

LIVESTOCK TRADE GENERALLY STEADY

EFFECT OF RECENT DROP IN CATTLE STILL FELT

Packers Well Supplied But Able to Take Up Bargain Staff—Hog Market Stationary With Prices Unchanged—Sheep Firm.

(From Wednesday's Journal.) There was a generally steady tone in the livestock trade at North Portland today. The lowest price recently for cattle has left the trade in a position where packers can take hold even though their present requirements are limited.

While there was a deal in 26 head of steers late yesterday afternoon at $5.65, the general market for good stuff is considered no higher than $5.50. The lot that brought the extreme top was of very select quality, and stretched the market to its utmost. The animals averaged 1091 pounds. According to the seller of the lot, the market would scarcely reach that figure for regular offerings.

"MEET ME AT THE STAGE DOOR, JOHNNIE"

Girls Who Render Song Hit in "Sun by Side of Broadway" at the Oregon Theatre Saturday Night.

There was quite a fair run of cattle in the yards today. A total of 437 head appeared, 10 loads of these being from Molton, Wash., being sent forward by one shipper.
Packers Well Supplied. There is no denying the fact that packers are well supplied with cattle at this time, steers in their feed lots predominating. While there has been an extreme shortage in the offerings of cows up to the past few days, rather liberal lots have come forward during that period and the trade's wants have been more thoroughly taken care of. The demand continues best for cows and bulls, and these are bringing better prices proportionally than for steers.

One of the leading commission merchants today denied the statement that a large per cent of the cattle arrivals from Montana were of the feeder class. He says that the offerings as a rule are about as good as anything that has come forward from the local territory recently.
At South Omaha today there was a stronger tone in the cattle trade with prices 5 to 10 cents higher. Top steers were quoted at $7.75 and best cows and heifers at $5.80.
At Chicago the cattle market was weaker and prices lost the amount of the gain at South Omaha.

high as $8 in the North Portland yards, notwithstanding the weakness and lower prices elsewhere of the lots coming from California brought the top quotation. Those bringing less were inferior, sales being due to the lack of quality and not to any market influence.
The run of hogs at North Portland over night was 584 head and four loads of these came from California.
At South Omaha there was a weaker tone in the swine trade with prices 5 to 10c lower, tops selling at $6.80. This means $7.90 to land at the Pacific coast points.
At Chicago the hog trade was steady with a run of 19,000 head compared with 18,000 a year ago. Tops sold there today at $7.25.

A WORD TO CITY'S HOME HOLDERS

No greater test has come to a city than that that confronted Pendleton during the "Round-Up." The words of commendation in the press of the Northwest were well deserved by the people of Pendleton. Think of a city of five thousand caring so well for twice that number of visitors. The people of Pendleton, standing back of the Accommodation Committee made that splendid showing.
It was not a money-making scheme in the least, the recompense being out of proportion to the trouble and inconvenience incurred. Pride of city earnest desire to overcome every obstacle, no matter how stupendous, contributed to make the finest showing ever made under like circumstances.

The Accommodation Committee wishes to extend its sincere thanks and gratitude for the co-operation so ably and willingly given to it by the people of Pendleton. Mere words are hardly sufficient to convey the deep sense of obligation that the Committee owes to the openhearted, patriotic citizenship of Pendleton.
No one thing will contribute to the success of the splendid exhibition as will the feeling that Pendleton can rise to the occasion. The general and widespread content and satisfaction that pervaded the immense number of visitors insures the future success. To every person in Pendleton who assisted us directly or indirectly we offer our deepest thanks.

APPLE SHOW ATTRACTS NATION TO N. W. ORCHARDS.
Spokane, Wash., Sept. 21.—Enumerating the tangible results of the National Apple show in Spokane during the last three years, E. F. Cartier, Van Dassel, chairman of the board of trustees of the National Apple Show, Inc., said today among other things: "Continued-wide attention has been attracted to the orchard districts of the Pacific slope and intermountain country and with that there have been practical lessons for growers and prospective settlers in the fruit belts, undisputable proof of the fortunes taken from the soil and the opening for home-building purposes of thousands of acres of land that at one time was thought to be worthless for horticultural purposes."
"The fourth annual show, announced for the week of November 23, when $20,000 in prizes, trophies and premiums in kind will be awarded to successful contestants, gives every promise of being even a larger and more attractive exposition than any of its predecessors. In connection with the show there will be a series of carnival features by the Mystic Order of Enakops, which has a fund of more than $17,000, to be expended on street pageants, electric displays, industrial parades, concerts by bands from many parts of the Northwest and the Marat Gras festival the night of November 29.

FOLKS PAST FIFTY MUST USE CASCARETS
What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze you.
Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.
So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect their bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.
Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.
