

CHILD'S HEAD SOLID MASS OF HUMOR

It Was Awful. Cried Continually. Had to Hold and Watch Him to Keep Him from Scratching. Suffering Was Dreadful.

Had not Used Half a Set of Cuticura Remedies Before Head Was Clear and Free from Eczema.

"I think the Cuticura Remedies are the best remedies for eczema I have ever heard of. My mother had a child who had a rash on his head when it was real young. Doctor called it baby rash. He gave us medicine, but it did no good. In a few days the head was a solid mass, a running sore. It was awful, the child cried continually. We had to hold him and watch him (to keep him) from scratching the sore. His suffering was dreadful. At last we remembered Cuticura Remedies. We got a dollar bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bar of Cuticura Soap. We gave the Resolvent as directed, washed the head with the Cuticura Soap, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. We had not used half before the child's head was clear and free from eczema, and it has never come back again. His head was healthy and he had a beautiful head of hair. I think the Cuticura Ointment very good for the hair. It makes the hair grow and prevents falling hair." (Signed) Mrs. Francis Lund, Plain City, Utah, Sept. 19, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each with 23-p. booklet on the skin will be mailed free, on application. Address Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 12B, Boston.

AT THE GRAND THEATRE

Something new in the way of a vaudeville act is presented at the Grand theater this week. The Krogers do a most extraordinary novelty wire act and create a sensation first by their comedy and later by their most unusual feats. The little lady making a human post of herself, holding one end of the wire by her hand, neck or waist and lastly by her teeth while the young man performs many daring and skillful tricks upon the wire. They carry a very handsome and novel stage setting.

None the less entertaining are De May and Collins, the song and dance chaps, who bill themselves as the "Be a Hummel and Soubrette." The latter sounds rather out of place, but Mr. De May, in a dainty soubrette costume, all frills and ruffles, is far from out of place in that role. He impersonates so well that when he takes off his wig at the finish of their act the audience are left spell-bound for a few moments, finally to awake to the fact that performers like De May and Collins deserve applause. And then, they get it and get it plentifully.

AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

Sunday's program is excellent. 1. "Italian Blood." Biograph. An illustration of what might have been the result of indifference. In the little Italian home the wife feels she is neglected and it seems that her husband's love is growing cold. She, therefore, plans with her cousin to arouse his love through jealousy. At a picnic she starts off with her cousin, passing in view of her husband. His fiery nature is violently aroused with jealousy and rushing home in a towering rage would have wreaked disaster to the entire family but he learns the truth and realizes now to what extreme the result of his neglect would have driven him.

2. "The Death of King Edward III." Vitagraph. Historical portrayal of the closing days of England's great king. A novel and magnificent piece of stagecraft. Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, but happy the man who sees this wonderful historical drama. 3. "Pardoned by the Governor." Eclipse. Mace, a mountaineer, saves the governor and his daughter from a band of highwaymen. Later when the mountaineer is condemned to death, the governor uses his power to free him.

4. "Making Cheddar Cheese." Eclipse. Every stage in the production is here illustrated in such detail that one can trace the various changes the milk undergoes until the cheese is ready for market. 5. "Mae's Sultor." Edison. A bright, lively farce showing how Mae's father took her away on a yacht to get rid of her many suitors and how they all got engaged as fall-ers on the yacht. The picture is full of fun.

watching the captain was able to prevent him killing the mate by means of the cross. Thinking of his dead wife the man saw the way he had been going and vowed to live right.

"The Claim Jumpers." (Americus.) Whitcomb discovered oil in government land and has his son go and file the claim. Two claim jumpers were listening and decided to get there first. Jack told Ella, his sweetheart, on his way to the claim. Noticing the men following Jack she also follows and saw them overpower Jack, take his map and start for the recorder's office. But she knew a short cut and got there first. What the cowboys did to the jumpers is a caution.

"Hearts and Eyes." (Eclair.) Cecilia met with an accident and became blind and was forced to beg. A young doctor became interested in her and operated on her and restored her sight. He fell in love, but was too timid to speak up. One day the girl, looking in a mirror, saw the doctor throw her a kiss. Finding himself caught he acknowledged his love and was accepted.

"For Your Hats, Ladies." (Eclair.) This film shows how the ostrich plumes are prepared. A view of the ostrich farm is shown, how the feathers are plucked from the big bird and the sorting, drying, joining and curling.

"A Breezy Morning." (Solax.) Mr. Jones, attired in his night shirt, went to the hall to get his paper, when the wind blew the door shut, leaving Jones in an awful fix. He went into a girl's room and grabbing some of her attire donned it and climbed the fire escape to his room. Pursued by neighbors he feigned sleep, but his attire was his undoing and his wife returning from a visit just then added more troubles to Mr. Jones.

The Pastime.

Another fine program for Sunday. "Daddy's Boy and Mammy." Vitagraph. Amid scenes of war and danger of detection, "Daddy's Boy" helps his father escape capture by risking his young life in his behalf. It is a story of the civil war and contains strong situations and some humor, introduced by "Mammy" and Sambo, her boy.

"Reparation." Essanay. It happened at the Kankakee District Fair. While the Grahams are looking at the prize cattle, Warren, the picture's hero is losing all his cash to a three card monte man. When his money is all gone he risks a locket his sweetheart, Miss Graham, had given him. He thinks he has been cheated and makes a disturbance and is arrested. Miss Graham breaks off the engagement. The reparation is made by the sharper, who falls in love with Miss Graham, but finds she still loves Warren.

"Turning the Tables." Edison. Broad comedy, telling how a henpecked husband turned the tables on his wife by making her believe her first husband had come back.

"Maiden of the Pieced Indians." A western burlesque. Full of laughs from start to finish.

"The Spirit of the Gorge." Edison. Unusually thrilling story with scenes of great beauty.

The Cosy.

For Friday and Saturday a story of the sea, western drama, a pretty love story, a tropical film and a mirth-making comedy.

"The Cross." (Thanhouser.) The captain, during a storm was intoxicated and the ship was lost. He was tried and sent to prison for criminal negligence and his faithful wife gave him a golden cross, hoping he might find comfort in religion. On his release he determines to find his first mate, whom he blames for the wreck, and kill him. The captain conceals his hatred and bids his times. But a priest became suspicious, and

JUST TRY A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You for Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach.

Put aside—just once—the salts, cathartic pills, castor oils or purgative waters, which merely force a passage through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach. Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coted tongue in digestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

CAPS AND RAINCOATS MAKE HER FOWLS LAY

Colorado Springs, Colo.—Rather than see her chickens, which had moulted late in the season, suffer from the cold, Mrs. E. Stoker of Colorado City, has made neatly fitting coats, which button under the wings, and has also supplied the chickens with soft flannel caps tastily fastened with daintily colored ribbons that tie under the beaks of the fowls.

The chickens strut about apparently comfortable, and apparently are proud of their clothes. Mrs. Stoker said today that the hens, just to show their gratitude, are laying eggs to their full capacity every day.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

Aurora, Ore.—As the northbound train was leaving Hubbard Wednesday, a Salem man named Armstrong dropped dead on the platform of the coach, from heart failure. The body was returned to Hubbard and later taken to Salem for burial.
