ELKS PREPARE TO INVADE PORTLAND

BEGIN MAKING PLANS MANY MONTHS AHEAD

Two Hundred Members of Local Lodge Will Attend Convention of Grand Lodge—Annual Thanksgiving Ball Is Also Decided Upon.

The local herd of Elks is already planning to send a large representation to Portland next July to the annual national convention of the grand lodge. At the regular meeting last night, a committee consisting of Frank J. Quinn, Frank Saling and Lee D. Drake, was appointed to confer with the officials of the O. W. R. & N. company regarding transportation and accommodations. It is the present intention of lodge 258 to send 150 or 200 members to the grand lodge and plans are also being made for participation in the grand parade with the delegation dressed in full cowboy trappings, including purple chaps, and mounted on white horses. The undertaking is one of considerable magnitude and the committee appointed will ascertain immediately what steps must be taken to secure a special train to transport the men and stock to and from Portland and to insure them accommodations during their stay in the metropolis.

At last night's meeting it was also decided to follow the custom of giving an annual ball on Thanksgiving evening and Carl Cooley was chosen as chairman of the committee to make arrangements with authority to appoint his own assistants. He gave out his list this morning as follows: William Goedecke, music; Harry Norwood, decorations; Lee Drake, invitations; P. J. Quinlan, refreshments; George Strand, finances; J. B. Raley, reception.

SEES A RAT ROLL GRAPES.

Darbyite Declares This Creature to Be an Educated One.

Darby, Pa.—Disappointed that the best ratting cat in Delaware county has not yet caught the slicest rat in the county, Richard Purdy of Tenth and Main street says:

"I saw this particular rat come out of its hole, drag a large bunch of grapes from the table, and when it found that the bunch was too large to go through the hole it just sat up on its hind legs, pulled off a grape at a time and rolled them down the hole, after which it threw aside the stem and leaped in, a second too soon to catch a missile that I hurled at it. "I don't mind ordinary rats, but when they are college graduates and specialists in their line, I think it is time to call a turn."

INDIAN MAIL MAN CONFESSES.

Carrier Admits He Killed Forest Ranger on Minnesota Reservation.

Duluth, Minn.—Coming as a climax to a maze of conflicting charges, arrests on circumstantial evidence and releases, Tom Fisher, the Indian United States mail carrier, has cleared up the murder of William A. Brown, government forest ranger, on Nett Lake reservation, Aug. 8, by a complete confession of the killing.

Pleading self-defense, Fisher has given the authorities the true version of the affair, admitting that he killed the ranger with a blow from his rifle and admitting that with a knife he had slashed the body of the dead man.

While Sheriff Moising was passing his cell Fisher called him "My conscience has been troubling me," he said. "The trouble is getting worse." With that he related to Sheriff Moising the details of the reservation killing.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Mrs. Norton to Resume Classes.
Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton, well known Walla Walla instructor of voice, who has had classes in Pendleton for several winters, will resume her teaching here October 25. She was in this city Wednesday making her arrangements. She will open her season here with a free recital, the date to be announced later.

Many Men Working on Project.
The government has fully 200 men at work on its project at Horniston, according to E. P. Dodd, well known real estate man of that town, who is in the city today. These men are employed in lining several of the main canals with concrete and in constructing new ditches.

Painting Masonic Temple.
A force of painters is at work today on the Masonic Temple on the corner of Webb and Main streets in the lower story of which the Folsom furniture store and undertaking parlors is located and when they are through the building will present a slate blue exterior to the public.

Curtain Up at 9 O'clock.
Owing to tomorrow being Saturday and the evening a busy one in store circles the curtain at the Oregon theatre will not rise until 9 o'clock for "The Sweetest Girl in Paris." This announcement is made by Manager Mitchell who says the troupe in which Trilix Friganza is the star will arrive tomorrow forenoon.

Prominent Irrigationists Sued.
W. T. Shaw, well known pioneer irrigationist of the Milton-Freswater company, was today made defendant in a suit instituted by the Tierney-Tanor company for the collection of $1288.60 alleged to be due on two promissory notes overdue. $125 attorney fees is asked in addition. Peterson & Wilson are counsel for the plaintiff corporation.

Story Hours to Resume.
Miss Lotta Fleck, librarian at the public library, announces that the practice of holding a story hour each Saturday during the winter will resume tomorrow morning when Miss Leelle Evans will meet the children in the library rooms between the hours of 10 to 11. All children between the ages of 5 and 10 are invited to attend.

We Are Seven.

Seven petty offenders enrolled their names on the police court docket this morning, most of them being drunks picked up on Columbus day. John Kelly took three days in jail as penalty, while William Powers, John Mitchell, John Doe and Richard Roe each contributed five dollars to the city treasury. Dave Dalton and Patrick Sullivan were charged with vagrancy and sentence was suspended while they "beat it" out of town.

Today Is Hoodoo Day.

Today is one of the two bad luck days of the year by virtue of its being Friday and the 13th of the month. In January the 13th of the month also fell upon black Friday. With this combination against them the suspicious will hesitate before embarking upon any venture and night's welcome shades cannot come too quickly to banish the day of evil omen.

Zeuske Case Up Again.

The case of Emma Zeuske vs. August Zeuske, which has taken more or less of the time of the local court for the past three years, is again receiving attention today. This is the case in which the widow of Edward Zeuske is suing for certain timber land which she alleges the defendant father of her husband, gave to the latter before his death, but which was never legally transferred.

Takes Stoddard-Dayton Agency.

E. L. Smith & Co., agents for the Holt Combined Harvester, will hereafter handle automobiles as well as harvesters, a deal having been closed with C. Barrell, Jr., of Portland, representative of the Stoddard-Dayton Auto Co., whereby the local company is to have the agency for that well known car. Mr. Smith has himself purchased one of the machines and one has also been sold to Fred Walters of the Walters Milling company.

Round-up Pictures Here Thursday.

Messrs. W. H. Lytle and Clark Nelson, who have purchased the northwest rights to the Round-Up films, announced today that they will exhibit these sensational motion pictures at the Grand theater in this city next Thursday. They completed their arrangements yesterday and were assured that the films would be here in a day or so when they will be prepared for exhibition. By the arrangements made, it will not be necessary for George Harman and Mark Moorhouse to go to Seattle to assist in preparing the films.

Roulstone Funeral Tomorrow.

Funeral services over James J. Roulstone, who died following a stroke of apoplexy at his home, 1104 Race avenue, Tuesday night, will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning from the residence. Rev. Robert J. Eben, local missionary of the Presbyterian church in Portland, an old friend of the family, and Rev. E. M. Clingan of the local Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will be in the family plot in the city cemetery.—Walla Walla Union.

Alleges Husband Unfaithful.

In a suit which Almota Tinney has commenced against her husband, Clinton Tinney, for divorce, the plaintiff alleges in part as follows: that she and defendant intermarried at Carthage, Mo., Apr. 29, 1909, when she was but 16 years of age and that within a few months she had become so sick that she was forced to return to the home of her mother for attention; that defendant then began to consort with Blanch Loving, a woman of lewd and lascivious character, and refused to provide any means of support for his wife; and that finally on August 1, 1910, he deserted her. Wherefore she asks for a decree of divorce and her maiden name, Almota Dodson. Peterson & Wilson filed the suit for her.

Local Lot Sells.

By a deed filed today L. C. Rothrock and wife have sold to D. C. Knowlton lot 5 of block 288 Foser-vithin addition to Pendleton for $700. The property lies on West street above High.

Searching for Girl.

Postmaster J. T. Brown is in receipt of a letter from Miss Vera Nye of Elma Wash., in which she asks information regarding the whereabouts of Miss Ada May Nye. She is thought to be waiting upon the table in a hotel and the inquirer is anxious to locate her.

Injured Engineer Very Low.

Jack Wright, veteran engineer who had his feet amputated following an accident at the depot Wednesday afternoon, lies in a serious condition at St. Anthony's hospital this afternoon and grave fears are felt by those at his bedside. Yesterday he seemed to rally from the shock but today he has grown gradually worse and, while hope is not given up by physicians or anxious relatives, they know that death is making a hard fight to claim him.

MANY THOUSAND CATTLE AT ECHO

(Special Correspondence.)

Echo, Ore., Oct. 13.—Thousands of cattle are being brought here by the various alfalfa raisers for winter feeding. Among those who have already bought cattle are Jos. Cunha, C. E. Fish, J. B. Saylor, Joe Ramos, F. W. Andrews and Zoo Hausor. In previous years some of the finest beef on the Portland market has been alfalfa fed cattle from this place and on account of the immense quantity of hay raised here this year, an unusual large number of cattle will be fed.

Jos. Cunha has a force of ten men busily engaged with the alfalfa hay cutter on his upper river ranch where he has some five hundred tons of alfalfa hay being chopped.

Mrs. Katie McLaughlin visited yesterday with friends at Yoakum.

Hugh D. Smith is here from Portland this week looking after business interests.

Bert Milton, barber at the Hotel Echo, left Tuesday on a short vacation. In his absence his tonsorial parlors will be in charge of Frank Brundage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Friedly returned home the first of this week from a visit to The Dalles. They made the trip in their automobile.

C. S. Mudge, who has been with the George and Miller company for several years, left the first of the week for Portland, where he will go in business for himself, having purchased the grocery and delicatessen store at Montavilla.

Mrs. T. G. Smith and Mrs. W. A. Jones were business visitors in Pendleton yesterday.

Mrs. Alexander Reid of Stanfield, visited here Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Everitt.

B. F. McCullough is in Montana, where he has gone to purchase cattle for winter feeding.

W. B. Gillett returned Saturday to his home at Redmond, Ore.

R. R. Lewis of Horniston, spent Monday here looking after business interests.

Chas. S. Terpening of Pendleton, was a business visitor here on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Frank Spinning returned home Tuesday from a short visit to Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Estab are business visitors in Pendleton today.

BABY BURGLARS WEEP IN ARMS OF POLICEMEN

Detectives With Drawn Guns Were Prepared for Battle With Thugs.

New York.—A reserve squad of three detectives and three uniformed policemen ripped a big burglary in the but when they surrounded the home of August T. Day at 118 Lee avenue, Williamsburg, and slowly closed in upon a pair of would-be plunderers.

The Day dwelling, a three-story brownstone house, was boarded up for the summer early in May. Neighbors heard suspicious noises shortly before the breakfast hour and the police of the Clymer Street Station were notified.

Detectives Comisky, Reis and Brown and three patrolmen were sent around. The uniformed officers remained on guard at the front of the house while the detectives negotiated the rear windows. They found a basement window open and looking inside they saw a heap of silverware piled up on a table.

The robbers were not in sight. Reis and Brown drew their revolvers and bibles and went in after them. Presently they brought them out in their arms.

Robber No. 1 was nine-year-old John Konechinsky of 19 Almside street; robber No. 2 was five-year-old John Bills of 450 Keap street.

All the detectives could get out of John Konechinsky was, "I ain't a squealer. The gang knows I'm square."

"I wanna go home." was all that little Johnny Bills would say. Johnny was carried home to his mother, who said he sneaked out of the house about 6 o'clock in the morning. The Konechinsky had been sent to the Children's Court as a juvenile delinquent. The police say they were undoubtedly being used as Oliver Twist by some gang of burglars in the district.
