AT THE OREGON THEATRE

Three hours of laughter, interspersed with ravishing melody, is only one of the many delights provided by the latest musical sensation, "The Sunny Side of Broadway."

This delightful combination of comedy and music is from the pen of Mr. Boyle Woolfolk, whose recent offering "A Winning Miss" has just closed a successful season, which has brought its author into the spotlight of "The Musical Comedy World."

When this comedy is presented here on Saturday, September 23, at the newly remodeled Oregon theater, by Mr. Boyle Woolfolk, it will be offered by a cast of exceptional artists, foremost of whom is Mr. Max Bloom, whose phenomenal success in "A Winning Miss" will long be remembered.

In support of Mr. Bloom is Miss Alice Sher, comedienne, Miss Florence Morrison, prima donna, Mr. J. E. Coughlin, Mr. Jack Leslie, Mr. John Gilmore and Mr. Craig Poylston.

The comedy is full of mirth and repartee with fine music, among the popular numbers being "My New Motor Boat," "Beware of the Garden of Love," "College Days," "The Pizazz Plant," "Every Town Has a Broadway," "Mr. Moon, You're Full Tonight," "Meet Me at the Stage Door," "Johnnie," "Christa," "Selling Papers" and many more.

The dances of the Ponia Ballet is a special feature.

On account of the stores remaining open the curtain will rise at 9 o'clock sharp.

U. S. TO BUILD LEGATION.

Government to Provide Homes for Ambassadors and Ministers.

Washington.—The Ambassadors and Ministers of the American diplomatic service have been instructed by the State Department to submit estimates for the construction or purchase by the United States of homes for them in every foreign capital of the world.

This is in accordance with authority recently granted by congress providing for government owned embassies and legations in order to relieve the diplomats of the enormous expense of rent, an item that in some cases equals or exceeds their salaries. Congress limited the cost of any embassy or legation to $150,000. State department officials believe that this will be inadequate to afford abode in keeping with the dignity of the nation, especially in the larger capitals, where, it is believed, an appropriation of $250,000 or $300,000 will be needed.

With the $150,000 limitation, it is thought, the policy of erecting or purchasing buildings can be inaugurated in some of the small Central or South American countries. The estimates will be submitted to congress at its next session.

CHALLENGES PIANIST TO MUSICAL COMBAT

Chicagoan Would Beat Record of Man Who Played for 30 Straight Hours.

New York.—James Welsh, the musical marathoner, is tuning up for another race.

Last Easter Welsh walloped the piano at the Rising Sun Social Club, 3237 Germantown avenue, for over thirty consecutive hours. Thereby Welsh won the long-distance musical championship.

Now comes a fellow from out of the West, one Lawrence Ryan of Chicago, who is also long-winded on the keyboard. He wants to fight Welsh a duel of music.

Welsh says he'll leave the fellow fro Chicago so far behind that he won't be able to overtake him with three comic opera scores and a Hungarian rhapsody. And the Rising Sun Social regulars are backing their king of the ivories.

TWO MEN HAVE CLOSE CALL WITH THREE BEARS

Couple of Animals Killed With Bullets and Knife; Other Goes Over Precipice.

Doyle, Calif.—Captain Dewitt, one of Lassen county's prosperous farmers, in company with W. C. Clark, while hunting about ten miles from Doyle station, unexpectedly came upon three grizzly bears while crawling through the brush.

The largest bear, mouth open, advanced erect upon the men and the other animals followed likewise.

Dewitt aimed at the foremost animal towering some eight feet upright but only wounded it. The three men ran, with the animals after them. The thick brush hampered the animals and both men fired simultaneously seventy feet away. The shots brought two of the beasts to a stand, one dead and the others, wounded.

A battle followed near the top of a precipice, where one bear, fell to the bottom, some 200 feet, and the last was dispatched with a knife in the hands of Clark.

GOES TO FAIR IN STATE.

Farmer Takes Family for an Outing Behind 96 Oxen.

Middletown, Conn.—John Cavanaugh, a farmer, decided to take his family to the Grange Fair at Haddam Neck in style. He owns ten yoke of oxen himself and by borrowing from his neighbors collected forty-eight yoke, or ninety-six oxen. With these attached to a gayly decorated car he made the trip, covering the distance of about twenty miles in five hours. The services of twelve drivers were needed to guide the animals.

On his arrival at the fair grounds Cavanaugh found that he and his cattle attracted more attention than any other exhibit.

Cavanaugh's family of nine youngsters enjoyed the trip very much. His wife said afterward that the only disagreeable feature was the dust kicked up by the animals.

CLOUDBURST KILLS TWO.

Pittsburg.—In a cloudburst and storm that swept over Western Pennsylvania, Mrs. Rebecca J. Hinkle, fifty-nine years old, lost her life when the Seeds building at Tyrone was swept away by the flood that followed the storm.

John Souder was drowned near the same place while trying to save his stock when water got to his barn. Ten persons were shocked when a bolt of lightning struck the barn of George Young at Belmont where they had stopped for shelter from the storm.

SEEKS GUARDIAN FOR THE LAST OF YANA TRIBE.

Long Survivor of Once Powerful Race of Red Men Captured.

Washington.—Uncle Sam is figuring on what he shall do with the lone survivor of the Yana tribe of Indians who was captured near Oroville, Cal., recently. A report was received from Charles L. Davis, one of the agents of the bureau, in which he recommended that the lone Yana be cared for by some member of an allied tribe. This, it was stated, probably would be the course adopted.

"After a year or two," said Mr. Davis, "the doubtless would be able to look after himself, become a member of the band and live as they do."

Mr. Davis reported that the Indian was being well treated by the University of California authorities, who now have him in charge.

The lone Yana, Mr. Davis believes, is the last of a group of four or five Indians who for years past had lived in the practically inaccessible haunts of canyons along the Feather river.

Several years ago a party of surveyors, the report add, evidently drove them from their seclusion, and in the attempt to find another hiding place all of them perished except the old man taken a few days ago. He is an expert, Mr. Davis says "in imitating the calls of wild animals, showing he has preserved the wiles of the savage to allure wild game to him."

The Yana tribe, according to Indian bureau records, always was a small tribe and of a distinct linguistic family. In 1864 neighboring California miners, annoyed at some depredations, massacred all but fifty of the tribe, massacred all but fifty of the whole tribe, which then numbered about 3000. In 1902 only six or seven remained.
