WHEN WEST'S AWAY FELONS WON'T STAY

At Least That Is Governor's Suspicion About Runaway Convicts.
Salem, Or.—Governor West is elated over the success of the penitentiary authorities in capturing several of the runaway convicts. "We will get them all in time," said the governor, "and it won't cost a great deal of money, either, to bring them back to the prison. If you will notice every time I leave Salem for any length of time, something occurs at the prison. I don't know whether my presence here has any bearing upon the conduct of the prisoners or not, but every escape that has been made took place while I have been out of the city. I am glad the men who ran away the last time were located right under the noses of the prison authorities, as my policy is not injured under such circumstances."

When asked what he thought of the apprehension of Leon White, the first "honor man" turned loose by the governor and the first man to run away, Governor West said White was the man he desired to see caught most of any and was glad the unfaithful prisoner was now in a position where he can be made to suffer for his violation of confidence and pledges.

BADEN WAGES LOW AS COMPARED WITH AMERICAN

Washington—Low wages, compared with the American standard, are paid to railroad employes in Baden, according to a report by U. S. Consul S. H. Shunk, stationed at Mannheim, Germany. The average yearly wages of engineers are given as $767; firemen, $588; brakemen on freight trains, $442; switchmen, $339; passenger conductors, $725; and assistant brakemen, $470. The lowest wages, $305, are paid to assistant switchmen. The total number of officials in the railway system is 11,825 and of workmen 15,854.

The mileage of the state system is 1070 miles. In the last year 53,029,298 persons were carried 730,050,961 miles, with a good record as to accidents. There were 30 accidents last year; two passengers were killed and 31 injured, 22 employes were killed and 48 injured, and 11 others killed and six injured, making a total of 36 killed and 85 injured.

NO APPEAL FROM JUVENILE COURT

Remarried Mother Cannot Regain Child Declared to Be Orphan.
Salem, Ore.—An unusual ruling was made by Justice McBride, of the Supreme Court in the case of Anna Foster, appellant, vs. Hattie Meyers, petitioner for the custody of Loreta Hoag, respondent. Justice McBride holds there can be no appeal taken from a juvenile court in this state, as the constitution has made no provision for such an appeal. The appellant in the case, begun in Clackamas county, turned her minor daughter over to the authorities of that county because she could not support the child. After adjudging the child to be an orphan the juvenile court gave the respondent the custody of the charge. The appellant remarried and is now attempting to regain possession of the daughter, but the Supreme Court holds the juvenile court's judgment cannot be reversed, and consequently no appeal can be legally taken to the higher courts.
