Flat Car Wins.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 1.—David Bruce-Brown in a Flat car won the annual grand prize automobile race

Underwood Standard Typewriter POPULARITY

For the convenience of customers the regular correspondence machines are manufactured in two models, namely, Model No. 4 and Model No. 5, which are the same in all respects except that Model No. 5 is provided with four extra keys for writing fractions and special characters. Both machines have 10 inch carriages and write a line 8 inches wide. A machine is also made for work of a special nature, known as Model No. 3, which is the same as Model No. 5 except in the width of carriage. This model is made with carriages 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 and 26 inches in width, writing respectively lines 2 inches narrower, to provide for writing reports and compiling statistics of all kinds. Model No. 3 is used extensively by banks, rail roads, insurance companies, professional accountants and all classes of corporations.

The sales of Underwood Standard Typewriters largely exceed those of any other make of machine. "The Machine You Will Eventually Buy."

here yesterday for the second consecutive time, breaking a world's record by covering the 408 mile distance at an average speed of 74.4 miles an hour. The previous record was 74.15 miles an hour, made by Nazarro.

Eddie Hearne, who held the lead for 20 laps and gave Bruce-Brown a nip-and-tuck finish, took second in his Benz car, and Ralph De Palma, winner of second place in the Vanderbilt cup race, here Monday, was third.

Packey Nearly Gets Whipped.

San Francisco, Dec. 1.—Packey McFarland, the idol of the Chicago stock yards, won and almost lost yesterday when he was awarded the decision over Harlem Tommy Murphy at the end of twenty rounds of fighting before 6000 critical spectators.

McFarland's victory over the tough New Yorker whom 90 per cent of those presented expected him to knock out, was clean and left little room for argument.

But the rank and file of the experts and fight fans seemed unanimous in their view that as an opponent of the Champion Ad Wolgast, the Chicagoan was an impossibility. Hence his victory over Murphy left a tinge of disappointment among fight followers which they were not backward in expressing. McFarland and his handlers claimed that he had broken his right hand in the 12th round, and a cursory examination at the close of the battle showed that member to be badly puffed and swollen; but of this the public was not aware until after they had filed out of the arena.

McFarland, if he really broke his hand, gave an exhibition of gameness and ability to come back rarely seen in a prize ring.

Both fighters showed the marks of the conflict but they were of a superficial nature.

Summing up the battle, McFarland outpointed his adversary to such an extent that the latter's gameness and ability to absorb punishment did little to make it a two man affair. But the knockout punch was lacking and the reputed powerful McFarland "right cross" proved a negligible quantity.

Richey Stays Twenty Rounds.

Los Angeles, Dec. 1.—Willie Richey, from the training entourage of Packey McFarland, achieved an international fistic reputation yesterday by staying 20 rounds with Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight challenger who was to have gone on with Ad Wolgast in a Thanksgiving championship battle at Vernon Richey, on 24 hours notice, substituted for Wolgast, who was bereft of his vermiform appendix Wednesday at a hospital. Welsh was given the decision but Richey had him groggy on two or three occasions and after the mill the one topic of conversation among the "fans" centered on the question, "How long would Welsh have lasted against Wolgast if the latter had been in the ring?"

After an all night train ride from San Francisco Richey entered the arena somewhat heavy. Welsh appeared trained to the minute. The Briton excelled in ring generalship and did most of the leading, but his blows lacked steam, while Richey's when they landed generally stopped him.

AN ABSOLUTE Closing-Out Sale of the entire stock of Pianos, Talking Machines and Musical Merchandise

Of the

SNYDER MUSIC CO.

Everything Must Go!

Nothing Reserved!

Why this Closing-Out Sale?

The selling of Musical Instruments, Pianos, and Talking Machines is done so largely on the installment basis that my entire capital and profits for the year are tied up in contracts and leases. To finance the growing business is entirely beyond me so I am compelled to wind up my affairs at once as I cannot further replenish my stock as some of the factories are pressing me for settlement therefore.

Pianos the best that money will buy will be bought by those fortunate enough to get here on time at absolute factory cost. To ship this stock back to the factories would only add to the cost of these goods so the factories have decided to sell this really handsome stock of pianos at bare cost. Here is the opportunity of a lifetime that no family should miss; the opportunity to secure a fine high-grade piano at cost and, yes, on terms that anyone may buy.

HERE ARE THE PRICES

$300 Pianos will go at	$195	$475 Pianos will go at	$318
