A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

Who does not know the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition. As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Weyth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind, called Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is thin or turning gray, get a bottle of this remedy from your druggist today and see what it will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by special agent, Pendleton Drug Co.

SPORTS

New York, Oct. 28.—Ban Johnson, president of the American League, is still anxious for an official probing of the ticket scandal in connection with the world's championship games here. He declares that he has evidence in his possession that will throw light on the muddle, and is willing to tell the name of an individual who helped speculators to get hold of many tickets.

In his opinion John T. Brush, president of the New York club, has been kept in ignorance of the facts.

"Mr. Brush had no part in the sale of tickets to speculators," said Johnson. "He knew nothing about the way matters were handled by a certain person, who for the present shall remain unknown."

Davis to Cleveland.

Cleveland, Oct. 28.—Harry H. Davis, first baseman of the world's champion Athletics, and lieutenant of Connie Mack, their manager, signed a contract to manage the Cleveland team of the American League in 1912. He arrived here from Philadelphia and immediately went into conference with President Charles Comers and Vice-President E. S. Barnard, of the Cleveland club.

Walla Walla H. S. Games Off.

Walla Walla, Oct. 28.—Meeting in special session yesterday afternoon for the purpose of investigating the true cause and just punishment for the action of certain high school students in burning their principal, F. C. Heck in effigy on the high school lawn several nights ago, the burning ceremony being preceded by a mock trial, and followed by a street demonstration, the school board passed the following resolution: "Resolved, that the football schedule of the Walla Walla high school be withdrawn for the balance of the present semester, and that the team be instructed to turn in their football suits and paraphernalia to the athletic coach at once."

Oregon Defeats W. S. C.

Pullman, Wash., Oct. 28.—A great surprise was given W. S. C. supporters yesterday when the speedy Oregon University football team scored a 6 to 0 victory over their idols. Oregon was rated strong but Pullman had hopes of victory until their line was finally beaten down by the Web-footers. The game was close and hard-fought, both teams displaying brilliance at times which kept the large crowd in great enthusiasm. U. of O. will now be a strong contender for the championship, being rated superior to the O. A. C.

Pupil is Hurt at Football.
Lapwal, Idaho, Oct. 28.—Alvin Foote, a pupil of the Fort Lapwal rural high school, was seriously injured internally while playing football. This accident may result in a discontinuance of football at the school.

Oakland 6, Portland 0.
Oakland, Oct. 28.—Oakland captured the second game of the post-series game with Portland yesterday, 6 to 0, the misplays of the northerners being responsible for the one-sidedness of the score. The champions piled up six errors and failed to group their seven hits off Pernoll in a way that would bring in runs. The series now stands one and one, with three games yet to be played.

W. W. Defeats Milton.
Walla Walla, Wash., Oct. 28.—In a muddy game between the local High and the Milton team on Ankeny field yesterday afternoon, the locals walked off the field with a victory with 27 points to their credit, while the Milton eleven were content to wend their way homeward with a goose-egg to show for their trouble.

Orpheum.
Excellent program for Sunday and Monday.

1. "Her Awakening." Biograph. A pretty but dutiful daughter has one fault, vanity. She is ashamed of her poor old mother, who is decrepit and lame. Working in the office of a bundry, she meets on social terms one of the customers, who, becoming quite attracted by her, is considered her sweetheart. Ashamed of her home and mother, she has never let him visit her, preferring to meet him outside at a trying place. One day when walking with her sweetheart, she meets her mother, but denies her. Her awakening comes a few minutes later when she sees her poor old mother knocked down by an automobile. Her mother dies from the effects of the accident and the poor girl's grief knows no bounds as she fondles the old cane so long carried by her dear mother. Her future does not remain hopeless, for the young man still loves her; but what a bitter punishment she had suffered for vanity.

2. "The Death of Nathan Hale." Edison U. S. History Scene. This film tells the story of the battle of Long Island, with Washington's masterly retreat, and Nathan Hale's attempt to do his country a service, resulting in his execution as a spy. At the close the scene dissolves into the statue of Nathan Hale in City Hall park, New York City.

3. "Memories of the Past." American Pathé. A young man and woman are engaged to be married; they announce it at a fancy dress ball on her birthday. A famous painter decides to paint her picture, this leads to another love affair, and the girl finally marries the artist. Years later the rejected suitor's nephew falls in love with the daughter of this couple. The nephew gains his uncle's consent to their marriage through the striking resemblance of the daughter to the portrait of the old sweetheart, who been the only real love he ever had.

4. "Her Hero." Vitagraph. Did you ever meet the man who tells you how brave he is and who hasn't got the backbone of a caterpillar? Here is a chance to get a good look at him and have a jolly good hearty laugh, too. It reaches 150 in the shade on the "humorometer" of the laugh circle. John Bunny, the Vitagraph funny man supplies the mercury and keeps it bubbling all the time.

The Pastime.

Where only the best in motion pictures are shown. Program for Sunday:

"The Big Dam." (Edison western drama). This is a story of vital interest and being played in Colorado on the very spot of a big earthwork construction contract, gains a very valuable amount of atmosphere. Young Bedford is accepted by a girl who loves and marries him. The rival suitor for her hand is vitally disappointed and inclined to be revengeful. Both men are contractors and both put in a bid for a large dam to be completed in one year under a forfeit of twenty-five thousand dollars. Bedford gets the contract, thus making his rival, Dillon, still more vindictive. Dillon throws everything possible in Bedford's way to make him lose his contract, but with the help of his plucky little wife, Bedford wins out.

"The Snare of Society." (Lubin). A throbbing domestic drama that revolves around a beautiful diamond ring. Wealth, love and youth combined to make Arthur Williams and his young wife extremely happy. Arthur was a self-made man and his wife a society leader. One day he presented her with a beautiful ring, for which she had expressed a wish. Later, in playing bridge, she lost a large sum of money, and accepted a loan from Jack Reed giving the ring as security. Arthur saw Jack exhibiting the ring at the club. He sought a quarrel with Jack. Then hurried home and asked his wife to explain. She refused to do so, instead she visited Jack's apartments with a revolver, well—she regained her ring. A story that will appeal to all. "Disappointed Old Maids." (American comedy). There is much exquisite humor in this picture.

"Whiffle's Hard Luck Stories." (American). Whiffle* being in straightened circumstances decides to raise a little money. Just how he does it forms a picture that is guaranteed to raise the risibility of every spectator.

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Deeperate.

CHICAGO, ILLS.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 124 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently.

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

ter." (Essays). A dramatic Western feature. Thrilling to the last foot. Exceeding interesting in every scene.

The Cosy.

In accordance with our promise of a higher grade film service for this house, we present the first installment for Friday and Saturday with a full feature program including a Shakespearean masterpiece, two fine comedies and beautiful and scenic. In future we will show the cream of the independent output.

"Romeo and Juliet." (two reels). Thanhouser. A superb Thanhouser feature in two full reels, 2,000 feet, depicting in pictures the famous Shakespearean masterpiece. Everyone is familiar with this beautiful love story, replete with thrilling adventures, noble self-sacrifice, and splendid heroism. The acting is perfect, the costuming is beautiful, the settings are grand and the photography is faultless, making this one of the finest pictures ever produced. Exquisitely tinted and colored.

"Hot Springs, Arkansas." Imp. An educational picture, showing ostrich farm, alligator farm and views in and about the famous health resort, and on the same reel, "His Royal Highness," comedy. The antics of an escaped lunatic masquerading as a prince, the plight of the real prince, the love dreams of an old maid in love with the crazy man, and the resulting complications and mixups which occur, are laughable in the extreme.

"Mutt and Jeff and the German Band." Nestor. Our two friends saw a band of strolling musicians and noting that money was freely given, decided to form a band of their own. Mutt takes the trombone and Jeff the big bass horn. Prof. Schmitz advising "Music taught in one lesson" caught their eye, and after taking the one lesson they started out. What happened to them? Come in and see.

Imperial Band Bell Ringers.

The Epworth League, from press notices throughout the U. S. and England have secured an attraction that any city might be proud of. The Wakefield (England) Musical Union says, "Generally it may be said that the possibilities of bells are limited to the performance of simple tunes, but Mr. Giggle showed what splendid effects could be produced in music of complex character, the manner in which the 'Norma' and 'Thanhouser' selections were given being in the nature of a revelation to those before unacquainted with what a good band can do."

China and Young Americans.

Shanghai, China.—Several years ago the American consuls in China cautioned young men and women in the United States against coming hither with the hope of securing clerical or stenographic positions. Inquiries are again being received as to such openings, and it is well to repeat the caution. The custom of foreign firms here is to fill all important and well-paid positions with persons whom they bring out under contract so that a person arriving without such document stands little chance of securing positions that pay living wages. Minor situations are filled by clerks, stenographers and typists who live in Shanghai, at salaries ranging from $25 to $75 United States currency per month. The cost of living here is not less than in the states and the climate is not uniformly suitable to foreigners.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.
