"The Crusaders, or Jerusalem Delivered"

The Cosy Theatre

A magnificent 4,000 foot production of a great historical epoch, which is receiving the highest endorsement of the press, the schools and the clergy. Depicting as it does the struggles between the early Christians and the Turks, it is arousing greater interest on account of the present Italian-Turkish war. Exquisitely colored, spectacular, dazzling, beautiful beyond comparison. Don't neglect the opportunity of viewing this world-famous production. Also, a 1,000 foot comedy film, one of the season's best, making 5,000 feet in all, five reels.

Afternoons at 2:00--Evenings at 7:00

Regular Admission 5c and 10c

CATTLE TRADE IS FAIRLY SWAMPED

BY RUN OF 1300 HEAD AT NORTH PORTLAND

Buyers Holding Off for Decline and Shippers for Their Own Price. Stagnates Market for a Day—Wheat Again Off at Chicago.

(From Monday's Journal.) Today's run of cattle in the North Portland yards was a record breaker and fairly swamped the trade. Buyers took hold gingerly and prices naturally received a setback. The marketing of 1295 cattle at North Portland within a single day is a gigantic task and has never been accomplished on the Pacific coast heretofore.

"She is Waiting" and so she waits she is waiting on. And think you, a good high-ball is well worth waiting for. Good, pure, wholesome Rye Whiskey, like the brands we are now selling, will make one wait patiently, but enjoy the wait when the liquid arrives—cool, comforting, and refreshing. If you are a high-ball lover, better try a bottle of this splendid Whiskey of ours. You will always want that brand after a hard day's work. And the price will suit you, too.

The cattle run was from almost every direction with the poorest showing from what is ordinarily called the "cow" country of eastern Oregon. All told there were about 51 loads of cattle in the yards today; receipts for the 48 hours being 1295 head compared with 772 last Monday. Up to the noon hour there was practically no business passing in the cattle trade because buyers were holding for a sharply lower price while shippers and receivers wanted the former market.
 The first shipment of the present movement came forward from Wyoming today, four loads coming from there. A shipment of two loads of dairy cows from St. Paul, Minn., has been expected.

Hogs Remain Stationary.
 There was no change in the price of hogs at North Portland this morning. Tops sold at 47, the same as last week for similar quality. Over Sunday there was a run of but 202 head and these were quickly disposed of. The run compares with 772 head for last Monday.
 The lack of a liberal supply kept the market rather firm at North Portland today and the high offerings of cattle and sheep helped to detract from the interest of the swine trade.
 North Portland swine trade today:
 Best eastern Oregon $ 7.50
 Medium eastern Oregon 6.50@6.95
 Best Willamette valley 7.10

Orpheum.
 Splendid program for Tuesday's change. 1. "By the Camp Fire's Flicker." A romance full of the power that makes every emotion a part of everyone's life. It takes us into the scenes and tropical regions of the Philippines, where the battles of love and war are fought under the blazing suns of the equator. 2. "Gypsy Honor." Pathe. A Gypsy girl who is selling flowers is seen by the mayor of the town where the gypsies are in camp. He immediately takes a fancy to the girl and calls at the encampment to see how they are situated. In the course of his visit he displays a fat wallet and two men of the tribe attack him and throw him over a cliff after having relieved him of his pocketbook. The girl brings about the rescue and the arrest of the culprit. The final scene shows the gypsy as the adopted daughter of the mayor. 3. "A Friend of the Family." Gaumont. A society drama in which a tactful friend averts a matrimonial storm. 4. "The City of Bordeaux, France." Gaumont. One of the finest commercial cities of France, about 370 miles southeast of Paris. 5. "The Trapper's Five Dollar Bill." Edison. An unusual comedy telling how a trapper and his wife decided to get a divorce, how the wife demanded alimony, how she got it—all on one five dollar bill, which finally found its way into the pocket of the shrewd western judge.

Always the best in motion pictures. Tuesday's change of program: "Snowbound With a Woman Hater" Vitagraph. This exceedingly amusing picture is full of comedy spirit of the best Vitagraph kind. Julia Swayne could hardly have a more charming part, nor play it better than she plays this young girl caught in a blizzard and forced to ask for shelter at the first house, the woman hater's. There is true humor in the breakfast scene; there is more in the luncheon scene and the dinner scene is best of all. "Gypsy Maids" American. A love story, supplemented by an angry father who hurls his daughter over the ridge into the water. The lover plunges in and saves her, notifying the police and papa shortly gets in bed. "The Rival Stage Lines." Selig. The stages were owned by rivals in love, each trying by fair means or foul to get to Cactus first and so win the express company's contract. One owner employs cowboys, the other Indians, both giving blank cartridges, to hold up his competitor. The cowboys make the first move, but hearing the Indians attack the other stage, rush to the rescue. In the melee the girl and her beau drive off one of the stages and claim and also get the contract. "A Counterfeit Roll" Lubin. A man and a woman and the little girl who shoots arrows into hearts, unite to make this dandy love comedy. It's funny and delicious.

Wheat Trade Off Again.
 Chicago, Nov. 7.—There was a further loss of 7-8 to 1-2c a bushel at the closing of the Chicago market yesterday after an opening that was 1-8c down for December and unchanged for the other two options.
 Foreign cables contributed to the bad closing. There was a report of settled weather in Argentina and liberal world's shipments. Liverpool was 1-8 to 1-4d lower at the closing.
 World's shipments in bushels: United States and Canada, 4,698,000; Argentina, 600,000; Australia, 1,536,000; Danubian Plateau, 1,528,000; Russia, 3,632,000; India, 352,000; total, 12,216,000.

STRAIN SUMMARIZES LOCAL SITUATION

 another $10,000, making a total cost of $20,000, more or less. When the cost of maintenance is added to this, it would bring the aggregate cost of operation considerably above the present income of the system. An added burden of this kind falls upon consumers, and the poorest of us must have water.
 The main advantage would be a larger supply of water, as we have no positive assurance that the quality would in point of purity, be much better than at present.
 It seems that it would be advisable to learn all that is possible about a gravity system, then about a filtration plant.
 When the evidence is all in and understood by us, it should be left to another vote of the people to decide which of the two, if either, we shall adopt.
 It is the duty of the city government to protect its citizens against unfair exactions by the telephone and electric companies.
 When a phone gets out of order we have to await the pleasure of the manager as to when it shall be repaired. We sometimes have to wait quite a while. But when the usual bill is presented we must dig up, even though we did not get the service, or the phone will be removed.
 We should never allow these companies to deny their services to any user until the merits of the case have been passed on by some constituted public authority.
 I believe further that our courts would uphold the city's right to establish by ordinance rates and regulations for these services.
 The cost of municipal government is so great that cities need some sort of endowment similar to what has been provided for our public schools. Already half of our entire population reside in cities and towns and the ratio is rapidly increasing, thus adding to the cost of city government.
 I have had in mind for some time a notion that cities should be given power to locate and hold power sites. Electric power is already a source of wealth and some day it will be one of our great national assets.
 As mayor, I would be in a better position to secure the co-operation of other cities toward this end. But under the present circumstances I do not see how I could spare time enough to the office to justify the citizens of the city in selecting me, even though they should feel disposed to accord me the high honor.
 Sincerely,
 C. P. STRAIN.

 And Be It Further Resolved, That an assessment district is hereby created, embracing the property to be assessed for the payment of such improvement, which assessment district shall include the lots, parts of lots and parcels of land lying and being within the district bounded and described as follows, to-wit:
