ROUNDUP BAND TO GO TO SPOKANE

If plans which have all but materialized are not unexpectedly upset, Pendleton will be represented at the great Enakapos apple show parade in Spokane which begins Monday, November 27 by the Round-Up Cowboy band and by a queen. Negotiations have been pending for several weeks and were brought to a tentative conclusion today when the new Round-Up board, by their first official act, decided to assist in financing the trip to the big fair.

The Enakapos management itself will defray a great part of the expenses for the local band as it is doing for about 24 other bands in the Inland Empire. Each one of these bands will be in the line of march of the big parade Monday, together with a float on which will ride the queen of the city from which the organization comes. Instead of a float, the Pendleton band will be mounted and headed by their queen astride a mustang.

For the selection of this queen a committee will be appointed from among the business men. She will be taken to Spokane as a guest of the Enakapos and will be entertained there all week with expenses paid.

Relatives Have Left.
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Taylor returned this morning from Portland, where they accompanied their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Burton and G. W. Taylor, who had been visiting the Enakapos in Pendleton. The visitors are now en route for California.

Johnson Is Deputy Attorney.
E. A. Scraggs (Johnson), formerly of this city and now deputy United States attorney, left this morning for the local this morning for Hermiston, where he is hunting ducks as the guest of R. R. Lewis. Mr. Johnson was here yesterday as attorney for ceeding before Mrs. Vida Johnston, the government in a white slave prosecution.

Mr. Gus La Fontaine, came up from Portland this morning.

It is a mighty good sign when railroads and farmers are seen pulling together, as they are, in many instances now.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

No Police Court.
The police court still continues to be a very quiet place, the great of offenders being very small. Again this morning there was "nothing doing."

F. E. Welch Recovering.
F. E. "Jake" Welch, proprietor of the Court street cigar store, who underwent a slight operation at the hospital several days ago, is reported as getting along in a splendid manner.

White Slave to Portland.
Lloyd Shelton, the young man who was yesterday bound over to the federal grand jury under $3000 bonds on a white slave charge, was this afternoon taken to Portland to await the convening of that body.

Tag Day at Milton.
The Milton and Freewater public schools will conduct a tag day next Tuesday evening at which an entertaining program with G. LeRoy Hall as the principal feature, will be presented.

A $10,000 Transaction.
By a deed recorded today at the court house, J. H. Brooks and wife, Laura Brooks, transfer to Lorenzo G. Belknap and wife, Nannie Belknap, of Spokane, about 500 acres near Alta for $10,000.

Auto Business Is Good.
J. W. McCormach is on a business trip to Baker City and La Grande in the interest of the Franklin automobile. He reports that prospects for the auto business are looking favorable. More demand is in evidence for high grade cars for spring delivery than heretofore.

Johns Petition Is Filed.
The petition of James Johns for water commissioner to succeed Will Moore was filed yesterday afternoon with 47 signatures attached. This is the last day on which nominating petitions may be filed for the approaching election and up until press hour no others had been submitted to Recorder Fitz Gerald, and it is probable that the final race will be run with the candidates already in the field.

Husband Cruel; Wants Divorce.
Alleging that her quarter breed husband, Thomas Woods, 7, has been cruel and inhuman towards her and has squandered $3,200 of her money received from a sale of her allotted land and other sums secured as rental, Lena Woods, a full blood Indian woman, educated at Chemawa, today filed a suit for divorce and for the custody of their four minor children. Will M. Peterson is her attorney.

Bowlers Will Organize.
Following a match game bowled at the Pastime parlors last night, enthusiasm among the lovers of this sport has received a great impetus and a meeting of all interested has been called for Monday evening for the purpose of organizing a bowling league and to discuss plans for sending a team to Los Angeles to the big tournament later in the season.

Gave Surprise Party.
Last evening a surprise party was given by Miss Helen Starr and a number of friends in honor of the Misses McNette. Young people to the number of 18 couple descended upon the three young ladies and the evening was pleasantly passed at cards. The highest score prize was won by Mr. Glenn Sturdivant, while the consolation prize was awarded Miss Ada Mathews.

Says Husband Fails to Provide.
Edna Lloyd today began suit against her husband, W. J. Lloyd, for an absolute divorce and $20 a month alimony, alleging that he has since their marriage in this city June 6, 1909, failed to provide the necessities of life for her and does now so fall to provide either for her or their two year old boy. She further alleges that he squanders his money drinking and gambling and that he maintains an indifferent and surly attitude towards her, all of which, she complains, makes her life exceedingly burdensome. Besides the decree and alimony, she asks the court for $29 court expenses, $50 witness fees, and $75 attorney fees. Judge James A. Fee is her attorney.

C. D. Gabrielson, insurance adjuster, is paying Pendleton a business visit.
