ALMOST A MIRACLE

My hair was as white as snow when I commenced using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. One bottle restored my hair to its natural dark brown color. As I am now 70 years old, I consider the result most remarkable. It is an agreeable and refreshing hair dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy, without being in the least greasy or sticky.

CATTLE MARKET SHOWS WEAKNESS

ALTHOUGH KILLERS DRAW ON THEIR RESERVE LOT

No Fancy Stuff Comes Forward—Steadiness Shown in Hog Market—Sheep and Lambs Weak, Despite Report of Seedy Situation.

(From Thursday's Journal.)

With packers drawing upon their supplies held in feed lots there is a weaker instead of firmer tone in the cattle trade at North Portland today.

While fancy stuff is not coming forward, sales of today indicate that the market may be considered a fraction lower than for similar goods recently.

Broadly speaking there is only a nominal demand for cattle at North Portland just now and shippers are taking many chances as buyers have to be induced to take hold by the offering of lower figures.

Receipts for the day were 178 head compared with 215 last Thursday.

At South Omaha the cattle trade was steady to strong, with top steers, $7.25@7.50, and best cows and heifers at $4.50@5.50.

North Portland cattle market range

Select steers	5.40
Fancy steers	5.25
Choice steers	5.00
Feeders	4.65
Common steers	4.00@4.25
Fancy heifers	5.00
Fancy cows	4.50
Feeder cows	3.25
Fancy bulls	3.00@4.00
Good ordinary bulls	2.00@2.50
Stags	4.50
Fancy light calves	2.00@2.25
Medium calves	5.50@6.50
Ordinary calves	4.00@5.00

Hog Market Steady. Steadiness was shown in the hog trade at North Portland this morning, with a run of 236 head for the day, compared with 155 yesterday, 38 Tuesday, 470 Monday and 843 head last Thursday.

Sales of top stuff were made at $7.50, although it is not likely that any considerable number could have been moved at this figure.

At South Omaha there was another twist in the sentiment of buyers in the swine trade, and prices held rather well. Tops sold there today at $6.35, which means $6.45 to land here. This, therefore, is 5c under the price in effect here. Another decline at North Portland may be the result as packers are getting most of their requirements at Missouri river points for less money.

Sentiment in the eastern provision trade as a general rule is bearish at this time. Traders in futures have been selling provisions freely recently. Shorts have been anxious to dispose of imaginary holdings, which would indicate that the belief is general that future hog prices will be lower this fall and winter.

North Portland hog market range: Best light hogs $7.50, Medium light 7.35@7.40, Good and heavy 6.75@7.00, Rough and heavy 6.00@6.25.

Hog shippers today: John J. End, Shearer, 1 load; S. W. William, Junction City, 1 load; Taylor & Cummings, Halsey, 1 load.

Sheep and Lambs Weak. Notwithstanding the reports being sent out by some interests, telling of a firm tone in the mutton trade, sheep and lamb values are weak and depressed at North Portland. There were no arrivals in that branch of the yard today, but the sales of yesterday would signify that the trade is still filled to overflowing and would only take further offerings at reduced values. When fancy Mount Adams lambs can bring no more than $4.00 the chances are that other lambs would not come within a quarter of this.

At South Omaha there was a run of 25,000 sheep and lambs today. Lambs went 15c lower while sheep were steady. Quotations were: Lambs $5.50@5.85; yearlings, $4.20@4.50; wethers, $3.75@4.10; ewes, 2.25@3.50.

Sheep prices today: Selected lambs 4.00, Choice lambs 3.75, Common lambs 3.00@3.25, Yearlings 3.50@3.75, Old wethers 3.25@3.40, Fancy ewes 2.75@3.00, Ordinary ewes 2.00@2.25.

Grain and Hay. Wheat—Producers' price: Track delivery club, 78@80c; bluestem, 82@83c; forty-fold, 80@81c; Willamette valley, 80c; red Russian, 78@79c; Turkey red, 80@81c.

Barley—Producers' prices—1911—Feed, $33.50; rolled, $35.00; brewing $36.00.

Oats—Producers' price—Track No. 1 white, $29.50; gray, $29. Millstuffs—Selling price—Bran, $25.00@25.50; middlings, $31.00; shorts, $26.00@26.50; chop, $19.00@25.00.

Hay—Producers' price—1911—crop—Valley timothy, fancy, $16; ordinary, $15; eastern Oregon, $17@17.50; mixed, $12; clover, $10; wheat $12; cheat, $12; alfalfa, $12@12.50; oats, $12.

GOBBLER SITS ON NEST.

Male Fowls Aims to Hatch Brood of Young Turkeys.

Evans, Colo.—Turkey gobblers have been known to care for motherless chicks, but a 3-year-old, handsome bronze gobbler on the George Jones farm near here is sitting on a nest of twenty eggs, and results are anxiously watched.

A short time ago Mrs. Jones discovered the gobbler nesting on seven turkey eggs. She attempted to chase him from the nest, but he fought her off. He continued to hold the place, and becoming convinced that the gobbler intended to raise a family, its owner decided it might as well be a large one and put thirteen more eggs under him.

It is said the gobbler is proving more faithful to his job than the average hen, seldom leaving the nest and then only for a minute at a time.

5 Strong Reasons for Fall Painting

- The wood is thoroughly dry. Summer's sun has removed all moisture.
- Paint penetrates deeper into dry wood. The deeper it goes the better it holds.
- Fall weather is warm, dry and dependable. Little danger of cold, damp, rainy days, which endanger the durability of the paint.
- Wet weather decays and destroys unprotected surfaces. Lack of paint means unsightly and less valuable property.
- Fall painting keeps out winter moisture. The greatest enemy to the life and beauty of all structures.
