Portland 15-2, Tacoma 9-2.

Tacoma, Sept. 25.—The local baseball season ended yesterday with the slaughter of the locals by Portland. The visitors won the first game 15 to 9, second being stopped in the fifth with a tie score in order to allow the visitors to catch a train.

Seattle, Sept. 25.—Vancouver and Seattle split even in yesterday's double header, the visitors winning the first game 6 to 3, and the locals the second 2 to 1. The first game was marked by hard and frequent hitting on both sides, while the second, which was called in the fifth because of darkness, was a tighter contest.

The $11,000 beauty Marquand opposed the $6500 Rubs Benton when the game started but Marquand was relieved by Witte after Cincinnati had gathered five runs off him and the score was tied at the end of the sixth. Witte allowed only three hits but as two of these were bunched in the seventh inning they were enough. Benton was hit hard but kept the hits well scattered and struck out nine men.

NEWS OF ATHLETES KNOWN IN PENDLETON

In speaking of the former Portland players who have assisted in putting the Cleveland team toward the top of the ladder in the American league race, the Journal has the following to say of an old time Pendleton diamond star:

George Stovall, the manager is well known in Oregon. In 1902, he came over from Seattle to pitch for the Pendleton team of the Inland Empire league, but was afterwards switched to first base, where he got his first start as an initial sacker. He played there for two seasons, and when Portland needed a first corner guardian in 1903, Stovall was tendered a contract and played about a dozen games before the season closed. Portland fans still remember his tremendous reach and his ability to stop the wild tosses hurled in his direction. Also, he could sting the ball. One day in a "bush" league game at La Grande, Stovall set an inland empire record for one homer, two three baggers and three two baggers in six times at the plate. He went from Portland to the Three-I league, where Cleveland picked him up and he has been with the Naps for the past six or seven years, always operating at first base. When Jim McGuire grew dependent over the losses of the Naps and resigned, Stovall's long service as a player was rewarded and he was made the manager. Immediately the Naps began to win and they moved from seventh place to third in two months. They won something like 21 out of 30 games, when the eastern fans began to notice them.

CAT "CAME BACK" RAPIDLY.

Travelled More Than Hundred Miles in Eight Days.
 Carlyle, Ill.—A Maltese kitten owned by Edward Giffel, chief clerk in the office of the Ohio Oil company, in this city, traveled more than a hundred miles in eight days in "coming home."

Before the oil boom in this city Mr. and Mrs. Giffel made their home nine miles north of Bridgeport, more than 100 miles east of Carlyle. A few weeks ago they removed to this city. Giffel brought the kitten with him, but it seemed dissatisfied and finally disappeared mysteriously.

Yesterday Giffel received a letter from the kitten's old home announcing its safe arrival there. Whether it made the trip on foot, in an automobile, or "bummed" its way in a railroad train is not known, but the fact has been established beyond a reasonable doubt that the "cat went back" in eight days.

MADE OVER BY A DIET.

Agod Man Nearly Dead Becomes Young by Careful Eating.
 Grand Junction, Colo.—Toothless, weakened in body and spirit and nearly 60 years old, J. W. Sawyer, in January, 1910, tried a diet of raw vegetables, cereals and fruits, and by not eating cooked food in any form is now the picture of health, strong as any young man and claims to have the best digestion in Grand Junction.

"I would not go back to the old diet under any consideration," said Sawyer. "In the last year and a half I have gained strength, energy and clearness of mind and my digestion is perfect."

Sawyer's menu consists of raw fruit corn, wheat, barley, rye, oats, honey, carrots, parsnips, radishes, cabbage, sweet potatoes, etc., all eaten raw and without salt and sugar. In place of meat he eats nuts, especially almonds and Spanish peanuts.

Donald Rader, of Medford, Oregon, who during the past summer was offered a handsome salary by the Boston Americans, to report at once, and who turned down the offer that he might participate in collegiate baseball, arrived in Eugene last night to enter the University of Oregon. The phenomenal playing of young Rader came under the notice of the western "scout" of the Boston team, who was in Medford during the summer months. Rader is said to be a fast clean fielder, heady baserunner, and leads them all with the willow. He will be a strong addition to the Varsity nine this coming spring. The young athlete is only 18 years of age, and besides his baseball record, gives promise as a basketball man.—Eugene Guard.

"Hunky" Shaw, who started the season of the Blue Mountain league with the Walla Walla team, is suffering again for his old habits, according to the following dispatch from San Francisco yesterday:

"Royal (Hunky) Shaw, utility man in the San Francisco baseball team, was suspended by Manager Danny Long after the game this afternoon. Shaw is accused of inefficiency and indifference. He came to the Seals from the Chicago White Sox two years ago. In today's game he played third base for five innings and was taken out of the game because of his indifferent playing."

Northwestern writers will persist in calling Coach Warner of Oregon University, "Glenn." The real Glenn Warner is a brother of the Oregon mento, whose given name answers to William Jay in the family gift of the Gideons. Glenn is about 10 years older than W. J., and has coached for several seasons at the Carlisle Indian school.

William Jay Warner, Oregon football expert, is an attorney at Hermiton. He married Miss Charlotte D. McElroy this summer at Pendleton.—Oregonian.

Tracey Baker, the Pendleton boy who signed up with the Boston Americans early in the season, has been turned over to the Victoria club, according to announcement made by Ban Johnson. Baker will likely report for spring practice next season with the Bees. He comes as part payment for Bill Goodman.—Portland Journal.

Joe Berger, who has made such a great record this year with Central in the Washington State league, is in Portland greeting old friends. Berger had a bad start last spring, but of late has been in grand form.—Portland Journal.

Hawley Bean, former Pendleton high school football star, is mentioned as a prominent candidate for a backfield position on the Oregon team of Oregon team in a dispatch from that institution in the Oregonian, while his old teammate, Dude Devine, bids fair to be in the line of the University of Washington eleven.

DREAM LEADS TO ARREST.
 Chief Merely Has to Penetrate Alias to Find Fugitive.
 Columbus, Ind.—On the strength of a dream, Chief of Police Stanley J. Cooper of this city arrested Rufus Edwards at Eaton.

One night recently Cooper dreamed Rufus Smith was wanted for contributing to child delinquency in Delaware county. So impressed was he by the vision that he wrote to the chief of police of Muncie.

The chief of police of Eaton had informed the chief at Muncie that Rufus Edwards was wanted there on the charge mentioned. On investigation it was learned that Edwards had also been known as Smith, and he was arrested.

AUTHORITY NOT RESTORED TO WILEY

Through Housecleaning in Agricultural Department Is One Thing That Would Benefit Public From Pure Food Standpoint.

Washington, D. C., September 25.—President Taft's exoneration of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley carried with it many minds the impression that Wiley's authority has been restored. That is a mistake. Wiley remains a nonentity as far as the enforcement of the Pure Food Act is concerned.

As this fact becomes more generally known the popular approval of President Taft's action subsides, and evidence accumulates that the people are dissatisfied. His exoneration of Wiley had been discounted.

Even if the president contemplated dismissing Wiley at the instance of the high officials who sought his undoing, he might well have hesitated to do so in the face of the universal demand for his retention in office. But the president stopped with exoneration and left Wiley as helpless as the shorn and bound Sampson in the prison at Gaza.

Nothing has been done to date to change the conditions so graphically described before the Moss committee. The board of food and drug inspection continues in control of the administration of the pure food act. It still consists of Wiley, McCabe and Dunlap, and it is inconceivable that their relations will be more harmonious because of the failure of the scheme of McCabe and Dunlap to oust Wiley.

The latter testified that the vote was so often two to one against him that he generally refrained from voting and the public's inquiring whether there will continue to be a two to one vote in the future whenever a question arises between the interests of the doped-food manufacturers and the interests of the people.

Without a thorough housecleaning at the department of agriculture, the interests of the people will have profited little by the president's action and the most pertinent question now is whether there is to be a much-needed housecleaning and whether it will be undertaken by Secretary Wilson or his successor and how soon. The public demands that President Taft should go further and promptly and effectively unbind Dr. Wiley's hands.
