FIRE DREAMS COME TRUE.
 Hannibal, Mo., Woman Awakes to See Neighbor's House in Flames.
 Hannibal, Mo.—Their clothing a mass of flames, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Setters ran from their home with the interior of the structure in flames as a result of an explosion of a coal-oil lamp, which had been left burning during the night.
 Both were awakened by the explosion, which scattered oil over the room. They were forced to escape through the front room, which was in flames. They are in a serious condition at the Leveing Hospital.

 Mrs. W. R. Chisham, living near the Setters home, shortly before discovering the fire, dreamed that a lamp in her grocery store had exploded. She awoke, and, looking across the street saw the fire.

A Good Position
 Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "wireless" or railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country, there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chances of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates under supervision of railroad and wireless officials, and places all graduates into positions. It will appy you to write them for full details.

SPANISH SAVES A BEATING.
 "It's Lucky You Can Speak It," Say Holdup Men to Victim.
 San Francisco, Calif.—His ability to speak Spanish saved Daniel J. McCoy of 329 Steiner street from rough treatment at the hands of highwaymen at Union and Stockton streets. Three men who appeared to be Mexicans held him up and robbed him of $22. McCoy spoke to them in Spanish when they were about to beat him. As they left one of them remarked: "It's lucky for you that you spoke Spanish to us."

When a man in the city makes money he goes to the country to teach the farmers how to farm. When a man in the country makes money he comes to town to teach the bulls and bears how to make money in Wall street. The result is the same in both cases.
