

$5.75

For a Good Leather Suit Case.

The same kind that you are used to paying $8.50 for. This week at

THE HUB

The Drummers' Sample Store

LOCALS

I C Snyder, chimney sweep, R 3812. Pastime pictures please all. Main 178 for coal and wood. For rent—Front office in Judd building. Apply to F. E. Judd. Splendid rooming house proposition. Teutsch & Bickers. For Sale—A few select Navajo rugs cheap. Call at 109 Water street. Everybody goes to the Orpheum to see the best and the clearest pictures. Phone Dutch Henry for dry wood and Rock Spring coal. Main 178. For clean coal and dry wood, phone Main 5. Special rates to horses boarded by the week or month at the Commercial Barn, 620 Aura street, Phone Main 13. All kinds of good dry wood, also clean nut or lump Rock Spring coal at Dutch Henry's. Found—Pair of gold rimmed spectacles. Owner may have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice. Save yourself fuel troubles by using our famous Rock Spring coal and good dry wood. Delivered promptly. Ben L. Burroughs, phone Main 5. Lost—Mink fur near Christian church. Finder please notify Mrs. I. Christensen, 504 Jane street, or leave at this office and receive reward. Try the Cash Market for fresh poultry, also remember we keep groceries and meats. Phone Main 101. Take Northern Pacific Ry. to Spokane. Leaves 1:30 p. m., arrive 6:55 p. m. Tickets from W. Adams, Agent, Pendleton. If you have anything to sell, such as horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, autos, see Teutsch & Bickers and learn more about the plan. If you want to move, call Penland Bros. Transfer, phone 3391. Large dray moves you quick. Trash hauled once a week. 647 Main street. Gordon & Davis, carriage and automobile painting. We're here to stay and guarantee first-class work. State building, 114 E. Webb street. We effect sales and exchanges, rent properties, collect rents, pay taxes, supply fire and life insurance. Teutsch & Bickers. Our mission, to answer your questions, other than political, religious and matrimonial. Teutsch & Bickers. For transfer work, hauling baggage, moving household goods and pianos and all kinds of job work, phone Main 461. B. A. Morton. Found—Black fur muff. Owner may have same by proving property and paying for this notice. Inquire at this office. For sale—Six acres choice fruit, alfalfa and home place, at electric car station between Walla Walla and Milton. Price $3600. J. W. Beckley, 332 N. Capitol, Salem, Ore. If going east, or west or south, have tickets routed Northern Pacific Ry. Close connections at Pasco with all through trains. W. Adams, agent, Pendleton. To Portland or California, take Northern Pacific, via Pasco, and S. P. & S. Ry. Leave 1:30 p. m., arrive Portland 8:10 a. m. See W. Adams, agent at passenger station, for through tickets and all arrangements.

liberately sneezes in another's face, regardless of whether it is a cold morning or not, and then repeats the performance, he is guilty of disorderly conduct and a fine of $25 or a term of two months on the county farm just fits the case, according to the ruling of Recorder Schwartz in the case of M. Nixon, a West Broad street clothier, who was arraigned in police court. Upon the complaint of an old negro woman Nixon was taken into custody by Patrolman Pryor. When Nixon was arraigned before Recorder Schwartz, the old woman testified to having gone in the store to purchase a sweater. Nixon put a price of 98 cents upon it. The woman thought this was too high and started to leave. It was then, she claims, Nixon sneezed in her face. Nixon told his honor that it was an accident, but the court remembered a similar occurrence several months ago, in which Nixon had been dismissed when he made the same excuse, so there was nothing doing this time. Nixon told his honor that it was an accident, but the court remembered a similar occurrence several months ago, in which Nixon had been dismissed when he made the same excuse, so there was nothing doing this time.

When the Sheehan grand opera company presents "Love Tales From Hoffman" in this city Sunday night the singers will be dazzled by an array of shirt fronts and evening gowns in the central portion of the first floor. By decree of Manager Mitchell of the Oregon theatre the dress circle, to wit, that portion of the first floor from center A to J will be reserved exclusively for patrons in evening clothes. No gentleman will be allowed to sit in the charmed circle who has not donned his dress suit. The ushers, the manager and the doorkeepers will likewise wear their "spike tails." Manager Mitchell calls attention though to the fact that patrons who do not wish to wear evening clothes may obtain seats on the lower floor by making reservations on the side sections or in the center section in rear of J. Only the cushioned seats, 90 in all, will be reserved as the dress circle. Nor is there any restriction as to what shall be worn in the balcony and the gallery. Seats for "Love Tales of Hoffman" will be placed on sale Friday morning instead of on Saturday morning as would be the case were the regular rules adhered to.

KINDNESS OBTAINS THIEF'S CONFESSION Admits Burglary Because He Wants Marshal to Get Credit. South Orange, N. J.—After the county detectives had failed in their efforts to get a confession from a burglar locked up here for several days, having been caught trying to escape from a house in the village, the man confessed to Marshal Maguire, saying he did so because the marshal had been kind to him and he wanted him to "get the credit." He was locked up under the name of Thomas Dorsey but says he is Thomas Egan and that he is a professional burglar. Egan said that he has spent more time behind the bars than in front of them since he took up his profession, having served twenty-one years and two months in prison. In the course of his story Egan said he was arrested in 1883 in Brooklyn for burglary and as Charles Stevens spent seven years and a half in Sing Sing. In October, 1897, he went in again for assault in the third degree did a year and was fined $500. He had not been out four years before he was caught in Yonkers at burglary and got three years and six months. Good behavior won him a year and a half of that sentence, but he was captured again on a job in Jamaica, L. I., and sent back for nine years. He got out last April. Egan says he is 62 years old and a printer by trade.

MAN OF 70 CUTS TOOTH. Missourian Has a Sore Jaw and Finger Disclosed He Was Teething. St. Louis.—Charles Holden, former postmaster of Alton, is cutting a tooth at 70. For many weeks Holden has been bothered with a sore jaw, but did not consult a dentist, believing the soreness would go away. He placed his finger on the gum and to his surprise found a tooth peeping through in the place where one of his molars came out thirty years ago. The tooth seems healthy and in the proper place but it is causing so much pain that Holden believes he will have to have it removed. The trouble is due to the fact that all of his other teeth are worn down and the new one is growing to the usual height.

UNUSUAL SNEEZE COSTS MERCHANT MUCH MONEY Justice Fines Georgian $25 After Hearing the Complaint of a Neighbor. Savannah, Ga.—When a person deliberately sneezes in another's face, regardless of whether it is a cold morning or not, and then repeats the performance, he is guilty of disorderly conduct and a fine of $25 or a term of two months on the county farm just fits the case, according to the ruling of Recorder Schwartz in the case of M. Nixon, a West Broad street clothier, who was arraigned in police court. Upon the complaint of an old negro woman Nixon was taken into custody by Patrolman Pryor. When Nixon was arraigned before Recorder Schwartz, the old woman testified to having gone in the store to purchase a sweater. Nixon put a price of 98 cents upon it. The woman thought this was too high and started to leave. It was then, she claims, Nixon sneezed in her face. Nixon told his honor that it was an accident, but the court remembered a similar occurrence several months ago, in which Nixon had been dismissed when he made the same excuse, so there was nothing doing this time.

PERSONAL MENTION H. T. Wolpole of Irrigon, was an arrival in the city yesterday. S. W. Barnhart is over from Walla Walla on a business mission. Mrs. K. Dennis of Colfax, Washington, is an out of town visitor in the city. J. M. Mohney is registered at the Bowman Hotel from Colfax, Washington. L. E. Stuart of Ukiah, paid Pendleton one of his frequent visits yesterday. Ms. Frank Frazier was an outgoing passenger on the Portland local this morning. C. S. McNaught, well known Hermiston business man, was up from his home yesterday. Marvin Roy of Pilot Rock came in last evening from his home and spent the night in the city. G. E. Lynch, Mrs. S. C. Lynch and Miss Vere Belts were among the arrivals from Pilot Rock yesterday. Max Hopper, member of the clerical force of the First National Bank, is spending a few days in Portland. Col. H. G. Newport of Hermiston is here and is registered at a local hotel from "The Gem of the Desert." A. M. Behnke of Kennewick, Wash., was a visitor in the city yesterday and was a guest of the Hotel St. George. H. G. Hurlburt of Hermiston, was among the dwellers on the government project in the city last evening. W. R. Reinhart, traveling representative of the Marshall-Wells company, left this morning for points west. Harry Williams, well known young civil engineer, formerly stationed at Barnhart, arrived yesterday evening from Portland. Douglas Ball, district manager of the Blake-McFall Paper Co., came over from his headquarters at Walla Walla on the local this morning.

BEAT WIFE WHO WORE HIGH HEELS; SET FREE Pennsylvania Justice Says Such Footwear is Barbarous and the Husband Agrees. Wilkesbarre, Pa.—"High heels are unnecessary, ridiculous and dangerous," exclaimed Justice and Alderman John F. Donohue of this city, when Mrs. William Watson, a former resident of this place, came all the way from New Jersey to prosecute her husband for abusing her. In the presence of the austere magistrate, noted for handling wife beaters, "I have to beat my better half," he said, "to keep her from running to stores and buying everything new that comes out. Her latest craze is high heels." "The French high heel is an outrage; nothing short of barbarous," declared the Alderman. Donohue has decided other important questions of women's attire. He has given his opinion on "rats," "hobble skirts" and "facial adornments." The case was dismissed.

GIRLS HIRED TO PAW THROUGH WASTE BASKET United States Finds It Profitable to Watch Carefully in Treasury Department. Washington.—Unique among government "jobs" is that of the two women who sit side by side down in the basement of the treasury department and spend the entire day going through the contents of the department waste baskets. They are searching for stray bonds, checks and bills that may through some mishap have fallen into the baskets. The positions of the two women are more important than their place on the treasury rolls would indicate, for some time back one of them fished up a $10,000 United States coupon bond. The two women have been doing this work for years and have saved to the government the amount of their annual salary a hundred times over. Not a scrap of paper is permitted to be carried out of the Treasury department until it has passed the censorship of the official examiners of the official examiners of the waste paper baskets. There is a rule in the service also that no envelope, letter or slip of paper shall be thrown into a basket until it has been torn or otherwise mutilated. This disfigurement is a sign to the examiners that the paper was intentionally thrown into the baskets. Consequently a sharp lookout is maintained by the two young women examiners for unmarked envelopes and official looking papers. It sometimes happens that a gust of wind will carry a bond or a check from an official's desk and whisk it into his scrap basket. It is almost as safe there as if it were under lock and key, for the chances are a hundred to one in favor of the examiners rescuing it.

JERSEY HEN'S LAY AT NIGHT. Dover, N. J.—James Hagan, a justice of the peace of this place, has two hens which he regards as the most wonderful ever hatched. Instead of laying their eggs in the daytime, these hens wait until about 2 o'clock in the morning and then they awake the neighborhood with their cackling. Twice Hagan has been aroused in the middle of the night by the racket, and when he investigated he discovered the source of the trouble. He visited the coops in the belief that chicken thieves were about. The hens are White Leghorns and have been laying a year. The judge is so interested that he is going to set some of the night-laid eggs to see what manner of chicks they will bring forth. It is possible, he said, that a breed of night-laying fowl might be developed, although Squire Hagan is forced to admit that there is nothing practical about a hen that will lay only at night.

SHIRT FRONTS WILL GREET "LOVE TALES" When the Sheehan grand opera company presents "Love Tales From Hoffman" in this city Sunday night the singers will be dazzled by an array of shirt fronts and evening gowns in the central portion of the first floor. By decree of Manager Mitchell of the Oregon theatre the dress circle, to wit, that portion of the first floor from center A to J will be reserved exclusively for patrons in evening clothes. No gentleman will be allowed to sit in the charmed circle who has not donned his dress suit. The ushers, the manager and the doorkeepers will likewise wear their "spike tails." Manager Mitchell calls attention though to the fact that patrons who do not wish to wear evening clothes may obtain seats on the lower floor by making reservations on the side sections or in the center section in rear of J. Only the cushioned seats, 90 in all, will be reserved as the dress circle. Nor is there any restriction as to what shall be worn in the balcony and the gallery. Seats for "Love Tales of Hoffman" will be placed on sale Friday morning instead of on Saturday morning as would be the case were the regular rules adhered to.

PERSONAL MENTION

H. T. Wolpole of Irrigon, was an arrival in the city yesterday. S. W. Barnhart is over from Walla Walla on a business mission. Mrs. K. Dennis of Colfax, Washington, is an out of town visitor in the city. J. M. Mohney is registered at the Bowman Hotel from Colfax, Washington. L. E. Stuart of Ukiah, paid Pendleton one of his frequent visits yesterday. Ms. Frank Frazier was an outgoing passenger on the Portland local this morning. C. S. McNaught, well known Hermiston business man, was up from his home yesterday. Marvin Roy of Pilot Rock came in last evening from his home and spent the night in the city. G. E. Lynch, Mrs. S. C. Lynch and Miss Vere Belts were among the arrivals from Pilot Rock yesterday. Max Hopper, member of the clerical force of the First National Bank, is spending a few days in Portland. Col. H. G. Newport of Hermiston is here and is registered at a local hotel from "The Gem of the Desert." A. M. Behnke of Kennewick, Wash., was a visitor in the city yesterday and was a guest of the Hotel St. George. H. G. Hurlburt of Hermiston, was among the dwellers on the government project in the city last evening. W. R. Reinhart, traveling representative of the Marshall-Wells company, left this morning for points west. Harry Williams, well known young civil engineer, formerly stationed at Barnhart, arrived yesterday evening from Portland. Douglas Ball, district manager of the Blake-McFall Paper Co., came over from his headquarters at Walla Walla on the local this morning.

BEAT WIFE WHO WORE HIGH HEELS; SET FREE

Pennsylvania Justice Says Such Footwear is Barbarous and the Husband Agrees. Wilkesbarre, Pa.—"High heels are unnecessary, ridiculous and dangerous," exclaimed Justice and Alderman John F. Donohue of this city, when Mrs. William Watson, a former resident of this place, came all the way from New Jersey to prosecute her husband for abusing her. In the presence of the austere magistrate, noted for handling wife beaters, "I have to beat my better half," he said, "to keep her from running to stores and buying everything new that comes out. Her latest craze is high heels." "The French high heel is an outrage; nothing short of barbarous," declared the Alderman. Donohue has decided other important questions of women's attire. He has given his opinion on "rats," "hobble skirts" and "facial adornments." The case was dismissed.

GIRLS HIRED TO PAW THROUGH WASTE BASKET

United States Finds It Profitable to Watch Carefully in Treasury Department. Washington.—Unique among government "jobs" is that of the two women who sit side by side down in the basement of the treasury department and spend the entire day going through the contents of the department waste baskets. They are searching for stray bonds, checks and bills that may through some mishap have fallen into the baskets. The positions of the two women are more important than their place on the treasury rolls would indicate, for some time back one of them fished up a $10,000 United States coupon bond. The two women have been doing this work for years and have saved to the government the amount of their annual salary a hundred times over. Not a scrap of paper is permitted to be carried out of the Treasury department until it has passed the censorship of the official examiners of the official examiners of the waste paper baskets. There is a rule in the service also that no envelope, letter or slip of paper shall be thrown into a basket until it has been torn or otherwise mutilated. This disfigurement is a sign to the examiners that the paper was intentionally thrown into the baskets. Consequently a sharp lookout is maintained by the two young women examiners for unmarked envelopes and official looking papers. It sometimes happens that a gust of wind will carry a bond or a check from an official's desk and whisk it into his scrap basket. It is almost as safe there as if it were under lock and key, for the chances are a hundred to one in favor of the examiners rescuing it.

JERSEY HEN'S LAY AT NIGHT.

Dover, N. J.—James Hagan, a justice of the peace of this place, has two hens which he regards as the most wonderful ever hatched. Instead of laying their eggs in the daytime, these hens wait until about 2 o'clock in the morning and then they awake the neighborhood with their cackling. Twice Hagan has been aroused in the middle of the night by the racket, and when he investigated he discovered the source of the trouble. He visited the coops in the belief that chicken thieves were about. The hens are White Leghorns and have been laying a year. The judge is so interested that he is going to set some of the night-laid eggs to see what manner of chicks they will bring forth. It is possible, he said, that a breed of night-laying fowl might be developed, although Squire Hagan is forced to admit that there is nothing practical about a hen that will lay only at night.

ECHO "ENJOYED" SEASON'S 1ST SNOW

FOUR INCHES FELL AND TEMPERATURE WENT LOW

Defeated Basketball Team Acknowledges Weston Hospitality Alleviated Pain Caused by Loss of Game—Girls Play a Match Game.

(Special Correspondence) Echo, Ore., Nov. 13.—Echo enjoyed the first snow of the season Saturday—a fall of two inches. The coldest weather experienced here for the season was 14 degrees above zero, Friday night.

The Echo high school basketball team went to Weston Friday evening to play the Weston high school team. The score was decidedly in favor of the Weston boys, but the visitors were treated so royally by their hosts that it took the edge off of their disappointment in the result of the game. They returned home Saturday.

The Echo high school girls' basketball team divided their forces Friday night and played an interesting public game. The girls have not had much practice but they displayed a great deal of skill. The game was won by the Middies by a score of 11 to 12.

Miss Melva Cave, bookkeeper for the George & Miller company, returned last night from a visit to her home in Walla Walla.

F. W. Hendley, formerly county recorder, but now employed with the U. S. R. S., at Hermiston, spent Sunday here visiting his family.

Miss Ina Watenburger, one of the Hermiston teachers spent the week-end with her parents at this place and entertained the Misses Jesse Matlock and Beatrice Reed, who are also Hermiston teachers and Mr. Lloyd, manager of one of the Wayne land tracts. Mrs. Turner of Portland and Miss Clossen of Walla Walla, are here visiting their cousin, Mrs. J. F. Spinning. Mrs. J. H. Leezer left Saturday for Portland to visit her son, Roy Leezer a dentist of that city.

Little Miss Rachael Sloan, who has been visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Young, the past two weeks, returned to her home at Stanfield on Saturday.

Mrs. L. C. Rogers, who has been quite sick since last Thursday, returned home from Pendleton this morning much improved.

Mr. Jasper Templeton of Hermiston is visiting here today. Ed Horsch and wife returned last evening from a short visit in Pendleton.

Mrs. Beryl Riggs of Spokane is here visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Francis M. Schivner. R. B. Stanfield and A. B. Thomson were business visitors in Pendleton Saturday.

COUNTESS SAYS FASHIONS WILL KILL BIG HATS

Women of French Nobility, in Divulging Approaching Fashions, Maintains Harem Skirts Must Go. New York.—The Countess de Villeneuve-Sombrielle arrived on the American liner St. Paul. She will stay two months. "I like America," the countess said in very broken English. "She is so kind to me. In Paris it is so sad, so very, very sad, for a lady of the nobility to be in business, but here, ah! The ladies of society are so charming."

She divulged a few secrets about the coming fashions. "The coiffure," she said, "will be tight—comme ca—against the head, and puffs will be killed. And for the theater women will wear petite—what is it you call zem—ah, yes, bonnets oh, so small, so very small that you can hardly see zem. You will hardly see any of the face—just like the Turkish women."

"And will they wear harem skirts?" asked a reporter. "Nevalre! Nevalre! Nevalre!" cried the countess. "No nice lady will wear zem. Zem are too much like zem—zee—what is it?—Yes, zee pants."

The countess has two children, but is separated from her husband. "I am pauvre," she explained, "but my children are rich. Zelf father provides for zem."

She became indignant when asked if she were a divorcee. "A woman of zee nobility," she said, "is nevalre in zee divorce court—nevalre!"

SPECIALS

AT THE

Wohlenberg Dep't Store

- $2.00 CREAM SERGE, 54 inches wide at $1.65
12 1-2c WHITE OUTING FLANNEL at per yard 9c
$1.00 HEMMED SHEETS, 81x90, for 83c
$2 25 Large Size Bed Spreads $1.75 for
12 1-2c PERCALE 36 INCHES wide for, yard 9c
$1.00 SILK MESSALINE 27 inches for, yard 79c
20-in. SQUARE SILK FLOSS cushions, for 65c
24-in. SQUARE SILK FLOSS cushions, for 75c

Wohlenberg Dep't Store

Better Goods for Less Money.

Rough Weather Needs

Here's the one place in Pendleton that you can find just what you want

At a Lower Price

An extra large fine new showing of HIGH AND MEDIUM RUBBER BOOTS HIGH TOP SHOES FROM $3.50 UP

Workingmen's Clothing Company

Large Lines—Low Prices—Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Outing Gowns

Large Assortment Values up to $2

Regular Price 98c

GOLDEN RULE STORE

WE LEAD—OTHERS FOLLOW

STYLE! QUALITY! WORTH!

A BIG REDUCTION ON ALL

LADIES' SUITS

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

- $20 Suits $25 Suits $30 Suits
$15 $18.75 $22.50

New Shipment of Middy Dresses $35 Suits $26.25 Don't Miss This Chance to Save

Alexander Department Store

We are Overstocked in Hard Milled

Lanolen, Lettuce and Almond Oil Soaps, (the 50c kind) which we are closing out

25 Cents a Box

It lathers nicely, washes away slowly, and it cleanses and softens the flesh.

Koepfen's

The Drug Store that Serves You Best.