yard last Saturday. C. M. Crittendon, justice of the peace at Woodburn, received a telephone call Sunday afternoon advising him that an man was on the verge of being hanged by hoppecker. When the officer arrived at the Feller yard, he found Mattox in the hands of a mob of forty or more hoppeckers, who were, it is alleged by Mattox, intending to string him up, while women urged the mob to proceed with the hanging. With the assistance of a deputy, Justice Crittendon succeeded in getting Mattox away from the crowd and the man was brought to Salem and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Minto is today investigating the affair.

HAD BEEN DOCTORING A YEAR FOR ECZEMA

A Remarkable and Convincing Statement of the Success of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the Treatment of the Pain, Itching and Burning of Eczema

"I, the undersigned, cannot give enough praise to the Cuticura Remedies. I had been doctoring for at least a year for eczema on my foot. I had tried doctor after doctor all to no avail. When a young girl I sprained my ankle three different times, paying little or no attention to it, when five years ago a small spot showed upon my left ankle. I was worried and sent for a doctor. He said it was eczema. He drew a small hole from the ankle about the size of a match and about an inch long. The small hole grew to about the size of an apple and the eczema spread to the knee. The doctors never could heal the hole in the ankle. The whole foot ran water all the time.

"My husband and my sons were up night and day wheeling me from one room to another in the hope of giving me some relief. I would sit for hours at a time in front of the fireplace hoping for daybreak. The pain was so intense I was almost crazy. In fact, I would lose my reason for hours at a time. One day a friend of mine dropped in to see me. No more had she glanced at my foot than she exclaimed, 'Mrs. Finnegan, why in the world don't you try the Cuticura Remedies?' Being disgusted with the doctors and their medicines, and not being able to sleep at all, I decided to give the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment a trial. After using them three days that night I slept as sound as a silver dollar for eight long hours. I awoke in the morning with but very little pain. In fact, I thought I was in heaven. After using the Cuticura Remedies for three months I was perfectly restored to health, thanks to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I will be sixty-four years of age my next birthday, hale and hearty at present. (Signed) Mrs. Julia Finnegan, 2254 Hubert St., St. Louis, Mo., Mar. 7, 11.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 12A, Boston, for free sample of each with 32-p. book on the skin.
