ROYALTY OFF FOR DURBAR

Splash in India Costs Plague Stricken People More Than $25,000,000.

WILL OUTDO CORONATION

King George, Accompanied by Queen, Will Be First British Monarch to Ever Visit Over Sea Dominions—Unrest Makes It Necessary.

London, Nov. 11.—King George and Queen Mary left London this morning for Southampton, en route for India where they will hold the much boomed Coronation Durbar, and despite the misery, from drought, famine and plague, prevailing throughout the peninsula, will endeavor to impress their oriental subjects by lavish expenditure, and what many openly call wanton extravagance.

The cost of the trip will be enormous. Parliament has voted $600,000 for expenses to this end, and the Indian government announces that it is spending $5,625,000 on the festivities but the total official bill will be anything from twelve to twenty millions.

The cost of the coronation was heavy enough, and with money badly needed for social reforms in England, and even more so in India, vigorous protests have been raised against such reckless waste, but the present unrest in the Moslem world has convinced British statesmen that some sort of a splash is necessary, and accordingly the Durbar with its attendant pageantry has been arranged to impress the natives with the power and majesty of the "British Raj."

LOW TEMPERATURE RECORDS BROKEN

Portland, Nov. 11.—Today is the coldest day on the western coast of Oregon and Washington, in the history of the weather bureau, for this time of the year.

At Blaine, Wash., this morning the temperature was three degrees above zero. At Tacoma it was 16 above. Southern Oregon and the Willamette valley are ranging from 20 to 30 above zero. East of the Cascades many high altitude towns, reported near zero weather.

NEELY, SUPPORTER OF CLARK, IS CONGRESSIONAL NOMINEE

Dodge City, Kans., Nov. 11.—Edward Neely, of Hutchinson, was today nominated at the democratic convention, for congress to succeed the late Congressman Madison in the seventh district.

Neely has endorsed Champ Clark for the democratic presidential nomination. This is first public endorsement that Clark has received.

TRIES TO KILL JUDGE: BELIEVED TO BE INSANE

J. R. RALEY IS FAVORITE IN STRAW VOTE UPON MAYORALTY CANDIDATES

J. R. RALEY, 78. W. F. MATLOCK, 49. SCATTERING, 41.

This tells the story of the voting at the East Oregonian's straw election held during the past week. Out of a total of 167 votes cast, J. R. Raley received 78, or five votes less than a majority over all. He has a plurality of 29 over his nearest competitor, W. F. Matlock.

The 41 scattering votes were cast for the following candidates: C. P. Strain, 13; J. L. Sharon, 5; J. V. Tallman, 5; F. M. Olvior, 5; Frank

TWO MURDERESSES IN ADJOINING CELLS

Mrs. Quinn Alleged Slayer of 3 Husbands, Joins Mrs. Vermilya

Two of Her Mates Shot While Asleep, She Says by Burglars—Three Vermilya Victims Poisoned.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—In a cell adjoining Mrs. Vermilya, Mrs. John Quinn, alleged slayer of three husbands, awaits the decision of the grand jury.

Today at an inquest over her last husband, who was shot and killed in bed at his home while only his wife was present, the coroner's jury held her without bail, to answer to the grand jury.

The woman's second husband was also shot in bed under the same circumstances. Each time the wife held that a burglar was the murderer.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—With three deaths of Mrs. Vermilya's suspected victims traced to arsenical poisoning, Coroner Hoffman today is continuing the exhumation of the bodies of the others. She is now suspected of ten deaths. It is said that the woman will soon be arrested again, this time on a charge of wholesale poisoning.

The woman, who is sick, is better today. She said she was surprised that arsenic was found in the stomachs of Conductor Smith and son, Frank Brinkamp.

CIVIL CASE HALTS McNAMARA TRIAL

Los Angeles, Nov. 11.—Because of the pressure of civil business growing out of unfinished litigation before him, Judge Bordwell was unable to preside at the McNamara trial today and it went over until Monday.

Word was received that Charles Sexton, half-brother of Juror J. B. Sexton, had been brought home to die and it seems certain that Sexton, when he hears of this, will demand that he be excused from jury duty.

Persons superstitiously inclined are wondering today if some peculiar fatality isn't following the present case. Since the trial began, death sickness of persons involved in various ways have hampered it. Three prospective jurors have been forced out either by death in their families or of sickness.

Grand Jury Takes Recess

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—The federal grand jury at noon today went into recess until Monday without reporting on the McNamara case.

Women Cannot Agree

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 11.—Unable to agree upon anything, the first woman's jury to sit in Los Angeles was discharged late today. The case was that of I. H. Magor, accused of having violated the speed ordinance and on trial in Justice Forbes' court. It was a stormy day for the women jurors. After listening patiently for three hours to testimony and argument, the jury at 12:30 was notified to get ready for luncheon. Twelve different eating places were selected by 12 jurors. Then, two said they did not want to go at all. In vain did Justice Forbes urge them to reach an agreement as to a place for luncheon. Finally at 12:30 he ordered them locked up again. The justice, too, lost his lunch. At 4 o'clock after four and a half hours' deliberation the jury reported it was also unable to agree upon a verdict and the court ordered its discharge.

CARNEGIE GIVES UP ANOTHER GIFT OF MANY MILLIONS

New York, Nov. 11.—Announcement last night of Andrew Carnegie's $25,000,000 gift to the Carnegie Corporation, brings the total of his public gifts to $229,800,000, exceeding John D. Rockefeller's gifts. The Carnegie corporation was formed to promote diffusion of knowledge and understanding among the American people and continues after his death.

To Start from Car

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 11.—Beaten for the moment by the heavy sand at Mastodon, N. M., fifteen miles west of here, in which his aeroplane stuck when he landed Sunday, Aviator Robert G. Fowler will attempt to resume his transcontinental flight next Sunday from a railroad "push" car. Should he be successful, he will have established a record for most unique starting point of an aviation flight.

Wireless in Philippines

Vallejo, Cal., Nov. 11.—When the cruiser Cincinnati sails for the far east November 15, she will carry a consignment of wireless station material arrived at Mare Island navy yard yesterday. An appropriation of $300,000 has been asked for by the war department for the purpose of installing wireless stations in the islands.

Accused of Slaying Husband

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Jane Quinn today was held to the grand jury on a charge of murder in connection with the death of her husband, John M. Quinn. Quinn was found dead in bed November 2, with a bullet wound in his body and Mrs. Quinn declared he had been killed by burglars.

MANCHUS KEEP UP SLAUGHTER

Carnage at Nanking Worse Than That Wrought During Boxer Trouble.

FIRE FOREIGN SETTLEMENT

Imperialists at Foo Chow Beheaded by Rebels at Instigation of Foreign Victims of Fire Wreckers—Both Sides Would Give Kai Seat.

Shanghai, Nov. 11.—Massacres of Chinese by the Manchus which started yesterday continues today at Nanking. The imperialists are even pursuing the people out of the city and killing them.

The city is like a monster slaughterhouse. Infants, women and men are being butchered without discrimination. The slaughter is more atrocious than the Boxer uprising.

The rebels are preparing for a terrible retaliation. When they take the city, they plan to give the Manchus the same treatment. All business houses have been looted and burned.

Kai May be President

Pekin, Nov. 11.—Yuan Shi Kai, it is reported, is considering the rebel offer of the presidency of the new Chinese republic. It is understood that he is convinced the Manchus will fall and that is why he refuses to accept the proffered premiership.

Fire Foreign Settlements

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Nov. 11.—Admiral Murdock, in charge of the American fleet in Chinese waters, cabled the navy department today that the Manchus had attempted to burn the foreign settlement at Foo Chow, where a desperate conflict is raging.

The rebels at the instigation of the foreigners, then seized a large band of Manchu incendiaries and beheaded them.

Admiral Murdock says he has sufficient ships for the present, but later he might need large reinforcements.

To Frame Constitution

San Francisco, Nov. 11.—Revolutionists in thirteen of the eighteen provinces of China have decided to immediately send delegates to the constitutional convention at Shanghai, say cables received here today. The convention will frame a constitution for the new republic.

HOLY WAR IMPENDING IN NORTHERN AFRICA

Tripoli, Nov. 11.—Reports here from adjacent states, say that a holy war is impending throughout all north Africa as a result of the Turkish-Arab-Italian battles here.

General Cavena has received information that Arab delegations are in Tunis, inviting their fellow Mohammedans to cross into Tripoli and join the war of extermination of the Italians.

THOUSANDS DYING OF PLAGUE IN INDIA

London, Nov. 11.—Reports from Bombay today tell of the terrible plague conditions that will greet King George and Queen Alexandria when they arrived in India for the Durbar. The last weekly report shows 6667 died of plague throughout India and nearly 5000 of these were in Bombay alone. The plague is increasing in southern India.

WASHINGTON POLICE CHIEF SLAIN BY GIRL

Murder Reveals Dual Life of Official—Had Wife and Five Children

Sensational Tragedy Occurs During Midnight Visit at Home of Affinity While His Family Slept.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Miss Ada Lennox and her mother were jailed here today, pending an investigation into the sensational death of William Delaney, chief of police, and a captain of the Pennsylvania national guard here, who was shot and killed in their home while visiting Miss Lennox about 2 o'clock in the morning.

The girl says the man threatened to kill both herself and her mother. She fled down the hall when he pulled his revolver, then she heard a shot.

Delaney's wife and five children were sleeping at his home when he visited Miss Lennox.

LOOT OF BANK WRECKER MAY BE RECOVERED

New York, Nov. 11.—Loot, aggregating $422,000, hidden by David Rothschild, the sensational bank wrecker, before he went to Sing Sing, where he died, may be recovered, according to disclosures of Mrs. Bratten formerly his wife. She says he told her he deposited $25,000 in a safety vault in the Corn Exchange bank and $185,000 in Jersey City under the name of Leavy.

POPE, EXPECTING DEATH, CALLS CONSISTORY

New York, Nov. 11.—The sudden decision of Pope Pius to call a consistory at Rome this month for the purpose of creating twenty cardinals, is believed to be explained by the fact that the pope has been warned by his physicians that his end is near and that any illness in his weakened condition, may prove fatal.

PRESIDENT ENDS HIS TOUR TONIGHT

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 11.—"Fortunately encountered, fortunately ended," said President Taft today, during the last few hours of his country-wide tour.

Tomorrow he will take breakfast at the white house, for the first time since August 22nd. He is glad he is going home.

This afternoon President Taft went to Bristol, the last town of his itinerary. He leaves for Washington tonight.

Replying to Congressman Austin's pledge, during his address here, that he would support the president for reelection, President Taft asked Austin not to weary of his work doing.

He made no direct comment on politics and avoided the subject.

MABEL WARNER BADLY BEATEN BY A MIDNIGHT ASSAILANT

Alleged Maker of Self Benefitting Wills Attacked in Her Home By Unknown Man

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS AND HOUSE RANSACKED

Assault Made While Husband is Absent and With Only Small Son Present—Bedridden Woman Declares Enemies in Will Case Did It.

Mrs. Mabel Warner, alleged maker of bogus wills, was almost put out of the long fight over the estate of James Young, Tuesday night when some unknown assailant attacked her in her home on South Tustin street, choked and beat her into insensibility, and, after he had ransacked the house presumably for papers, left her lying on the floor where she had fallen. For four days now she has been lying in her bed, weak, suffering and rational only at times, attended by a doctor, a nurse and her husband and today her condition warrants the belief that she will recover from the effects of her harsh treatment.

This sensational incident, in one of the most famous property battles in the history of the state, just leaked out today. The officers having carefully guarded it from the public in hope of more effectively conducting their search for the assailant.

Story of Assault. According to the story told by Mrs. Warner, she was alone in the house with her little boy Tuesday night, her husband having gone to the Sturgis-Wyrick ranch on the reservation where he is working. About midnight, or early in the morning, she was awakened by a knock at the back door. Thinking her husband had returned, she called him by name, asking if it were he. "Yes," came the answer, she said, and she opened the door.

She had just time to see a large man dressed in black and with his face concealed, when she was seized about the throat with violent hands and choked into insensibility.

She knew no more, she says, until several hours later when she half recovered her senses, to find herself nearly frozen on the floor and with a throbbing pain in her head. Dazed and almost helpless she yet managed to drag herself to her bed, when she again lost consciousness.

House Ransacked. In the morning her little boy discovered her and, frightened by her condition, hastily summoned a neighbor woman, Mrs. Arbogast. The latter tended to her until Mr. Warner arrived when a physician was called.

Claim Enemies Responsible. Mr. Warner, upon his arrival, began an investigation of the house and found everything in a topsy-turvy state. Drawers had been opened, boxes, trunks, chests and every conceivable hiding place for valuables rifled, but all that was missing was a few small coins. Jewelry on the dresser had been left untouched. Boxes containing private papers were in a particularly upset condition and both Mr. and Mrs. Warner declare emphatically that it was no common thief in search of valuables that committed the assault and assert with equal emphasis that the deed was done by a hireling of her enemies in the hope of securing certain papers that have a bearing on the Young property.

"Give Me a Chance," She Says. A representative of the East Oregonian called at the Warner home this afternoon and found Mrs. Warner in bed, flushed with a high fever, so weak she could scarcely talk and with a bad bruise on one of her temples. At first she refused to make any statement regarding the attack upon her, but finally said feebly, "If they are going to kill me, I guess I might as well die." In a little while, however, as her husband and nurse told the story of the midnight visitor, the light of battle again shone in her eyes as the militant spirit for which she is noted was aroused. "Tell the people," she said, as she weakly tried to rise, "that they have followed Dr. Watts and his gang for six years and have not found the light but that if they will follow me six days I will bring them to it. The public has been against me in this fight and have not given me a fair deal. If they will allow me to submit the testimony I have and will listen to my witnesses I can clear this matter up in short order. If not there will be murder done."

Not the First Attempt. When asked what she meant by her last statement, she said, "I mean that they will kill me. This is not the first time that an attempt has been made on my life. When I had my will before County Judge Gilliland several years ago and as I was coming to town one evening, someone shot at me from a grain field and, if I had been an inch taller they would have won their case then. I never have told this before, for what was the use? But if a woman is not safe from her enemies in her own home, it's almost time to quit. But the next man that comes to my door at night will be met with a bullet, you can bet on that."

"They were looking for papers alright," she said in answer to a question, "but they didn't find them and they won't find them in this house," she added triumphantly.

Sheriff Taylor was notified of the attack early Wednesday morning and is making an investigation.

MOB AND POLICE FIGHT; N. Y. TIED UP

New York, Nov. 11.—The police were compelled to erect barricades of carts across some of the principal streets today to protect strikebreakers from the attacks of mobs of striking garbagemen.

The streets are blocked for miles by congested traffic and confusion is added to by thousands of spectators. The police threatened to shoot if the barricades are stormed. Mayor Gaynor is determined to win the strike.

Jasper Templeton was among the Herkston residents spending the night in the city.

C. P. Bowman, a former Butter creek rancher and stockman, is transacting business in Pendleton today.

GOLDEN GIRL COMPANY'S PROPERTY IS ATTACHED TO SATISFY A DEBT CLAIM

Financial troubles have overtaken the management of the Golden Girl theatrical company which played to a small house at the Oregon theatre last night. During the progress of the show the proceeds of the box office were attached by James Welch of Portland to collect an account of $200. Accordingly the office was occupied during the evening by Sheriff Taylor, his deputy George Strand, and Dan P. Smythe, attorney for the plaintiff in the attachment suit.

There is still another chapter to the story and it is one that involves T. F. O'Brien, agent for the O.-W. R. & N. to his sorrow. Upon assurances that the sales of seats at the local theatre would reimburse him Mr. O'Brien provided the troupe with transportation from The Dalles to Pendleton and it amounted to $150. But when he sought the money last evening it had already been spoken for and Mr. O'Brien stands short $150. However he is hoping to recoup his loss by attaching the company's receipts at La Grande where the "Golden Girl" is to be presented this evening.

Though the musical company is provided with some good costumes it failed to make a deep impression last evening and in view of the straits into which the manager's exchequer has gotten it seems evident that it has not met with overflowing favor elsewhere.
