HIGH SCHOOL TO BE CONSTRUCTED SOON

SCHOOL BOARD WILL HASTEN PRELIMINARY WORK

Bids to be Opened January 10—Present Building Will Continue in Use Until Time Arrives for Dismantling It—Probably Begin in March.

All haste will be made in taking the steps preliminary to the commencement of actual construction work on the new high school building now that the bond issue has been sold, according to members of the school board. Bids will be advertised for at once and, inasmuch as many contracting firms have signified their intention of submitting bids and as considerable time is required for these firms to figure out their estimates, the board has set Jan. 10 as a tentative date for the opening of bids but may delay it even longer.

Following the opening of bids, time must be allowed for the shipping in of material and its conveyance to the building site and the directors believe it will be the middle of March at the earliest before actual work of tearing down the old building is commenced.

The high school students will be kept in the old building until it is ready to be dismantled when they will be transferred to the old academy building on the north side of the river.

Work on the annex to the north side school for which bonds were voted at the same time as the high school bonds, will also be undertaken in the near future.

The $100,000 bond issue began bearing interest today.

WIFE'S SPIRITS TOO MUCH

Husband Sues for Divorce from Medium Who Sees Things

St. Louis, Mo.—Adolph Schnell has come home to his mother, Mrs. August Schnell of 2930 Herbert street, and has filed suit for divorce from Lillian Tramp Schnell, with whom, he alleges, he lived in Kansas City until spirits drove him out and her strange antics as a trance medium made it impossible for him to be happy with her. Schnell said today that he tired of the invisible company of Mike Conroy, his wife's "chief guide," and of her three familiar Indian spirits, Red Feather, High Horse and Red Wing.

"When a man goes home at night he wants to rest," said Schnell. "I would get into my first sleep and suddenly my wife would begin to yell. When I'd ask her what was the matter she would say, 'Mike Conroy is here. He wants you to get up and talk to your grandfather's spirit.' It wasn't any use for me to kick.

"When Mike Conroy had control of her she would talk in a rich Irish brogue. I couldn't see Mike. She made me do other things. It was too deep for me. I lost so much rest entertaining Mike Conroy and the three Indians that I couldn't stand it any longer."

Divorce Arguments On

Redwood City, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Moore's attorneys are arguing her side of the divorce case today. Mrs. Moore, testifying in rebuttal today, denied she was a habitual drunkard as he asserted.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Civic Association to Meet

The Library and Civic association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. in the city hall.

Daughter Is Born

At 1:30 this afternoon a five and one-half pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Ham of this city. "Grandpa" Joe Parkes is all smiles in consequence.

Pendland Sells Lots

L. E. Pendland and wife have sold to Mildred M. Haw the west half of lot 5, the west half of lot 6, all of lot 4 and fractional lot 3, block 27 of Arnold and Raley's addition to Pendleton. The consideration is not made public.

Five in Police Court

J. B. Headdy and Thomas O'Neil were this morning sent to jail for three days when they pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct. Al Nelson and Pearl Jones paid five dollars apiece to escape a similar fate on "drunk" charges, while Jack Ryan booked on the same charge went to jail.

Sues to Foreclose Mortgage

George Overfurl today commenced suit to foreclose a mortgage of $600 which he holds against Catton Butfum, Eliza and Edward White, a Walla Walla corporation. He asks for 6 per cent interest from March 9, 1910, and for $75 attorney fees. James P. Neal of Freewater, is his legal representative.

Remainder of Indians Go

Chiefs Umpine, No Shirt and Amos Pond and Charley Van Pelt left yesterday on their journey to Washington, D. C. where with Joe Craig and Captain Sompkin, they will represent the local tribe at the formation of the Indian brotherhood. The funds to defray their expenses were finally collected and they were able to follow their fellow delegates.

Local Cadets Are Active

The local cadet corps composed of about 40 boys of the city is very active these days and is laying plans for an increase in its membership. In order to arouse more interest, the boys have rented the Commercial gymnasium for every Friday evening and are preparing to enter the field of basketball. Ralph Shaw is captain of these young scouts, Harold Blakelee, first lieutenant and George Clark second lieutenant.

Round-Up Story in Sunset

Still another widely read magazine has given space to the Round-Up and the fame of Pendleton and her great wild west show is still further blown about. The last issue of the Sunset contains a story entitled "The Spirit of the Round-Up" written by Orton E. Goodwin in which the struggle for championship honors in the buckaroo contest at the last Round-Up is told in story form.

Oregon Apples for Easterners

T. F. O'Brien, local agent for the O.-W. R. & N. company, today received an announcement from company headquarters that Thursday, Dec. 11 would be Oregon Day at the Chicago land show and that the Commercial bodies of the state and the railroad are planning to present every visitor to the show on that date with a big red apple grown in the Beaver state. The local association is asked to secure what apples it can for the purpose.

Local A. W. L. Will Meet

The Pendleton Chapter of the A. W. L. will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of the president, 725 Johnson street, on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. The reason of the change in day is so that the secretary can attend the meeting. The state regent, Mrs. Lottie Hannon, will visit the chapter at this time. It is desirable that a good reception be given her on this occasion of her first visit to the chapter and every member in the city is urged to attend the meeting.

Dr. Frank Vincent Buried

The body of Dr. Frank Vincent, formerly a practicing dentist in this city and a brother of Dr. F. W. Vincent, was buried in Salt Lake City yesterday, according to a message received by local relatives. Dr. Vincent's death was due directly to paralysis from which he has suffered for several years. He left Pendleton about twenty years ago and returned for the first time last summer for a visit with his brother. At that time he was partially paralyzed. Of late he has been located in Salt Lake where he had an extensive dental practice. His wife succeeds to a moderate fortune which the deceased had built up.

Marriage Licenses and Marriages

Marriage licenses were issued Wednesday afternoon to Charles S. Bazarley of Wapato, Wash., and Emma Longmeyer of this county, Edd C. Wallan and Edna M. Martin of Adams and Walter R. Ramey and Hatie M. Cameron, both of this county. The two former couples were joined in marriage by Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes on the same day. A license was issued today to Claude F. Mudge of Pasco and Nora Carder of this county. Judge Parkes officiating in the ceremony this afternoon which made them man and wife.

To Educate the Farmers

Secretary Jack Keefe of the Commercial association is in receipt of a letter from Ralph D. Hetzel, director of the extension division of the Oregon agricultural college relative to the campaign which the association has undertaken towards the education of the farmers in modern methods of soil development. Mr. Hetzel declares the college is preparing to send some lecturers over the state and will arrange for several winter and spring lecturers to be delivered here. Also he says these lecturers will assist the Commercial club in organizing clubs for the study of problems of agriculture.

Story Hour Tomorrow

The regular weekly story hour will be held in the library rooms tomorrow morning at the usual hour.

Kaufman Gets Divorce

Circuit Judge G. W. Phelps Wednesday handed down a divorce decree in the case of Jacob Kaufman vs. Pearl Kaufman.

Thanksgiving Donation Success

The Sisters of St. Francis declare their first Thanksgiving donation yesterday was a great success and they will publish a list of the givers and their donations soon.

Umatilla Man in Trouble

Chief of Police Stevens of Umatilla arrived in Pendleton this morning with J. A. Sullivan, C. W. Nevins, Dorsen and Hawkins in his custody, the prisoners being charged with destruction of railroad property. They were given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Parkes this afternoon and released on their own recognition.

Pugilist Gets Broken Finger

Walter Burgo, the pugilist who fought Barney Mullin in Pendleton last year, came in from Umatilla yesterday to make complaint against one J. A. Sullivan, who he alleges, struck him with a black-jack, and broke one of his fingers. Burgo declares he attempted to interfere in a fight in which Sullivan was the aggressor and was disabled by the blow from the black-jack which was aimed at his head.

LOCALS BEAT HEPNER 11

They witnessed an exhibition of eleven developed into a regulated machine, the like of which has never been seen here before. To Coach Lytle belongs the great credit for the showing made yesterday for it was by his direction and under his guidance that the light players were developed into a fast, tricky and formidable aggregation.

The team goes to The Dalles next Friday to play the high school team in that city and, should another victory be won, the last of the contenders for the eastern Oregon championship will be disposed of. Then an effort will be made to play Lincoln high school of Portland for the state championship.
