BROTHERS FLOG A SUITOR,

Southern Woman Dies of Shock as Result of Family Row.

Atlanta, Ga.—Because Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Holstein could not break up their daughter's engagement and prevent her marriage to Columbus Spradley, A. L., R. H. Sidney and T. C. Holstein and Robert Cockrell are in Alken county jail.

Mrs. Ben Spradley is dead from nervous fright. Ben Spradley is not expected to recover from the effects of a merciless flogging and Columbus Spradley is missing.

Both families are fairly well-to-do and prominent in the section.

When the parents of the young lady found that they could not break up the love match, members of the Holstein family went to the Spradley home and calling Columbus Spradley from the house took him to a field and flogged him unmercifully, telling him meanwhile that he would have to leave the community.

Ben Spradley followed the Holsteins and Cockrell to the field and when he attempted to interfere was so severely flogged physicians believe he has little chance of recovery.

Mrs. Spradley, the mother of a 5-week-old baby, hearing the screams of the flogged man and seeing the flogging, succumbed to nervous fright. She was found dead the following morning.

Whatever happened to Doc Cook while up north, he didn't lose his "gall."

Well Known Cab Driver Arrested.
Monroe Jarvis, the well known cab driver of the city, was last night arrested by Patrolman Myers for violating the ordinance prohibiting the standing of vehicles on the main streets of the city. A warrant was made out against him and he pleaded not guilty to the charge and will be tried in the police court this afternoon.

Police Judge Fitz Gerald this morning had a sextette of drunks brought before him and all of the convicts entered pleas of guilty. Molem Bell, George Kelly, John Skehan, Robert Johnson and Dan Mileny all took three days in jail as a result of being without the necessary license to liquidate their fines while C. K. Blanchet gained his liberty by turning over $5 to the city.

Foreigners Fight and Pay.
Nick Papis and John Rosamos, two foreigners, became involved in a dispute yesterday afternoon which resulted in a pugilistic encounter. Both were arrested and brought into police court. Because he was unfortunate enough to be the aggressor and the least to suffer, the former was required to pay a $10 fine, while the latter got off by paying a $1 note.

Alleges Wife Is Prostitute.
Jacob Kaufman has commenced suit against his wife, Pearl Kaufman, alleging that in December, 1908, she deserted him without cause or provocation and entered into a house of ill fame against his will and wishes. As a result of her action, he complains that he has suffered great mental anguish and has been made sick and sad and he, therefore, prays for a decree of divorce. The couple was married on Christmas, 1905, at Silverton, Ore., according to the complaint. Judge James A. Fee is attorney for the plaintiff.

Corley Improves at Sanitorium.
The East Oregonian is in receipt of a letter from E. V. Corley who recently entered the Modern Woodmen sanitorium for tuberculosis patients at Colorado Springs. He states that he is improving there but complains of the management of the institution. There are about 150 patients there now, he says, in all stages of the dread disease, some of whom are getting better and some growing worse. A man is not considered in good society there unless he is pronounced to have the "bug" as the tuberculosis germs are called and his popularity with the nurses varies with his temperature, Mr. Corley states.

Several Teachers Changed.
As the result of the addition of one more room at the Lincoln school and the resignation of Miss Florence Harris, there has been a change in the faculties of the different schools. Miss Mary Zurcher, who has had the sixth grade in the Hawthorne school, has taken the place made vacant by Miss Harris in the Lincoln school and Miss Anita Kirkpatrick of Weston, a graduate of the old Weston normal, and who has done post graduate work at the University of Washington, has been elected to Miss Zurcher's position. Mrs. Augusta Moule has been transferred from the Washington school to the Lincoln and Miss Elder from the Field school to the Washington school. Mrs. Mary Harvey has been named as principal of the Lincoln school.

Committee Meets.
Salem, Ore., Sept. 22.—A special meeting of the committee of the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which considered the charges preferred against Rev. John W. Parsons, former superintendent of Missions in Alaska, was held last night, three of the five members of the committee being present. The members of the committee absolutely declined to say what the meeting was for, or whether they will recommend that Parsons be tried when they report. Only one of the committee would make any comment whatever. This member declared that there is "nothing in the charges."

Fire Destroys Winery.
Fresno, Cal., Sept. 22.—Fire late yesterday afternoon destroyed the Eisen winery, located six miles east of this city, causing a loss of $150,000. The distilling and engine rooms were saved.
