MONTANA FLOODS PORTLAND MARKET

LARGE OFFERING OF CATTLE IS UNWELCOME TO TRADE

Little Change in Quotations and Few Sales—Sheep Situation Is Nominal With Receipts Light—Hogs Hold Firm—Wheat Strengthens.

(From Wednesday's Journal.) Montana cattle were again pressing for sale upon the North ortland market and their reception was anything but cordial.

Offerings totaled 193 head, and of these, 9 loads came from Montana. The market started very quiet and rather weak with ideas of buyers down to zero, while sellers were at their mercy, but were holding out as long as possible for adequate returns. However, as shippers have been warned for some time that shipments of cattle at this time would meet with an adverse demand, the blame is placed upon those that refuse to accept advice.

As a rule there was practically no change in the cattle situation here this morning, although buyers were trying their utmost to lower the level. Select steers 4.50 5.50 Fancy steers 5.50 6.50 Choice steers 5.30@5.40 Feeders 4.55 Common steers 4.25 Fancy heifers 5.00 Feeder cows 3.25 Fancy bulls 4.25@4.35 Good ordinary bulls 4.00 Sags 4.25 Fancy light calves 7.50 Medium calves 5.00@5.60 Ordinary calves 4.00@5.00

Sheep Market Is Nominal. Only a few head of muttons came into the local yards today and therefore the market continues nominal. Totals were but 49 head, compared with 4071 last Wednesday.

At Chicago there was a stronger tone in the sheep trade, with a run of 12,000 head. Prices advanced 10c over yesterday. At South Omaha shee trade was firmer and 10 to 15c higher, with a run of 4500 head. Top yearlings sold at $4.40 and best lambs at $5.85 during the day.

Sheep values at North Portland: Select lambs 4.75 Choice lambs 4.50 Common lambs 4.00@4.25 Yearling wethers 4.50 Old wethers 4.00 Fancy ewes 3.45@3.50 Ordinary 2.50@3.00

Hogs Hold Firm at Advance. At the advance quoted yesterday, the hog market at North Portland was strong today with sales of top stuff at $6.75. It is noted that the market here is just the opposite from that shown at other packing centers where there has been a change in sentiment. Formerly all over the country the better figures were available only for the lighter block stock but now the good and heavy stock is finding the best call in the east and prices touch the extreme top. Here only the light stock is able to command extreme values.

Run of hogs for the day was 283 head compared with 628 last Wednesday.

North Portland swine trade today: Best eastern Oregon 6.75 Medium eastern Oregon 6.65@6.70 Best Willamette valley 6.60@6.70 Good to heavy 6.00 Feeders 6.50@6.85

Argentina Is Bull Factor. Chicago, Nov. 30.—A cable from Argentina telling of damage to the crop by rain in the Cordoba district, caused some short covering in the wheat pit yesterday. The market opened 3-8c lower for December and closed at Monday's prices. May opened 1-16c higher and closed at 1-1/8c. There was a weaker tone abroad the closing.

DELEGATE DEMONSTRATES MUMBO JUMBO DANCE

Americanized Hula Hula. With All Its Rhythm, Passion and Delight. Chicago, Ill.—Chicago society just missed it!

It was neither a new style in skirts nor the measles. It was the Mumbo Jumbo or Americanized Hula Hula dance of Hawaii that puts the Turkey Trot, Grizzly Bear, Dallas Dip, Frisco Flop, St. Louis Tolo, Cubanola Glide, Walla Walla Wiggle, Apache and Salome dances so far in the shade that they couldn't be seen with an x-ray.

Chicago just missed it, because Prince Jukuhio Kalananohe, delegate to congress from Hawaii, was compelled to leave with his wife for Washington after a short but lively stay at the congress hotel during which champagne flowed fast. With tears in his eyes the prince bemoaned a fate that severed him from Chicago before he could introduce into society the dance that replaces the beads and filmy skirt of Salome with a pleasant smile and feathers.

And just to prove that the Hula Hula is the concentrated essence of rhythm, motion, art, science, passion and delight, the prince embraced a friend and executed the wiggy contortions and steps while his beautiful Amazonian princess approved and adored.

"This dance was not naughty," said the prince, "ill Americans demanded something with local color, and now it resembles the Parisian cancan or hoochee-coochee. I regret to state it is too often given with the artist adorned in no other apparel than a happy smile and a girle of brightly tinted feathers. But I heard Chicago likes everything unique, and believe this dance is warranted to prevent superfluous flesh from accumulating around the abdomen."

At this point by way of illustration, G. W. Ashford, Honoluluized American and one of the prince's suite, gave a suggestion of the "Hula-Hula," whistling "Every Little Movement" as an appropriate accompaniment. "That's it," laughed his highness, watching his friend gambol about, with arms and legs going so rapidly that he looked like an intoxicated octopus. "That eats the Merry Widow, the Apache or any other wiggle you choose to name. It's only we Hawaiians who understand just what 'every little movement' means. Really, now—how would Chicago like it, do you think?"

The princess, a massive lady, richly dressed, who was high chiefess of the island of Kauai before her marriage, nodded her head in corroboration every time the prince spoke. "We don't worship volcanoes any more," said the prince, "or my wife would have the hereditary right to do some incantations for you. We go to Washington, D. C., now and are horribly civilized; but we have much of the old blood in us still."

Accompanying the prince and princess are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McCrescen, G. W. Ashford, Mrs. Davis Samuel Parker and the latter's son, E. N. Parker. All are Americans who have followed the fortunes of the prince for years and are interested in the sugar industry of Honolulu.
