AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

Orpheum.

A swell program for Sunday and Monday's change:

1. "Through His Wife's Picture." Biograph. Mr. Nelson is a newlywed and carries his wife's picture always. He almost falls for the temptation to go to the mask ball dressed as a pirate, but changes his mind. The wife goes to catch her hubby. So while hubby waits at home, wife is keeping her eye on the bold, bad pirate whom the husband has sent in his place.

2. "The Inventor's Secret." Biograph. An old toymaker invents an automatic doll and applying for a patent. A young girl is reported missing. The cop thinks the doll is the missing girl. For a while he has a vision of $500 reward, only to wake up to find both he and his sweetheart out of a job.

3. "The Two Fugitives." Essanay. After successfully eluding the London police, David Goodwin, an embezzler, sails for America and locates in the west. At the opening of our story he is married and has several little children. A sheriff and posse are pursuing a fugitive cattle rustler, who

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills Are Violent—They Act on Bowels as Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

Catarrh Doctor

You Can Get the Best One in the World for $1.00.

Go to Tallman & Co. today. Say "I want a HYOMEI outfit," take it home with you, open the box and pour a few drops of HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) into the little hard rubber inhaler.

Then breathe pleasant, soothing, healing germ killing HYOMEI over the raw, inflamed, germ ridden membrane for a few minutes and relief is immediate.

Stuffed up head will vanish. Keep up the treatment four or five times a day for a few days and hawking, spitting and forming of mucus in the nose and throat will cease.

HYOMEI is guaranteed to end catarrh, coughs, colds, croup, asthma, catarrhal deafness, or money back. Complete outfit $1.00, subsequent bottles if needed 50 cents at Tallman & Co., and druggists everywhere.

successfully eludes them and seeks protection with Goodwin.

4. "A Day at West Point Military Academy, New York." Edison. At West Point we see the United States army officer in the making and a knowledge of the daily routine soon removes the idea that the student officers' life is one of ease and luxury.

5. "The Renegade Brother." Pathé. In Old Mexico a father has two sons. One beloved and the other less so. As is usual in such cases, his father has to drive the worthless son from home. He runs away with his brother's sweetheart. Finally he and his wife and little child have sunk to the lowest depths of degradation.

The Pastime.

If you see it at the Pastime it is the best. Sunday's program follows: "Her Wedding Ring." Edison. The villain forced Lulu to marry him. The man from the east fell in love with her. Her husband overheard the conversation and it shamed him into becoming a man. This is an interesting picture.

"A Hot Time in Atlantic City." Lubin. Carlisford leaves his cottage. Two tramps enter the house, dress up in the count's clothes. The supposed nobleman make the acquaintance of two girls, but when the count sees his clothes trouble starts. This is a film of a thousand laughs.

"The Clown's Baby." Essanay. A dramatic story of life under the "big white top." Majorie, daughter of a trapeze performer, who is killed by a fall. Majorie is adopted by Piero, a clown. Later Majorie is adopted by a wealthy couple. A dreary year passes. She wanes in both body and spirit and at her first opportunity she runs off and joins the circus and is a happy child once more.

"The Upward Way." Kosmik. This film is built upon incidents in the life of Giovanni Lully. The Florentine violinist who was born in 1623 and died in 1687.

Cintra, a picturesque town of Portugal.

The Cosby.

Our steam-heated theater is nice and warm these cold afternoons and evenings. Program for Friday and Saturday.

"The Lie." Thanhouser. A pretty story, introducing the little "Thanhouser Kid." The elder of the two sisters was offered money by her employer to play a part, not knowing the result and needing the money she agreed and was the means of dividing two lovers. The hero later rescued her little sister from drowning and the big sister confessed to the heroine.

"Such is the Kingdom." Reliance. Gladys, the daughter of a minister, ran away and her father disowned her. She returned home, but was ordered out. Her father's assistant, a young minister, angry at her father's injustice, tore the insignia of office from his neck and exclaimed: "If that is your kind of religion, I don't want it." Shocked by the act, the old man saw the true light and forgave the erring girl freely.

"The Indian Rustlers." Bison. The Indians returning from an unsuccessful hunting trip and being hungry, decided to steal some cattle. Seen by a cowboy they tried to kill him. The Indians rushed to their tribe and the cowboys rushed to aid their pal. In a fierce battle the Indians were defeated and the cowboy saved.

"The Scandalmonger." Yankee. A comedy drama, showing the harm that a man gossiping wrought by his malicious lies. Old St likes to talk and in this case he talked too much and got a nice ducking in the millpond.

PASTOR HANGS HIMSELF.

The Rev. T. Walker Found Dead in Woodshed at Vancouver.

Vancouver.—The Rev. T. Walker, an Episcopalian, committed suicide in St. Luke's Home by hanging. He was found suspended by the rope of his dressing gown from one of the rafters of a woodshed, and it was evident that he had tried to slash his throat with a safety razor before hanging himself. The envelope was addressed in bold round lettering, "State of Colorado," and was franked from the Department of the Interior in Washington. A MOTHER'S DUTY

It is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and a benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information. BRADFELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
