NEW YORK POOLROOMS LOSE TO WIRE TAPPEES

New York—The pool rooms of New York will long remember a horse named Rudolfo, indifferent two year old, which came in a winner over the telegraph wires but is still a maiden at the race tracks. It was a genuine case of wire tapping and it cost the keepers of the poolrooms thousands of dollars.
 Rudolfo was entered in the first race at Louisville and opened here at 2 1/2 to 1. There were several long shots in the race, including Mycenae at 20 to 1, Carlton Club at 50 to 1 and Casey Jones at 19 to 1. Certain betters backed Rudolfo so strongly that the price was cut to 2 to 1. But even then Rudolfo money continued to come in until the race was closed. There was little or no play on the long shots.
 There was no hint of anything wrong until just after the third race when the mutual betting was sent in. It gave Mycenae as the winner of the first at 40 to 1.
 "DEAD MAN" GOOD SPRINTER.
 Flees Hospital When He Thinks Surgeons Would Remove "Thirst."
 Rockford, Ill.—David Reese of Byron, who started an Ogle County coroner's jury last week by awakening just as an investigation into his death was to be started, furnished a second sensation, when, after conceiving the idea that surgeons at the Rockford hospital were about to operate on him for the removal of his thirst, leaped from a second-story window of the hospital and outsprung his attendants in a run to the county jail, where he begged protection.
 Reese was clad only in his undershirt, despite the chilly north wind. He quieted down after getting a chew of tobacco, and was taken to a sanitarium for the time being.
 Reese was declared dead after he had laid four days in a cornfield. His body was cold and stiff, but stimulants which he had deposited within him kept the spark of life aglow.

FIST PROVED TO BE MIGHTIER THAN LAW

Camden, N. J.—James Stewart was sent to jail recently by Prosecutor of the Pleas Henry S. Scovel for neglecting his family after he had twice let Stewart off on his promise to care for his wife and three children.
 Despite her experiences, Mrs. Stewart still believed her husband might be made to see his duty and she appeared before the prosecutor today with her three little ones. Her pleadings so touched Mr. Scovel's heart that he had Stewart brought from the jail.
 The husband and father entered the office sullen and defiant. The youngest child ran to him and, clasping his knees, puckered up her lips for a kiss. The father rudely brushed her aside.
 Prosecutor Scovel, who had watched the first of the little drama smilingly, arose, his face ashen with anger, and commanded Stewart to follow him into his private office. Soon sounds of a lively scuffle reached the ears of those in the outer office, accompanied by suppressed exclamations of fury and pain. Then the door was opened.
 Stewart emerged first. One hand covered his right eye. His clothes were ruffled. His sullen demeanor had changed to meekness.
 The prosecutor followed. His necktie was displaced and his knuckles were barked. Stewart, looking at the prosecutor, said he would care for his family and was sent away with them.
 "The fist is sometimes mightier than the law" was the only comment of the prosecutor.

HOUSE OF STOCKMAN LIES IN FOUR STATES

Fred Torren Cooks in Arizona, Eats in Colorado, Has Best Room in New Mexico.
 Kansas City.—When Fred Torren, a stockman, came to Kansas City with a load of cattle he was puzzled as to what state to register from. He explained that he lived in four states—Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Arizona—his ranch extending into all four and his house standing on the point where they meet.
 Mr. Torren eats his meals in Colorado, sleeps in Utah, has his "best room" in New Mexico and his kitchen extends into Arizona.
 The stockman gets his mail at Cortez, Colo., but votes in Utah, because he sleeps in that state. His legal business he does at the county seat of Apache County, Arizona, because most of his ranch lies in that state.
 The windmill which pumps water for his stock is in New Mexico, but the trough is in Arizona and the pig pen in Utah.
