Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Knights Go To Portland. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Knight and son Ralph left on the noon train today for Portland where they will spend the winter.

Funeral of Mrs. Snell Tomorrow. The funeral of Mrs. George Snell of Walla Walla, sister of Joe H. Parkes of this city, will be held in Walla Walla tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Parkes left for the Garden City this afternoon and the judge will go over in the morning.

Want Boundaries Enlarged. Residents of the Meacham school district have presented a petition to the county boundary board asking that the boundaries of their district be enlarged to take in certain territory to the east and north which is at present not included in any district.

McCullough Denied Parole. Traversa McCullough, the young Echo boy who was sentenced to the penitentiary last week on a charge of stealing cattle and who presented a petition for parole will have to serve his sentence as a result of a denial of his petition this morning by Judge Phelps.

Suffering from Pleurisy. Two well known Pendleton people are confined to their homes with serious attacks of pleurisy. Mrs. Sam R. Thompson has been ill for several days and her condition became so bad yesterday that a nurse was secured to attend her. Mark Moorhouse, who suffered a collapse during the Round-Up, has been ill ever since with pleurisy but is now slowly recovering.

Blue Books for all Teachers. County School Superintendent Frank K. Wells has made arrangements with Secretary of State Ben W. Olcott by which every teacher in the county, and there are now nearly 200 of them, will secure a copy of the Oregon Blue Book which contains the names of all the state, district and county officers, the constitution of the state and much other information of special value to teachers.

One Solitary Drunk. The police court is getting down to its normal working basis along with other institutions whose activities were increased by the Round-Up delirium. This morning only one lone drunk was hauled before "his honor," this unfortunate being Clarence Davison who, as a result of his spree, will spend the next three days in durstane vile.

Chief Gurdane Takes Lay-Off. Chief of Police Tom B. Gurdane is not on the job this week and his place is being filled temporarily by Officer Ira Hughes. The strenuousness of the Round-Up made the chief long for a little peace and quiet and as a result his familiar figure has not been seen on the streets since Sunday. Just where he is, remains a secret but it is whispered that he is seeking to fill his gamebag with his trusty shotgun.

Local Boys Elected Officers. Eastern Oregon boys captured three out of the four offices in the freshman class election at the University of Oregon Monday, two of the chosen ones being from this city. Bert Jevard, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jevard and a graduate of Washington high school, Portland, was selected as treasurer and Dale Chessman, a graduate of the spring class of the Pendleton high school, was elected sergeant-at-arms. Leland Stanford Finch of Baker, was chosen president.

Union County Case in Court. The case of Behhoff vs. Treax, brought over the mountains from Union county, is being tried out in the circuit court today. The defendant some time ago attached 100 cords of wood belonging to the plaintiff and failed in his action. Now the plaintiff is suing for $100 damages because of an alleged depreciation in the value of the wood during the pendency of the first suit. The plaintiff is being represented by Attorneys John S. Hodgen of La Grande and Will M. Peterson of this city, while Attorney John Winter is counsel for the defendant.

CASTLE GIFT TO BRIDE. Emperor Franz-Josef Makes an Imperial Wedding Present. Vienna.—As a wedding gift for Princess Zitha of Parma, who is to marry Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, his grandnephew, Emperor Franz Josef has bought the ancient castle at Brandels.

The huge pile with its extensive grounds is a picturesque ruin, once the headquarters of the Bohemian Brethren, and stands in a conspicuous position in the ancient and historic Bohemian town of Brandels, thirteen miles northeast of Prague, on the banks of the River Elbe.

The castle will be restored, architecturally modernized in the interior and handsomely furnished. It is to be the country residence of the young people.

OIL WAR IN SCOTLAND. Rockefeller Trust Driving British Companies to the Wall. Glasgow.—Further developments in the oil trade threaten to make Scotland the scene of a keen struggle. The Standard Oil company has been developing with marked success its direct trade with retailers by means of road tank wagons. This has hit the Scottish oil companies and other importing concerns hard, with the result that the Homelight Oil company and the British Petroleum company are perfecting plans for covering Glasgow, Edinburgh and surrounding districts with a distributive organization similar to that of their opponents.

DRAINAGE COMPANY MEETS ASSESSOR

(Special Correspondence.) Stanfield, Ore., Sept. 27.—Directors F. A. Baker and E. N. Wheeler and Attorney A. W. Gray representing the Umatilla drainage board, are in Pendleton today in consultation with Assessor C. P. Strain and Surveyor Geary Kimbrell regarding the method of assessment to be adopted in the matter of the proposed drainage system at Stanfield. It is the desire of the board to get matters shaped up so as to be ready to begin work on the ditch at the earliest possible date. The seeming delay up to the present time has been unavoidable, it being necessary to properly advertise the proposed organization of the district and this, as well as other steps toward the desired result has required considerable time.

P. C. Holland and F. B. Swayze of Hermiston were Stanfield visitors yesterday.

J. L. Parker was transacting business in Umatilla Monday.

Mrs. R. H. Irvin returned Monday from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Burt, in Portland.

The population of our little city was increased yesterday morning by Mrs. W. F. Senechal presenting her husband with a bouncing baby girl.

Mrs. G. L. Dunning and daughter Eva, are visiting friends in North Yakima for a few days.

County Commissioner Horace Walker went to Pendleton on the motor this morning.

Mrs. Gibson was a motor passenger to Pendleton this morning.

BANKER TO STUDY THUMBS. Iowa Man Will Investigate Identification System in China.

Des Moines, Iowa.—G. D. Ellyson of this city has sold an interest in the Commercial bank and resigned as president to go to China to study thumb marks. Mr. Ellyson retires with an income of $10,000 a year and will devote the next few years to making himself an authority on identification.

During his experience as a bank official he has become proficient in the identification of handwriting, and has now become interested in the thumb mark identification, which he believes will be started in connection with the banking system of America.

The Chinese are said to be the most proficient people in the science of thumb mark identifications. Mr. Ellyson will leave for China this winter. He will visit other countries of Asia and Europe and study the methods of identification there.

CLUBS FRIEND TO DEATH. Wields Baseball Bat When Chum Refuses to Sit Down.

Carthersville, Mo.—Because he refused to obey his roommate's injunction to be seated on the front porch of a boarding-house, James W. Freese was clubbed to death with a baseball bat by Joseph Duke.

It is said the men had been drinking. They returned to their boarding house shortly after midnight. Duke sat down and Freese leaned against a porch column. When urged to sit down Freese remained standing. Duke obtained a baseball bat and clubbed Freese to death. Several persons saw the attack.

After killing his roommate, Duke hid in a nearby barn, where he was arrested on a charge of murder. He says he does not remember anything about the killing.

Duke is from Illinois and Freese's home is in Hollywood, Mo.
