

CATTLE MARKET IS GOING DOWN

LOSES TWENTY-FIVE CENTS DURING LAST TWO DAYS.

Portland Hog Market Holds Steady Despite Decline Elsewhere—Prices on Sheep Steady—Trade Slow—Wheat Promises Improvement.

(From Tuesday's issue.)
The cattle market has lost fully 25c within the two days of the present week and it would take something better than has been recently offered—to bring extreme quotations of today.

The fact is that all of the leading killers are overfull of cattle and for that reason are not desirous of purchasing additional supplies, even if lower prices are accepted.

It is stated that one local meat company alone has about 1800 head of cattle on hand available for killing at this time, and the smaller butchers are filled accordingly.

While there have been sales of cattle made at rather high figures recently, the quotations given out have been misleading, inasmuch as they did not show the heavy cuts that buyers made when the stock was taken in. When the cuts on each lot are figured, the transactions are made about 25c lower than the published figures.

Montana Feeders Coming.

A large per cent of the cattle that have come in this direction from Montana recently could not be placed in the beef class at all. Only a mere fraction of the arrivals were of good quality, the rest being too poor for immediate slaughter. Additional supplies of this quality are expected from Montana during the next week or so.

Considering the fact that this outside stuff was of feeder quality, the prices obtained at North Portland have been far more favorable than would have been secured at South Omaha or other competing centers.

Cattle Shippers: Walker Grover, of Robnetto, Ore., 1 load calves, 2 loads cattle; S. C. Oxman, Robnetto, 5 loads; R. E. Went, Ontario, Ore., 1 load; Kennedy & Driver drove in 78 head; J. C. Warner, Harrisburg, Ore., 1 load.

At South Omaha there was a steady to strong tone in the cattle trade with prices 10c higher. Top steers sold there today at $7.85 and best cows and heifers at $5.65.

At Chicago cattle were slow today with no change in prices.

Hog Market Is Holding.

Latest sales made in the hog market at North Portland show no effort of the local trade to follow more closely the declines made at the middle west competing centers. While there was a loss at Missouri river sections during the past 24 hours, the market here held its own with only a nominal lot of swine offering.

C. Cooper was the only shipper of hogs to the North Portland yards during the past 24 hours. He had a load in from Condon.

GIRL WHO WAS PRIZE BEAUTY DIES PAUPER

Voted World's Feminine Gem When but Eighteen; Succumbs to White Plague.

Bellefontaine, O.—Nellie Helmick, the Ohio girl who in 1893 was voted the most beautiful in the world, and who had been living alone and in want, is dead. The news reached friends here.

At the world's fair in Chicago Miss Helmick, then 18, was selected as the representative of America in the International beauty congress, and there won the prize as the most beautiful type of woman in the world. Belated news reached friends here that she had died in the New York City hospital August 16 of consumption. She was friendless and alone until shortly before her death, when her aunt, Mrs. Anna Helmick Costenbush of Carthage, Mo., arrived at her bedside.

Nellie Helmick was an Urbana, O., girl. She was educated in the public schools there and once was the belle of this section of Ohio, known far and wide because of her surpassing beauty of face and figure. She was twice married, both of her husbands being named Grant.

At Chicago sheep and lambs were steady with prices stationary.

CARNEGIE SENDS TAFT GOLF STICKS FROM SCOTLAND

Beverly, Mass.—President Taft has a new set of golf sticks. They are from Andy Carnegie and reached Beverly straight from Skibo castle, with the brand of the Scotchman who made them in Darnoch, Mr. Carnegie's home, still fresh on the wooden heads of the driver and brassie. J. G. Schmidtapp of Cincinnati, a friend of the president who just returned from Europe, brought them over. The president did not know today when he will get a chance to use the sticks, but the driver already has been nicknamed "Peace." The president hopes real Scotch clubs may improve his game, which has not been up to last year's mark since he has been playing at Myopia.

URNS TO FAITH HEALER.

Former Chicagoan Leaves Pulpit in St. Louis and Tells His Reasons.

St. Louis, Mo.—The Rev. Frank N. Riale, pastor of the Grace Presbyterian church, whose opinion that the power of healing given the disciples of Christ was bequeathed to all who have faith, expressed before the Ministers' association, raised considerable comment and discussion, preached his farewell sermon at that church.

Mr. Riale, in a paper read before the Presbyterian association of Ministers and in articles written for church publications, has expressed the view that ministers of today neglect one of the three greatest functions given them by Christ, that of healing. The others were the conferring of the Holy Ghost and the forgiving of sins.

A belief in a confessional was declared by Mr. Riale.

He said no disease or illness was beyond the power and that he had known of cancers, consumption and diseases pronounced incurable to have yielded to such treatment as the laying on of hands, as in the days of the disciples.

Mr. Riale further expressed the conviction that ministers should consider the department of healing as a regular one in the church machinery.

Mr. Riale declared he had several calls under consideration and is not ready to announce his choice. He came to St. Louis from Chicago.

He was educated at Harvard. He has been pastor of Grace church for three years.
