LOCAL MINISTERS TO ATTEND SYNOD

To attend the annual state synod of the Presbyterian church, a delegation of nine ministers and elders from Umatilla county will leave Pendleton tomorrow for Portland. Though the synod will not commence until Thursday, the local presbytery is scheduled to meet in the First Presbyterian church at Portland, Wednesday, commencing Thursday the synod will continue through Sunday at the Mt. Tabor church.

The synod met last year at Pendleton in the midst of the wet vs. dry campaign and it will be remembered that the ministers from over the state had rather a stirring time here, on one occasion their street meeting being broken up by over-ripe eggs thrown by saloon partisans.

The following is the personnel of the Umatilla county delegation: Moderator W. M. Blaskney of Freewater, Rev. Frank J. Milnes of Pendleton, Rev. B. F. Harper of Milton, Rev. E. W. Warrington of Pilot Rock, Missionary J. N. Cornelison of Tutuilla, Rev. J. G. Dickson Indian pastor at Tutuilla, Elders J. W. Maloney of Pendleton, Philip Jones of Tutuilla and Scharrp of Pilot Rock.

"BRING A THIRST," ATLANTA MEN WIRE TO DELEGATES

Prohibition Measures in Georgia Will Be No Bar to Good Cheer.

Atlanta, Ga.—"Will it be necessary to bring our liquid sustenance with us?"

This is the question many members of the famous military organization of Chicago, Baltimore, Boston, New York, Philadelphia and other cities which will attend the peace celebration, are wiring to the directors of the love feast. The managers of the peace celebration have been wiring the answer:

"Just bring a thirst; we will provide liquid refreshments despite prohibition."

The solution is the locker club. The entertainment committee has arranged with several of the leading clubs of the city to furnish 6000 cards each, which will be given the visitors in order to quiet any fears of a lack of liquid cheer, which have been entertained by the soldiers, governors, mayors and other distinguished city.

These cards will give the visitors the privileges of the locker clubs and as these clubs are plentifully stocked with liquors no one need go thirsty.

Largest Realty Transaction.
The Portland Journal yesterday gives Pendleton the credit of having the largest realty transaction in the state outside of Portland last week. The transaction referred to was the transfer of the Schmidt property to Joe Basler and Gus La Fontaine.

Good Words from Hermiston.
The first knock is yet to be heard on the Pendleton Round-Up. For an affair that attracted the wide attention this unique celebration enjoyed, this is indeed an enviable record. The Northwest press gave wide publicity to the Round-Up and in not a single instance so far found after a careful search, has there been an adverse criticism of either the amusement features, the event as a whole, or the treatment of visitors by Pendleton people—Hermiston Herald.

Young Whitman College Journalist.
Lawrence Whitman is the most recent of Pendleton students at the University of Oregon to become identified with college activities. He has just been selected as news editor of the Oregon Emerald, the university semi-weekly publication. Whitman is a sophomore at the state institution. Peter Crockett, who is a classmate of Whitman, and who was leader of the Pendleton debating team that won the state championship two years ago, is mentioned in the Emerald as one of the first candidates for forensic honors to get into training.

Florence Roberts Pleased.
A large and representative audience greeted Florence Roberts and her associates in "Jim the Penman" at the local theater last night. The company is remarkably well balanced and the play was pleasing to those who witnessed it.

BOSTON BEAN IN DIRE PERIL.

Fighting for Life Against Onset of the Lowly Beef Stew.
Boston, Mass.—The bean is fighting the battle of a lifetime to keep its prestige as Boston's foremost food-stuff.

It received a solar plexus a short time ago when statistics were gathered showing that the output of macaroni was fast putting the Boston baked bean on the toboggan. Now another rival has hove in sight—the beef stew—and Miss Bertha Stevenson, Radcliffe graduate and proprietor of several restaurants in this city and Cambridge, stands sponsor for the new claimant for public favor.

TONG WAR IMPENDS ON SLAVE GIRL'S ACCOUNT

Two Chinese Societies Prepare for Executions; Police Arrest Two Gun Men.
San Francisco—In the arrest of Lee Wing and Chin Chow, two Chinese charged with carrying concealed weapons, there was brought to light an impending tong war in Chinatown between the Hop Sing and the Sin Sze Yings.

The police say they have been unable to get to the bottom of the affair. They have given it out that the trouble started over the possession of a Chinese slave girl. The two prisoners are both members of the Hop Sing tong. The Chinatown squad of policemen learned that war was impending between the two tongs. Unusual precautions were taken to stop any shooting. Patrolmen McPhee and Cummings concealed themselves in Waverly Place and awaited developments. They saw Lee Wing and Chin Chow acting in a suspicious manner. The policemen started to approach the Chinese, when the latter fled. The matter was continued in the police court.

QUAIL EAT OUT OF HANDS.

Covey Makes Daily Trips to Feeding Ground.
Columbus, Ind.—There is at least one covey of quail in Bartholomew county that seems to know that it is protected by law and for that reason is unafraid. The covey, which consists of about thirty birds, flies down in a feed yard here each evening feeds and flies away in the early morning. Some of the birds have become so tame they will eat from the hands of the men at the feed yards. No one has so far molested them.

GOES TO COURT PICK-A-BACK.

Laborer Suing Company for Broken Back Too Poor to Hire Horse.
Steuenville, O.—For six miles Frank Reika, a miner, rode to court on another's man back. He was not paying an election bet.

Reika had to go to court. He can't walk and has no horse, so a friend offered his brood back. Reika is suing the Glens Run Coal company for damages for injuries received while at work in one of the mines. His back was broken.

He heard the case was to be continued and road pick-a-back to court to object to the delay. He told the court he was without money to obtain proper surgical treatment and the court provided a horse and buggy for the trip home, and promised to get a physician for him.

FASTS; TRIES TO KILL WIFE.

Retired Baptist Minister Becomes Insane; Is Under Restraint.

Long Beach—A. L. Wyatt, who is believed to be a retired Baptist minister of Phoenix, Ariz., is in a sanitarium here, following a week of religious fasting, the climax of which was an alleged attempt to smother his wife to death.

The Wyatts came here recently and took a deep interest in open-air religious meetings. A week ago they began to fast and pray. Shricks brought the police to their apartments in time to save the life of Mrs. Wyatt, who also is in the sanitarium. Her husband became violent and still is in restraint.

CONSENT IS GIVEN BY DUAL RELATIVE TO WEDDING

Fulton, Mo.—In the dual capacity of father of one principal and stepfather of the other, Richard Reynolds of New Bloomfield, near here, gave the consent necessary to the issuance of a license, and made possible the marriage of Miss Myrtle S. Reynolds 13 years old, and James Leslie Joyce, 17. The marriage followed.

"Why do they call these dentists' offices dental parlors?" asked Smith of his friend.

"Why, parlor is the old-fashioned name for drawing-room."
