EVENTS OF THE WEEK

On Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, 624 Johnson street, Miss Norma Johnson was united in marriage to George A. LaFontaine in the presence only of the immediate relatives of the two young people. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Durgan of the local Catholic church. Mr. and Mrs. LaFontaine left on the afternoon train for Portland where they will visit for a few days after which they will continue their honeymoon tour into California and probably on to Honolulu. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Winn Johnson and is one of the most popular and charming members of the younger society set of the city. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus La Fontaine and is one of the young men of the city who have turned their energies to farming in which vocation he has been very successful. Both young people have lived in Pendleton all of their lives and have made a host of friends whose well wishes follow them on their marital voyage.

Complimentary to Arthur Hatton, who is soon to be united in marriage to Miss Blanch Caldwell, seventeen of his gentlemen friends tendered him a banquet Thursday evening in the Quella restaurant. While the courses were being served, a number of the banqueters responded to toasts apropos of the occasion, E. D. Neal acting as toastmaster. The following made up the group at the tables: Arthur Hatton, E. D. Neal, R. J. Brush, Glen Finch, William Hanscom, Wade Privat, Oscar Moller, John Mumm, True Rogers, Joe Bohl, Emery Hassell, Glen Sturdivant, George Clark, Chester Beam, Aubrey Graham, Bud Cornfield, Volney Bibebe and Jack Urquhart.

Surprising many of their friends, was the wedding of John Elmer McCormack and Miss Hilda Hales Thursday evening at six o'clock at the farm home of the bride's parents near Adams. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Bleakney of Milton, in the presence of only the parents of the two young people. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O. Hales, and the bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCormack of this city. Following an elaborate wedding dinner, they went immediately to their home on the McCormack ranch near Havana Station.

Mrs. E. L. Skipworth and son, Marvin Skipworth, of Eugene, were guests at the home of Mrs. J. W. Privat during the week, stopping off for a visit while on their way east. Marvin Skipworth is the high school athlete who won the silver cup for the best broad jump last year at the Eugene interscholastic meet.

Mrs. Ellen Bond and Mrs. Willard Bond were hostesses at a silver tea Tuesday night at the home of the former on West Court street for the benefit of the Episcopal church. A delightful musical program entertained the attending guests, vocal solos being rendered by Misses Edna Thompson and Edna Zimmerman, Mrs. J. R. Dickson and Mrs. Thomas Vaughan and a violin solo by Dr. McKay. Refreshments were served during the evening.

On Monday, Miss Maud V. Latourcelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Latourcelle, will be married to Angelo Fulini of Tacoma. Miss Latourcelle arrived in the city Wednesday from Seattle while Mr. Fulini reached Pendleton this morning.

The Young Ladies' Bridge club met at the home of Miss Sybil Clopton Thursday afternoon and the members were delightfully entertained. Miss Edna Storie succeeded in capturing the trophy for high score.

The Evening Bridge club met Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Judd at their home on East Washington street. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. F. Robinson and Richard Mayberry.

Mrs. Laura B. Davis of Hermiston, recently returned from South America and who is visiting with Mrs. E. P. Marshall and other friends, has been the motif of several informal affairs during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Adams returned to their mountain home near Ukiah today, accompanied by Miss Olive Harper, who will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with them.

Miss Genevieve Clark returned last Saturday from Portland where she spent several weeks as the guest of Misses Edna and Lavelle Florence.

Mrs. Horace J. Mann and Miss Emma Mann will spend Thanksgiving with friends in Portland, leaving Pendleton next Tuesday.

Mrs. John Halley, Jr., will entertain the ladies of the Thursday Afternoon Club at her home this afternoon.

Mrs. Rose Campbell left today for Spokane to attend the festivities of the Enakops Jubilee.

Mrs. Lawrence G. Frazier went to Walla Walla Wednesday for a short visit with Mrs. Victor Hunziker.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Thompson left Thursday for Portland where they will visit for ten days.

Dr. W. G. Cole arrived in the city yesterday for a short visit with friends.

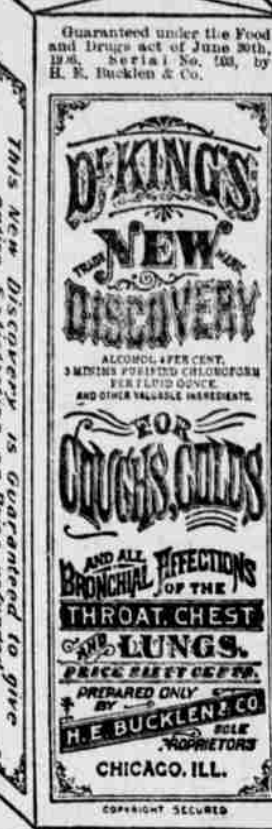

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Stanfield and Miss Iva Hill have spent the past week in Portland.

Tracey Baker is back from Portland after a week's visit with friends in that city.

Mrs. F. E. Judd and son, Henry, left Friday for Portland, where they will remain over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Earl D. Tulloch and young son left yesterday morning for California, where they will visit for several weeks.

BREAKS A COLD IN JUST A FEW HOURS

SEVERAL DOSES END MOST SEVERE GRIPPE MISERY Nothing else that you can take will break your cold or end gripe so promptly as a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three doses are taken. The most miserable headache, dizziness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress begin to leave after the very first dose. Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or gripe. Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world which will cure your cold or end gripe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

"I am pleased to recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as the best thing I know of and safest remedy for coughs, colds and bronchial trouble," writes Mrs. L. B. Arnold of Denver, Colo. "We have used it repeatedly and it has never failed to give relief." For sale by all dealers.

Our Varying Moods. "Yes; environment does influence us." "How now?" "You never see a man coming out of church with his hat perched on the side of his head."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lying comes as natural to some people as getting married does to an actress. TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box 25c.
