WE deal in A. B. Kirschbaum & Co. Clothes for these reasons:

Because Kirschbaum Clothes are the clothes sold by progressive merchants everywhere. And, more particularly, because the Kirschbaum standard of quality, tailoring, finish and style squares with our ideas of what we want to offer our most particular customers.

There is never any question about the fabric. A suit or an overcoat with the Kirschbaum Cherry Tree Brand label is as surely "All-Wool" as the coat on a sheep's back.

Kirschbaum tailoring is hand tailoring—shape and style are needle molded into the cloth by hand and will stay, insuring permanent good looks.

Prices, $15, $18, $20, $22, $25. The Kirschbaum Special $18 "True Blue," Heavy Weight Serge Suits are hand-tailored, fast-color, "top-style" clothes—a new suit for any that fades.

STANFIELD TEACHERS ENJOY A MUSICAL

CONTRACTORS INVESTIGATE DRAINAGE SYSTEM

Bids to be Opened October 25 and Many Bids Expected—Government Expert Collecting Data on Formations to Be Encountered.

(Special Correspondence.) Stanfield, Ore., Oct. 12.—On Wednesday evening an informal musical was given at the residence of Mrs. W. L. Dunning which was of the nature of a reception to the teachers of the Stanfield schools, all of whom were present. Violin solos were rendered by Prof. F. D. Carruth; piano duets by Misses Muriella Dunning and Helen Wheeler; piano solos by Miss Eva Dunning; vocal solos, Miss Minnie Baker, and Miss Orphie Dunning. Miss Applegate also entertained those present with pioneer reminiscences. J. W. Ruble of Wagoner, Oklahoma, was looking over this part of Oregon Tuesday.

Eschbach and Bruce, the well known contractors of North Yakima, were in Stanfield Wednesday securing data to enable them to figure on the contract for drainage system that is to be put in at this point. Bids are to be opened on the 25th and several contracting concerns have already signified a desire to submit bids.

Mrs. Claude Sloan of Echo, was here visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Sloan, the first of the week.

Mrs. F. E. Ubil of Umatilla, has been visiting Miss Attebury the present week.

Miss Minnie Baker spent last Sunday with her mother whose home is in Pendleton.

Surveyor Erickson, who is connected with the U. S. reclamation service at Hermiston, was out on the Furchick project Wednesday investigating the matter of placing some bridges across the U. S. R. S. feed canal.

Walter W. Weir of the United States drainage investigation department, with headquarters at North Yakima, returned to Stanfield Wednesday morning from Portland and is engaged in making tests of the formations that will have to be taken into consideration in the construction of the drainage ditch that is to be built here and so far has found ideal conditions for perfect drainage, the underlying gravel that will form the bottom of the ditch being just the proper thing for drainage.

Col. H. G. Newport, the well known resident of Hermiston, was in Stanfield Wednesday.

Rev. James E. Faucett went to Portland yesterday morning to attend the Synod of the Presbyterian church which is to be held this week in the church of this denomination at Mt. Tabor.

The public schools were closed yesterday in commemoration of the anniversary of the discovery of our country by Christopher Columbus.

PREACHER FINED AS FLIRT.

Kansas City Clergyman Awaiting Trial for Bigamy Arrested at Revival.

Kansas City, Mo.—Rev. Joseph Eugene Hansman, soon to be tried on a charge of bigamy, tried to flirt with Mrs. Hansman No. 3 at a revival meeting Sunday and was fined $100 in the South Side municipal court.

Mrs. Sarah Hansman, with four women of her acquaintance, attended revival services being held at Fourteenth and Campbell streets. Hansman, who has been out on bond for several weeks, also was at the religious services and hastened to the side of Mrs. Sarah, who is suing him for divorce, and has an injunction to prevent him from bothering her.

"He pinched my arm and squeezed my hand," Mrs. Hansman No. 3 told Judge E. F. Halstead. "Then he whispered, 'Oh, wouldn't this be a glorious meeting if we were conducting it!' But I up and told him that, to my notion, a man with three wives ain't fitted for the Lord's service."

Hansman took an appeal, relying on the point raised by his lawyer that a husband could not be prosecuted for "flirting" with his wife. Judge Halstead said that the peace of others than Mrs. Hansman was disturbed Sunday.

WESTON BABE DIES OF TYPHOID FEVER

MOTHER AND BROTHERS SUFFER FROM ATTACK

Basket Ball Team Being Selected from Ranks of High School Students—Fire in Barn Conquered With Aid of Fire Fighters.

(Special Correspondence.) Weston, Ore., Oct. 12.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Trajan Tucker died Tuesday morning after an attack of typhoid fever. The child's mother and his brothers and sisters are all confined to their beds with the same trouble. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon.

A bright baby-boy was born Wednesday, October 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fowery of Weston. Mother and baby are getting along fine.

Mr. Lane Lansdale, who has been employed at the Blue mountain saw mill during the summer has taken up work at the Weston high school.

Mrs. Rebecca Cully, a former resident of Weston, but who is now residing in Milton, is in Weston this week visiting her sons, Messrs. Charles and Sim Cully.

Jack Read was an Athena visitor during the week.

Sister Thomas of St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, is in Weston this week in the interest of that institution.

Dr. D. Lazier's father, who has been in Everett, Wash., for some time, is visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Glass of Seattle, is in Weston on business concerning the Coeur d'Alene mines.

Deputy Sheriff Blakely from Pendleton, is in Weston on a business trip.

Mrs. Cora Fetters and children left Wednesday to join her husband, who is in Fallon, Nevada.

Mrs. Bevin Banister of Athena, was in Weston during the week visiting Mrs. Mary Banister.

Great preparation is being made by members of the Weston high school to secure a good boys and girls basket ball team. The hall has been rented and practice will be held every evening from now on so that a strong team can be ready for work in a few weeks. Many games with the adjoining towns are expected.

Thursday, Miss Edith Garret and Miss Agnes MacKenzie spent the day in Athena.

A spark from the woodstack of Porter Graham's caused a fire in the barn of Marlon O'Harra's but by the efforts of several men and women it was promptly extinguished.

Victim Saves Assailant.

Wallace, Idaho.—William McGuire who recently assaulted John Steine with an ax at a North Fork timber camp, was probably saved from the penitentiary by the intercession of the victim. Following the efforts of the prosecuting witness the charge was changed from assault with intent to commit murder to battery and the sentence set for three months in jail and a fine.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

Woman Shoots Bobcat.

Sunnyside, Wash.—With only a pair of shining eyes to tell her where the animal was standing, Mrs. B. F. Ingraham a few nights ago shot a bobcat which measured three feet and eight inches from tip to tip. Mrs. Ingraham was staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Laforet, at Spring Valley.

Methodist Indians Built.

Lapwai, Idaho.—The Methodist Episcopal church South, composed entirely of Nez Perce Indians, is preparing to build. Two carloads of lumber are now on track at this station for the new structure. They have purchased three acres of ground adjoining the town, on which the church and parsonage will be built.

Jap Shoots White Man.

La Grande, Ore.—Harry Lee, a sign painter, is at the Grande Ronde hospital as a result of a shooting affray. Young Lee who has been in La Grande but a short time, had been paying attention to a young lady, and while they were walking met a man described as a Japanese at Third and Adams avenue, who at once opened fire on young Lee. Several shots were fired, though only two took effect, each between the hip and foot. Rumor has it that the Jap had been paying attention to the girl. The Jap, who has been employed in one of the hotels here, is missing.

Is Crushed Under Engine.

Pasco, Wash.—John Rowan, employed in the roundhouse of the Northern Pacific here, was injured suffering a broken leg, broken ribs, broken jaw and other injuries. He was under a Spokane, Portland & Seattle engine repairing when Engineer Hofaker appeared to take the engine out. Hofaker mounted the cab and opened up preparatory to pull out, not knowing that Rowan was still beneath the engine.

Thrown to Death by Horse.

Lebanon, Ore.—The dead body of B. F. Montgomery was found in the road between Selon and Stayton. The evening before while riding a horse in the dark along the road, the horse ran into a pile of wood, throwing him on his head and he received injuries from which he died. Coroner Fortmiller was notified and after an examination of the case found two bottles of whisky in his pockets. He has lived in the vicinity of Selon all his life, was about 30 years of age and single.

TO GET RID OF RHEUMATISM

If we suffer with Rheumatism and desire to get rid of it we must make up our minds to subject our systems to the proper course of treatment for a while. The only way to cure oneself of Rheumatism is to remove the cause—expel the irritating uric acid from the blood; every other method of treatment has proved a failure. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. This medicine goes down into the circulation, and expels every particle of the sour, inflammatory uric acid which is the one great cause of the disease. The cure can be greatly hastened with a little care and self denial by the patient. In the first place do not let anything interfere to prevent your taking S. S. S. regularly and according to directions; be guarded in your eating, because an attack of indigestion will always aggravate the symptoms of Rheumatism. Do not expose yourself to damp and inclement weather any more than is necessary. When S. S. S. has had time to rid the blood of the uric acid; then these little restrictions may be left off. This simple course has cured many thousands of cases of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

AT THE OREGON THEATRE

Rarely does a musical play contain anywhere near as many conspicuous ensemble and elaborately staged song hits as does "The Sweetest Girl in Paris," which will be seen at the newly remodelled Oregon theatre Saturday, October 14, with Trixie Friganza and the original cast and chorus that captivated Chicago during the seven months' run at the La Salle opera house last season. It costs a great deal of money—to say nothing of pains and inventive ingenuity—to make a musical comedy complete with bewitchingly-produced numbers, and that is why one or two novel effects are generally compelled to counter-balance numerous solos and duets, wherein the chorus is kept in the background. Not so, however, with "The Sweetest Girl in Paris," which contains at least a dozen elaborately staged songs to say nothing of a sufficient quota of clever individual hits in the way of vocal effort. First and foremost perhaps is Miss Friganza's "Don't Forget the Number," which is being whistled from coast to coast. During her inimitable rendition of this song, the lights suddenly go out for a second, and when they are switched on again the audience sees a full-sized representation of a street car occupying the center of the stage, from the windows of which pretty members of the chorus wave to the spectators. "Mary's Lamb" is another delightful number, in which lambs frisk playfully "on the green" tended by nimble footed shepherds. During this number appear the "ponies" that always create so much favorable comment. The entire staging of this number seems like a page lifted bodily from the childhood-beloved "Mother Goose," and sends the spectator's mind drifting irresistibly backward through the years to his or her own happy childhood when gambols such as seen on the stage were the gayest delight of existence. It isn't difficult to induce the other fellow to compromise when he realizes that you have the best of it.
